January; 60th Anniversary Sale

Opens at 9 o'clock Friday morning, January 9th, with a storeful of locally and nationally known Suits, Overcoats, Hats, Underwear and Accessories Reduced to prices that should crowd First Street from Ellsworth to Broadalbin

10% 20% 30% AND 50% OFF

On the type of wearing apparel that is seldom reduced--the sort of merchandise that is always wanted and welcome.

When this sale starts Friday morning, all of Albany is going to have its eyes opened. The men who come here on the opening day are going to see the opportunities and the men who stay away are going to hear of these unprecedented values on Saturday--from their neighbors. These are our own stocks--not one thread has been purchased for the Sale. These are our own ideas of severe reductions, and we add also that we don't think fine goods have ever been cut so deeply.

It is our business policy to clear the decks in January. We won't carry an item or atom into another season. The special bargains this advertisement quotes are but a few of the opportunities--you can trust them here in print for they will prove themselves in person. Friday morning the Sale starts on its way--and for 14 days the battle will rage!

The Suits and Overcoats....

In this event were made by the foremost makers, Oregon City, Frat. Clothcraft and a few Kuppenheimer. There is no better clothing made--and there were no more legitimate prices ever marked. These reductions then are built on fair prices first--and the last work in the tailor's art next. In this sale are three lots--three prices:

No. 1 comprises suits and overcoats that sold for $24.75 to $30.00; about 100 garments in all sizes..... $17.60

No. 2 consists of the finest suits and overcoats that sold for $30.00 to $35.00. Your selection ..... $21.60

No. 3, our finest fabrics--the hard-to-secure woolsens, the impor'ed cloths, the rare weaves --former prices $35.00 to $40.00 ..... $26.60

The Shirts - The Underwear

The Hats and Work Clothing

A $10,000 stock of Dress Accessories consisting of everything a man wears noon and night. This stock has its walking papers--in 14 days it should vanish--it is going to vanish--just look at the able vanishing prices:
