Amy Holteen Married

A surprise was sprung on the many friends of Miss Amy Holteen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Holteen, when she slipped away to Salem Monday and in the afternoon became the bride of D. K. Eplin of Salem. The young couple, we understand, had planned on the event occurring late in the fall, but decided there was no time like the present, so married they are. It is probable they will make their home in Salem. Her friends wish her much happiness on the matrimonial sea.

Eye Operated Upon

Wednesday in Salem John Wesely underwent an operation on his right eye for an affliction similar to a cataract. Four incisions were necessary, and complete recovery is expected. The eye has been bothering him considerably of late, hence the operation.
