The Thimble club met Thursday with Mrs. Edna Gilkey. The program was as follows: Reading from the famous woman's chapter in Prov. 31; the Lord's prayer in concert; the original club song, composed by Mrs. Effie Sommer, by all; Mrs. S. B. Holt played and sang "Star of the East." The hostess staged two contests, an Apple Romance and Topsy Turvey Town. As several answered alike, straws were drawn for the prizes. Mrs. Anna Holt and Mrs. Pansy Shepherd drew the lucky straws. Ginger cake and loganberry punch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ida Yunker. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Anna Holt.

Mrs. Leslie Potts, whose husband died in Albany a week ago Sunday night, was Miss Louise Hanke, and lived near Gilkey station before her marriage.

Mrs. Joseph Hares, who came out from Park City, Utah, about two weeks ago to assist in caring for R. H. McCarter, who is quite ill; was taken ill and the first of the week was not expected to live. She is 85 years of age and made the trip from Park City alone.

SANTIAM FARM NEWS

July 29

Everything is very quiet, only excitement is thrashing which is going on nicely. Grain will soon be all in the dry. Fair prices prevail, as the crop is a little light but of fair quality.

Elmer Griffin came up Saturday from the Cottage Farm, where he has been an attendant for the past year, returning Monday.

S. W. Gaines received a letter from Curtis Griffin, who arrived in Los Angeles last Sunday, after leaving the Santiam Farm on Monday, going by water, and resumed their old job the next morning, the wife receiving $150 per month and he gets $300 per month—fair wages.

Billy Beran, wife and daughter of Rodgers Mountain came down to spend the day with Ed Kalina and family, the ladies being sisters. Billy and Eddie are both fine, up-to-date farmers, and are running a race to see who can raise the best crop this dry season. Billy will have to go some if he carries off the big pumpkin, as Ed has the finest crop in this section.

Geo. Griffin made a flying run to Salem Sunday afternoon with his brother, Elmer.

The Sunday Journal carrier called in Sunday, as the old man stopped his paper—he was getting too much paper for the five cents.

Ed Kalina, wife and son went for short visit Sunday evening to their friend, Mr. Kukacka, returning home at 10:30 p. m.

PIE EATER.

News From Lyons.

July 22

(Received too late for publication last week.)

Clyde Lewis drove to Portland the first of last week, taking his sister, Roxie Trask, and her son Lauris to consult a specialist. Lauris had scarlet fever some time ago and has been troubled with a bad throat. We understand he had his tonsils removed and will probably recover nicely now.

Marshall Stone and wife of Mill City spent Sunday afternoon at the U. S. Berry home.

Clyde Wilson and wife of Mill City were callers at the home of his mother in Lyons Sunday evening.

Dwight Mercer and wife were Salem visitors Sunday.

Clyde Thomas and wife called at J. H. Johnston's Sunday on their way to Lacombe.

George Berry and Jack Johnston went to Mr. Berdick's, above Me-hama, Monday to get a grain binder which they bought of Mr. Berdick.

Novell Hobson is reported to be quite ill with scarlet fever.

Dellis Westenhof of Scio was in the valley Saturday delivering feed, and took a truck load of lambs to Scio for Mr. Rodgers.

J. H. Johnston and family were Silverton and Salem callers Sunday. They hadn't seen Silverton for nearly 20 years and found the city had changed considerable in that length of time, only a very few of the business houses are there now that look natural. The name of Adolph Wolf & Son, hop buyers, was on the window of a present hardware store; also the J. Wolford store and Ames Hardware were a part of the town.

July 29

F. A. Marriels came up from Salem Saturday evening, stopping over Sunday with E. E. Trask.

Carl Titus and family and M. S. Titus of Stayton were callers in Lyons Sunday.

The L. D. Waterman family of Salem called on friends here Friday.

Mrs. Elmer Hiatt and daughter, Mrs. Cecil Manning were week-end visitors at Lyons.

The Rebekah lodge gave Miss Zeta Prichard a miscellaneous shower after the meeting Saturday evening.

She received many nice articles. The Prichard home burned a few weeks ago and they lost nearly all their furnishings. Miss Prichard is highly esteemed and is well deserving of the hospitality shown her by friends and neighbors of the family.

Charles Doety and wife of Sacramento, Calif., old time residents of our vicinity, were Lyons visitors Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Abel, Mrs. Emma Lyons and the Hiatt family were the only ones they met whom they remembered.

The J. H. Johnston family attended a surprise birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. W. R. Surry at her home in Lebanon Sunday. The G. F. Johnston family, Mrs. George and Miss Ella Johnston of Salem were also present.

Miss Dora Surry of Lebanon is spending the week at Lyons.

Harvest is on in full blast in our vicinity, and crops are fair. Threshing is expected to begin next week.

M. Martin and wife were in Salem Saturday.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Holland of Scio, at a hospital in Eugene, a daughter. She has been named Patricia Lorraine. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

C. C. Davenport and family returned Tuesday from a weeks motor trip in Eastern Oregon. They went over the McKenzie pass and returned by the way of Portland.

Farmers have about finished their threshing and are well pleased with the yield. Fall wheat is averaging 45 bushels to the acre while spring wheat is not so good. The price at present is about $1.30 per bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Thoms visited Mrs. S. A. Pease of Jefferson Sunday. Mrs. Pease was injured two weeks ago by an automobile which was passing her home on the highway, and she is still unable to walk.

Frank Donovan and family of Corvallis, Ellis Donovan and wife and Mrs. Lena Peterson and Carol Ward of Portland, and Ralph and Harry Donovan, who are working at Stayton, spent Sunday at C. M. Donovan's.

Porter Long and wife accompanied their son, Spencer Long and family to the coast country the first of the week to spend a few days. They will visit their daughter, Mrs. Francis Arnold, at Wheeler before they return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Love and daughter of Salem spent the week-end at Wilson park. The Loves are lovers of nature and they like Wilson park so well that they come out there three or four times each summer to spend the week-end.
