

GILKEY STATION

Dec. 30

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cantrell and son Seifert of Hood River are visiting with Mrs. Cantrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Peterson, and other relatives.

Clifford Kelly, who has been in the Albany hospital for some time with a broken shoulder, is now at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. G. Holt.

Christmas dinner guests at the R. H. McDonald home were: Mr. and Mrs. P. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Peterson and little son Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Peterson and little daughters Joyce and Marjory of Scio, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cantrell and son Seifert of Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Kelly returned home Sunday from Silverton, where they spent Christmas with the latter's mother, Mrs. Wm. Serfling.

Guests at the J. G. Holt home on Christmas were: Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Jones and son Harry of Stayton and W. R. and Clifford Kelly.

Miss Ethel Zysset suffered a broken wrist while coasting down the hill Saturday at the E. F. Krebs place with a party of young people. Dr. Prill was called and set the fracture.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Hyde and son Jay of Corvallis are spending a few days with Mrs. Hyde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Zysset.

Christmas guests at the Orville Gilkey home were: Mrs. Gilkey's sister, Miss Audrey Ferris, and Stewart Dick of Portland and the W. A. Gilkey family.

Miss Cole Zysset returned to her school at Cascadia Sunday, accompanied by her sister, Lona, who will remain with her a few days.

Mrs. Clara Chapelle and sons, Cletus and Buster, who have been visiting relatives here, returned to their home at Woodburn Monday.

Mrs. and Mrs. E. L. Smith of Toledo spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mespelt.

H. P. Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. John DeWall, Mrs. O. J. Goar were shopping in Albany Saturday.

Little Oswald Crenshaw, who has been suffering with boils for several weeks, is now able to be up.

Mrs. Minnie Smith of Albany spent Christmas at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Mespelt.

Arthur Kelly and family of Lebanon visited at the F. W. Mespelt, J. G. Holt and J. H. Kelly homes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Reilly had their annual family Christmas tree on Christmas night. Those present were: Tim Kelly, wife and Junior; Fred Mespelt, wife and Opal; Joe Kitchen and wife of Albany; Ernest Kelly, wife and daughter Velda; Will Mespelt and family; J. H. Kelly and wife; Mrs. Minnie Smith of Albany; Miss Minnie Sullivan, Harold Reilly and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Weinberg and family spent Christmas in Salem with Mrs. Weinberg's mother. Miss Iva remained for a longer visit.

The program and Christmas tree at the Riverview school house Wednesday night was well attended, regardless of zero weather.

The Oakview school gave a Christmas program Tuesday night. The teacher, Miss Merle Bigham, left Wednesday to spend the holidays with her parents in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Knotts and children, Dick and Ruth, of Albany were visitors at the Fred Sommer home Monday. Mrs. Knotts will be remembered here as Miss Bess Bryant.

Allen Gilkey, who has been staying with his aunt, Mrs. Cora Smith, for some time, spent Christmas with his parents in Albany.

Herman Zeller spent Christmas with his mother and sister at Silverton. Otto Yunker is home from Mill City, where he has been working.

Will Mespelt and family went to Albany Wednesday to spend Christmas with Mrs. Mespelt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Holley, returning on Thursday.

Harry Jones of Stayton came Sunday to spend part of his vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Holt.

S. F. Zysset and family had a Christmas dinner guests: Claud Hyde, wife and son, Jay, of Corvallis; Mrs. Clara Chapelle and sons, Percy, Cletus and Buster, and Gladys Chapelle, of Woodburn.

H. P. Riggs and Frank DeWall butchered hogs Monday.

Rev. T. W. Cooper of Jefferson preached at the school house Sunday immediately after Sunday school, and again in the evening following the young people's meeting.

The local telephone company held their annual meeting at the Riverview school house Saturday. Leo Zeller was re-elected director to serve three years, Fred Sommer was elected for two years to serve in Leonard Gilkeys place, S. B. Holt was re-elected secretary-treasurer, and J. G. Holt was elected representative to the general company at Scio.

Ronald Sommer is building a radio and expects to have it installed about the first of the year.

Mt. Pleasant Cole News

Dec. 29

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Ray motored to McMinnville with a load of wood last Tuesday.

Ben Darby was a Stayton visitor last Wednesday.

Louie Ray, wife and son, Lyle, were in Scio last Wednesday.

Otto Limbeck and wife spent Christmas with home folks.

Chas. Peter, wife and son, Elvin; Louie Ray, wife and son, Lyle, and Harley Darby spent Christmas with home folks.

Joe Senz butchered his hogs last Tuesday and took them to Stayton Wednesday.

Alice Eberhardt of Salem spent Christmas with home folks.

Frank Habberman and wife, and Francis Horeth, wife and daughter, and Angeline Ryan, all had a merry time Christmas with home folks.

Joe Hora was shopping in Scio Wednesday.

George Sandners were Christmas shopping in Stayton Wednesday.

Louis Geisler and hired man were Sublimity visitors Wednesday.

Carl Limbeck visited Geo. Chrisman last Thursday.

David Aegerter and wife spent Christmas with Tony Geisler and family.

Otto Limbeck and wife visited his folks last Friday.

Oliver Beard motored to Stayton Friday morning.

Ben Darby called on Paul Limbeck last Friday.

Harold and Earl Darby visited at Hora's last Saturday evening.

Leo Rund and Ben Darby helped Joe Senz butcher his hogs last Tuesday.

Joe Hora attended the program at the Scio high last Wednesday.

Ben Darby called on Tony Geisler last Friday.

George, Arthur and Delbert Sanfner went over to the other place on Friday to look after the stock.

R. F. Darby and family motored to home folks last Saturday. Mrs. Darby did the washing for her mother, as she is not able to work yet.

Dave Aegerter called on Joe Hora last Saturday.

Mrs. Silbernagel and Jake of Jordan stayed at Joe Louis Geisler's on Saturday night, returning home on Sunday morning.

I. N. Howe and family of Salem and Joe Hora spent last Sunday afternoon at Ben Darby's.

Harold and Earl Darby visited at Hora's last Saturday evening.

Dave Aegerter and Joe Hora motored to town to the show Sunday evening.

Louis Geisler and family went to Sublimity Sunday.

SHELburn NEWS

Dec. 30

H. O. Shilling and daughter, Opal, spent last Sunday afternoon with C. O. McClain and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee George spent a very pleasant evening with H. O. Shilling and family Sunday.

T. J. Gibbons is unloading a car of wood at Albany this week. He reports the price of wood on the increase on account of the cold spell of weather.

Miss Blanch Churchill spent Sunday with Agnes Miller.

John Ransom, jr., reports very cold weather above Oakridge on the Natron cut-off. Work is progressing quite rapidly in spite of the bad weather. He spent his Christmas in surveying for tunnel construction.

Everett Wyman is improving nicely from his burns.

J. Kean of Stayton and Mr. Smith of Bend called on W. H. McLain Friday morning. Mr. Smith has purchased the Frank Studnicka place near Shelburn.

Miss Elsie Downing is spending her vacation with friends at Oregon City.

Christmas was celebrated by family reunions, among them were the Osborn, Millers, Trollingers, H. O. Shillings, McLains, Chrismans, Bates, Shelton, Roadarms and Lefler families. The usual custom of family trees was held as usual, and Old Santa came in his auto with sleigh-bells ringing. He sure had a cold ride to reach all the houses.

Mrs. W. H. McLain spent Monday night with Mrs. T. M. Russell and family.

T. M. Russell and wife spent Christmas day with friends at Macleay, Mr. and Mrs. Lentz.

Vera Carson spent a few days this week with her friend, Lola George.

While on a drive Christmas day to Macleay to visit relatives and friends, T. M. Russell and wife witnessed a very unusual sight about a quarter of a mile north of the business part of Stayton. It was a frozen fountain caused by the bursting of the water main. The water had frozen in many beautiful forms and shapes. The fountain towered 8 or 10 feet high in the air, and in the bright sunlight it was a very pretty sight.

M. C. McLain and family spent Christmas with home folks.

Wyman Brothers are adjusting their water system since the freeze.

W. H. McLain made a business trip to Scio Tuesday.

Clinton George and sister, Mrs. Carl Follis, spent the week-end with friends in Stayton.

W. H. Bartlett and daughter went to Portland Christmas morning to visit relatives and transact business.

The Tribune office is now prepared to supply you with bridge score cards. Price, 35 cents per dozen.

L. C. Fredrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fredrick, writes from Rock Springs, Wyo., where he is employed as a mechanic in air mail field, that it was pretty cold there, that he had plenty to do and was enjoying his work and good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sims came up from Cushman to spend Christmas with home folks. Kenneth has accepted employment with Mountain States Power Co., and his wife has returned to Cushman to pack their household goods preparatory to removing to Scio.

You'll Find Your Want Here

So see line, but nothing under the line

Wanted—12 copies of Dec. 18 issue of Tribune for Mrs. J. P. Munkers. Bring to office.

For Sale—18 loads of hay. The first $150.00 takes the lot. Ira Serfling, Scio, Ore. 19-3c

Wanted—Fordson size feed grinder. Give particulars and price. Chas. Chrz, Scio, Ore. 19-1f

For Sale—Louse Hay, delivered, at market price for kind you want. See Chas. Chrz, Scio, Ore. 13-1f

Farm Loans—Money at 5 1/2% with nominal commission; prepayment privileges after first year. Wm. Bain, Albany Ore. 13-c

If you have a good body on your Ford touring car and want a sedan body put on, it will pay you to see or phone E. J. Holland.

For Sale—Good, clean vetch, cheat, oats and clover baled hay; also baled straw. Priced right. See E. L. Bilyeu, route 3, Scio, 25-p

For Sale—Five fresh cows, $250 for the bunch; also two Duroc-Jersey brood sows, $50 takes the two. See Harry E. Chrisman, route 1, Scio, Oregon. 21p

Lost—Wednesday evening between Bilyeu Den and Scio, brown leather satchel. Return to Warren Burton or the Scio Tribune for reward. 21p

For Sale—1 male & 1 female large type Duroc-Jersey pigs, 6 months old; fine specimens; weight about 160 to 175 lbs., eligible to registry; price $25. Max Wesley, Scio Oregon. 21-t2c

Doubleheader Basketball
Friday Nite 2 Big Gym
January 2 Scio, Ore.
Gates Girls & Boys
VS.
Scio Girls and Boys
 Game Called at 7:30
Everybody Welcome Adm. 20c-35c

To The Public

Owing to the fact that business generally is going on the cash basis, and as we must pay cash for our Gasoline and Supplies, beginning today, Jan. 1, and thereafter, all Supplies, Gasoline, Oils, Work, etc., will be Strictly Cash. As above stated, we are driven to this by having to pay cash for what we get, and cash talks. In doing this, can also serve you better and cheaper, and thus we both save.

We wish all our friends and patrons a happy and prosperous New Year.

Scio Garage
 Cyrus & Brock, Proprietors
Bartu Motor Co.
 Mylo and Frank Bartu, Proprietors
Fred T. Bilyeu