Golfing adds to a man's physical assets. It also increases his lie abilities.

An optimist is a man who can be proud of his chivalry while pumping up a tire in the rain.

One of the worst things about bobbed hair is that too many editors needing a haircut and shave are trying to say something funny about it.

Mrs. Harding is dead, having been called last Friday. She was buried Monday. Her life was one of sunshine, and she will be missed. May her good influence live on and on.

Some people claim the world is making great progress in the direction of better things. Let us see. Last year we had "Yes, we have no bananas," and this year we have, "It ain't goin' to rain no more."

Of all the ills that public men are called upon to suffer, slander must be the most pernicious, if for no other reason than that it is so easy to set in motion and so hard to overtake. Once fairly on its feet, a good substantial lie about a man, and particularly about a man in public life, will circle the globe while the truth is lacing its shoes on.

Over in Corvallis, says the Benton County Courier, the petty crime wave among the young folks is becoming alarming, and says that the officials and courts are puzzled on how to handle the situation unless the doors of the reformatory and penitentiary are opened to receive offenders of law and order, and this they have been loathe to do because of the youthfulness of the offenders. The Courier says many of the offenders are sons of most excellent families, but have no check on their child and are over indulgent. Too many parents indulge their child in wrong-doing because they do not believe in punishment. This mistake on the part of parents is mainly the reason why so much mental unrest is so prevalent today. A child is impressionable, and when good parents fail to impress their child with their authority and high ideals, some one on the street is going to see that satan's horns are fastened on the child—and he is lost forever to the father's and mother's good influence. The child when in its toddling age can be taught to obey, and without brutality, but if allowed to have its way at all times, then the parent can expect to reap the reward such as the Courier reports is going on at Corvallis.

HERE'S JUST WHAT YOU ARE

You can get more startling information about yourself out of the reports of a medical convention or out of a learned surgeon's discussions in trade publications than you can anywhere else in the world. For example, Dr. George W. Crile, a noted Cleveland surgeon, has just announced that "Man is simply a mechanism run by electricity and chemical reaction, a machine made up of 28,000,000,000,000 electric cells."

It is to be presumed that Dr. Crile must have started counting all those cells when he was quite a young boy.

Probably when you sneeze a few millions of these cells happen to be dusty and get a good cleaning out.

Likewise, when an attack of hay fever settles down in your midst for the summer it is a sign you have inhaled a few bales of alfalfa.

Or, if you get too much bile in your liver, you need to flag the "trouble shooter" to find out how many billion of these cells have been short circuited.

By and by, no doubt, the country will be dotted with cute little human "service stations" where you can drive up and get a brand new flock of cells when the old ones get worn smooth or when your battery needs recharging.

Dr. Crile has certainly opened up a wide field for surmise and speculation.

GOING TOO FAR

By placing an electric light over the abdomen, experts say, digestion can be stimulated. Light from an ordinary incandescent lamp has a germicidal effect and will relieve pain.

This is a discovery of social consequence. Soon the well appointed table will include a light plug at each place. Gentlemen after dinner will carry lights amidship to show that they have dined. The lighting systems of our cabarets will acquire a new significance.

But it should not go too far. When eating dinner requires an instrument board and as much technique as driving an automobile, science has progressed far enough. The naive pangs of colic are better than digestion with a machine shop.
