

GILKEY STATION

March 3

W. A. Gilkey, J. F. Sommer, S. F. Zysset, F. W. Mespelt and J. H. Kelly attended the road meeting in Albany Wednesday. The committee appointed at this meeting to confer with the highway commission returned with very favorable report for the Santiam-Lebanon road.

A family by the name of Heine, recently from Idaho, are now living on the Henry Struckmeier place. One girl has entered the local school, Dist. 19, and a boy has started to Crabtree high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wagelest, who formerly lived on the Struckmeier place, have moved to the house on the Clyde Reiley place.

Mabel and Ethel Zysset and Merle Bigham attended the teachers institute at Jefferson Saturday.

Franklin Gilkey of O.A.C. came home Friday evening. His sister, Marion, took him back as far as Albany Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Holt visited at the E. L. Whetstone home in Albany Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sommer and S. F. Zysset took a trip to Suver Sunday to see the famous Harding grass grown by J. A. Stambaugh, who introduced the grass a few years ago. W. A. Gilkey and R. H. Struckmeier went on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kelly went to Silverton Saturday to visit Mrs. Kelly's mother, Mrs. Wm. Serfling, returning Sunday. They were accompanied home by little Margaret Higginbotham, who is visiting at the Frank Prokop home.

Mrs. Tim Kelly went to Portland again Tuesday, taking Junior to a diabetes specialist. While there Mrs. Kelly is taking a cooking course for diabetics, given at the hospital.

Harold Reiley spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Reiley. Harold is working near Roseburg and while waiting for the train called on Harold Sberfy, his former teacher at Crabtree, who is now in the insurance business at Roseburg.

Baptismal services were held at the Sanderson bridge Sunday, Rev. Applegate conducting the services. Two were baptised.

Rev. and Mrs. Applegate were Sunday guests at the J. K. Reiley home.

Will Moore and children, Kelly and Eileen, of Salem were visitors at the J. G. Holt and J. H. Kelly homes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hoff and Hazel Young of Portland spent the week-end at the parental home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Young. Little Crawford Hoff, who has been staying with his grandparents, accompanied them home.

Lucille Sommer has been out of school several days with tonsils.

Leonard Gilkey's boys came out from Albany Saturday and started grubbing out his loganberries which were frozen again last winter.

SHELburn NEWS

March 3

Mrs. Mary Miller and daughter Belle Martin, and Marion Brown made a business trip to Portland. Mr. Brown has some colts which he wishes to break to work and he needed some stronger harness to work on them.

Mrs. O. G. Wyman and Mrs. Lee George called on Mrs. W. H. McLain Saturday afternoon.

Zink Brothers buzzed wood for Lye George Saturday afternoon.

Clinton Brown spent the week-end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee George.

Mrs. Fred Roadarmel was shopping in Shelburn Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McLain were given a fine surprise Saturday evening when their son Clair drove in with a fine 3-tube radio set for them. It was a present from their sons, Harvey and Clair—Harvey furnished the means to purchase the material and Clair constructed it. It sure gives good service, for the family have heard messages from several eastern stations distinctly as well as those near home.

Mrs. Anna Hiron and son, Kenneth, of Corvallis and Alfred Powell and family of Albany were calling on Shelburn friends Sunday. They were in Mr. Powell's new sedan.

Mrs. T. J. Gibbons and daughter called on Mrs. T. M. Russell Saturday afternoon.

A. J. McLain is spending a few days this week with his niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Russell. Clair McLain and family spent the week-end with his parents. He returned to Portland Sunday evening, but his wife and son are spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Shelton, of West Scio.

J. I. Shelton, wife and son Lyle and daughter, Andeen, spent Saturday evening at W. H. McLain's. They came over to hear the new radio, for it has a loud speaker horn so the whole roomful can listen in.

John Bentz and family spent Sunday at their farm near Shelburn. It was John, jr.'s first auto ride, although he is two months old and is sure a hearty lad.

Mrs. J. Miller and daughter made a business trip to Albany Saturday afternoon.

The Roaring River Community Club meets next Monday night in the Gaines school house, Dist. No. 1. A good program will be rendered and live topics discussed. Everybody invited.
