

LOCAL BREVITIES

Misses Ella and Rose Jiroch came out from Albany to attend the family picnic Sunday. Miss Rose returned and Miss Ella went with two cars of others to Newport to spend the week.

Charles Deal and wife and two daughters of Seattle visited with Rev. Clarence Hedrick and family the first of the week. They were friends when both families lived in California.

Mike Stastny and wife and two sons of Malin, passed through Scio Monday afternoon and called on J. F. Wesely. They are visiting Mr.

Stastny's parents at Jefferson, and are planning a trip to Newport before returning home. Mr. Stastny formerly lived on the D. H. Hildreth farm east of Scio and taught school in Linn county.

Mrs. R. L. Hixson, Mrs. Fred Ohlmeier and the Misses Leta Couey, Vella Brenner and Dorris Weddle enjoyed a swim and picnic supper near the Richardson Gap bridge Monday evening.

S. H. Goin and family have returned from a sojourn at Newport. Sterl says he is feeling fine and is "rarin' to go," politically speaking. He made a good record two years ago, and can do it again.

Fred T. Bilyeu had his car damaged last Saturday at Stayton when another car collided with him. His fender and running board were torn off and a hole was punched in the side of his new Ford coupe.

P. H. MacDonald, Fred Daley, Harold Hassler and E. J. Holland and wife attended the Albany-Corvallis ball game at Albany Sunday. They said it was a good game. Corvallis won by a score of 5 to 4.

Professor Wautenpaugh and wife were in Scio last Wednesday afternoon calling on Mrs. Wautenpaugh's uncle, Thomas Large, and making arrangements to move here where he will be principal of the school next year.

A. C. Parker and wife and daughter, Billie Jane, of San Francisco spent the week-end with M. B. Cyrus and wife. They were enroute to their home in San Francisco after a motor trip to Washington and British Columbia.

Mrs. Addie E. Shore, Mrs. Dr. Vernon Brown and Mrs. Dr. J. Knapp of Portland and Ephriam Young and wife of Salem visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pepper Sunday, and also visited Franklin Butte cemetery.

John Jiroch and wife and their children, Ed Pelan and family, Mrs. F. H. Jiroch and two children and Miss Annie Jiroch of Portland, and Misses Ella and Rose Jiroch of Albany held a family picnic at Santiam park near Jefferson Sunday.

Will Abbott and wife drove to Shedd Sunday to visit with Mr. Abbott's cousin, Mrs. T. A. Springer and family, and to be with other relatives, Mrs. Springer's mother, sister, brother, and an aunt who were there from Grants Pass.

Henry Hassler and wife attended a family reunion of the Wint Young family at Bryant park in Albany Sunday, at which there were about 40 present. Ed Young of Eugene was among those in attendance, this being his first visit in this vicinity in 18 years.

Rev. Clarence Hedrick and family are leaving this morning for their new home at Hillsboro. Rev. Hedrick wishes through the Tribune to thank the people of Scio for helping him in various ways to carry on the work and says that they will certainly remember Scio in their prayers.
