

More Prizes and Big Free Show

THE SECOND PRIZE OFFERING, designed to put Scio on the map as the best trading point, and to give the people something they want and can use, is now in full swing at all the stores and business houses listed on this and the next page, together with others who are contributing to the enterprise but are not advertising. Those contributing are Scio Mill & Elevator Co., R. M. Cain, C. E. Kendle, W. F. Gill, J. B. Couey, J. F. Wesely, J. Kelly, Bilyeu Confectionery, Holechek Bros., Scio Cash Produce, Scio Laundry, Shelton Bros., L. Jordan, F. T. Bilyeu, N. I. Morrison, Bartu Mortor Co., Scio Garage, Dean Morris, Thomas Creek Lumber Co., W. J. Chromy, Frank Kruml, Mountain States Power Co., Peoples Theatre and L. O. Porter.

This is the proposition and the prizes: The big prize is a Crosley Trirdyn 3-tube Radio Set, value $75, and will soon be on display in J. F. Wesely's south window, together with the second prize of $20 worth of groceries, and the third prize of some article or articles valued at $10. All worth buying for. The campaign for these prizes ends Saturday, Feb. 25. A free show will be given at the Peoples Theatre on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 25—yes, Free. At 10 o'clock that morning the hour of the drawing for the second and third prize will be determined by drawing the number from a box, and the number drawn set the hour between 10 and 2 that day, and the same procedure will be followed for Saturday's drawing. The 10th name drawn wins the second prize, and the next 10th name wins the third prize, at Wednesday's drawing; the same arrangement for Saturday; all drawings to be on the corner of Main and Mill Streets. All stores cooperating will have tickets and ballot boxes, write your name on the ticket and deposit it in the box. These will be gathered up Wednesday and Saturday and put in a box or barrel and thoroughly stirred up before the drawing takes place. Ask for your tickets with every cash purchase or accounts paid according to the rules of each store as to amounts. The winner or a member of his immediate family must be present—no proxies nor held in trust for him.

Tell the Advertiser you saw his ad in The Scio Tribune; he'll appreciate it.
