Volume 4 THE SCIO TPHINX Number 9

"All a Mistake"

Did you ever make a mistake? or two of them? And did other mistakes follow these until it seemed as if everything was one big mistake? This is the situation in the three-act comedy to be presented by the Scio High School Friday evening, March 20, 1925, in the Peoples theatre. George Richmond, a young war hero, makes a mistake, and then to counteract that, makes another one. His uncle, Captain Obadiah Skinner, makes mistakes, and every character in the cast makes a more or less serious blunder somewhere during the play. Cornelia Skinner, sister of the captain—an unclaimed blessing of uncertain (?) age, but with very definite ambitions—is no exception, and—but come and see!

The comedy is full of very funny situations, is lively and full of interest to the last moment, and is a play worth seeing. Besides those mentioned, the cast includes Ferdinand Lighthead, Nelle Huntington and Richard Hamilton, neighbors of the captain, Nellie Richmond, George's wife, and Nell, the servant.

The play is being given for the benefit of the High School Student Body, and should be well attended for that reason, if for no other. The curtain rises at 8:15 for the evening performance, and there will also be a matinee in the afternoon at 2:30. There will be good music both afternoon and evening. Come and enjoy yourselves.

Admission 20c and 35c.

Boys' Athletics

Although the boys are still losing most of the games, they haven't given up and are still fighting their best to win the remaining games.

We held the Gates boys down 17 to 7 on their floor, and they beat us 27 to 9 on the local floor. That shows that the boys are increasing in their playing ability. We won a victorious battle over Halsey on our floor, the score being 15 to 7.

We have one more game to be played on the local floor and it should be well attended because of the tie social that follows. The game is with Gervais. When Gervais and Scio played at Gervais, Gervais won by a small margin of 12 to 11.

Girls Athletics

The basketball team played with Lebanon Friday evening, Feb. 13. The score was 9 to 9, a tie, and the game was played on the local floor.

The next game, February 20, was played with Gates at Gates, with an entire Sophomore team on Scio's side, which won by a score of 18-3.

On February 27, the girls played Halsey at Scio. Due to the illness of several of our players, we lost by a score of 22-18.

The lineup for the games was as follows:

Bonita Sutherland.....jumping center.
Bertha Calavan.....running center
Wilma Miller.....forward
Lona Zysset.....forward
Mary Harris.....guard
Ella Töck.....guard
Frances Wesely, Mae Calavan and Fern Flanagan, substitutes.

Two more games are to be played this season. They are with Crabtree at Crabtree and Gervais at Scio.

School Notes

We are all very glad (?) that the first six weeks of the second semester is coming to a close, as exams

Did You Know

That Student Body Tickets are for sale?

That you should buy one?

That one senior is interested in a bobbed haired sophomore?

That one of our teachers has surrendered to the "scissor artist"?

That we all approve?

That others besides Biology students are wanting a field trip?

That Raymond behaves!

That Lyle W. forgets why two and two are four?

That baseball season is approaching?

That nearly all the boys should be interested?

That spring is here?

That "All a Mistake" is to be presented by the Scio High School at the Peoples Theatre, Friday evening, March 20?

That it is a good play and you should see it?

That basketball season is almost over?

again will be the main subject.

The Domestic Science girls are now studying the different cuts of meats and the different ways of cooking them. They will soon be studying about pastry.

The Domestic Art girls are almost through with the first problem, a child's dress. Some very pretty patterns have been used. There are only five members and they are doing their best.

Civil War is now the subject of the American History Class. This class has been enlarged since the beginning of the second semester, so the discussions in class are interesting.
