

GILKEY STATION

Nov. 18

A house warming surprise party was given last Saturday night at the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. John DeWall. Refreshments consisting of punch, cake and dill pickles were served at a late hour. The DeWall's moved into their new house last week.

Sunday dinner guests at the J. G. Holt home were: Lester Holt and wife of Carlton; Jack Jones, wife and son Harry of Stayton; Jack Kelly of Scio, and Will Moore, Kelly and Eileen of Salem.

Loren Thompson arrived Saturday from Canada to visit at the Wilson Young home.

Mrs. Ira Robinson and daughter, Mildred, visited Mrs. Robinson's sister, Mrs. Bruner, at Shelburn Sunday.

L. E. Gilkey and family visited at the Will Gilkey and Cora Smith homes Sunday.

The meeting of the local Farmers Union was held with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kelly last Saturday night. Refreshments served by the officers of the Union consisted of weinies, buns and cocoa.

Those from here who attended the bazaar held at the Aumsville high school last Friday night were the Crenshaw, Goar and Riggs families, Mrs. Yunker and Carl, Frank DeWall family, Mrs. W. A. Gilkey and Marian, Percy Chappelle, Lona and Hazel Zysset, Harvey and Pearl Mitchell and the Fred Sommer family. About $250 was realized from the bazaar.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mespelt and Opal, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly and little daughter visited at the Joe Kitchen home in Albany Sunday.

Miss Merle Bigham, teacher of the Oak View school, spent the week-end in Portland.

Eva, the little daughter of Chas. Weinburg, was badly burned on her back last Wednesday when she fell against a kettle of hot soup, spilling it over her.

Rev. Cooper and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain of Albany were Sunday callers at the Charles Weinberg home.

S. B. Holt and W. R. Kelly sent a truck load of hogs to Salem Monday.

Mrs. A. G. Prill of Scio visited at the Orville Gilkey home Saturday.

A valuable cow belonging to S. P. Crewshaw was drowned in some manner during the recent high water. He missed her for several days, and when the water receded he found her entangled in some brush.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Galloway of Madras, in eastern Oregon, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Galloway's brother, Leo Zeller. She will be remembered here as Kracencia Zeller.

R. H. McDonald and family visited at the Dwight Peterson home in Scio Sunday.

Will Weinberg and family have been visiting at the home of Charles Weinberg.

SHELburn NEWS

Nov. 18

Charles Cramer and wife spent

Live Turkey Dance at Tumble Inn Saturday Night, Nov. 22

2 1/2 miles north of Albany on the Highway. Come, you may get your Thanksgiving Turkey Free.

And Remember

Old Time-New Time Dance Wednesday Night, Nov. 26th.

Good Music

Fun for Everybody

COME TO COUEY'S

For your fixin's for Thanksgiving Dinner. For nuts, we have Walnuts, Almonds and Brazils. Then there's Citron, Orange and Lemon Peel. We also have Oranges, Bananas, Lemons, Cranberries, Fresh Vegetables, etc., etc.

And Don't forget Sear's Butternut Bread.

THE PEOPLES STORE

J. B. COUEY, proprietor

Ford Sales and Service

Genuine Ford Batteries, wood case, $16.50
Ford Batteries, rubber case.....$18.50

Batteries repaired by an experienced battery man Batteries repaired on Ford schedule. Bring in your battery and give us a trial.

FRED T. BILYEU

Phone 27, Scio, Oregon

The Ford Garage

last Thursday with her niece and family, Mrs. Charles McClain.

W. H. McLain and son Dillon and T. M. Russell blasted 2 1/2 acres of stumps with sodatol for F. A. Miller last Thursday and Friday.

Farmers are improving these fine days plowing and sowing grain.

Margaret Brown spent a few days of last week with friends in Albany.

R. M. Russell and wife spent Sunday with her parents, Edwin Jones and wife.

Clinton George spent the week-end at home. He said there was two feet of snow the last of the week which interfered with logging operations until the snow melted and settled.

Mrs. Mollie Miller brought her daughter home from the hospital Sunday. She is improving nicely.

W. H. McLain and wife and T. M. Russell made a trip to Eugene Saturday. The men went on business and Mrs. McLain visited relatives and friends.

John Bentz and family spent Sunday at their farm.

Grandma Miller spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Charles McClain, and family. On her way home she stopped in to see her granddaughter, Agnes Miller.

A. I. Arnold and wife visited their daughter, Mrs. Carl Smith, and family.

T. M. Russell and wife and Geo. Miller made a business trip to Albany Monday.

Mrs. T. M. Russell and daughter spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. McLain.

A program followed by a pie social will be held at the Shelburn school house Friday evening, Nov. 21. Come, everyone, and ladies and girls bring a pie. The proceeds from the sale of pies will be used to buy things needed in the school room.

Subscribe now, $1.75 per year.

Break Up That Cold

With DeWitt's Cold Syrup, 50c
and DeWitt's Cold Tablets, 25c

Send in your Mail Orders

Kelly's Drug Store

YOURS FOR SERVICE

Please Remember to See Us

When in need of anything in Gents' Underwear, Socks, Suspenders, Ties, Collars, etc. We carry a good line at prices that are consistent with the quality of merchandise. So give us a chance, as we appreciate and need your patronage.

Yours to Live and Let Live,

J. F. WESELY, Groceries & Notions

BED SPRINGS

SPECIAL

MATTRESSES BLANKETS

NICKLE-COPPER TEAKETTLE $1.95

ALUMINUM PERCOLATOR ROASTER DOUBLE BOILER 99c

New shipment of 12 foot and 6 foot Linoleum just arrived

Lang and Universal Ranges Best Made

R. M. CAIN
SCIO, OREGON

All Kinds Heating Stoves Buy Now

Soap SOAP Soap

Surely You Use Soap

We are Offering:

- 15 5-cent bars Coconut White Laundry Soap..... $ 75
- 1 16-cent bar Borax Soap..... 10
- 1 19-cent bar Cocoa-Almond Soap..... 10
- 1 19-cent bar Bath Soap..... 10
- Total..... $1 05
- All in a 75c Shopping Basket (Basket absolutely Free) for..... $1 00

HIBLER & GILL CO.

10% Discount on All Heaters

Saturday and all next week

N. I. MORRISON

Cool, Clean Milk

Prevents souring. Avoid this loss by cooling quickly and keeping milk where plenty of fresh air circulates, preferably in the open.

Oregon Milk Company

Candensery, Scio, Oregon