Marion Thomas Dies

Marion Thomas, 74, a native of Linn county, died at his home near Sanderson bridge at 8 o'clock Friday morning from heart failure. Mr. Thomas was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas and was born in Scio April 16, 1851, and had spent all of his life in this county, residing near Crabtree for the last 40 years. Thomas creek was named in honor of the family, one of the first to settle in this community. He had spent his life as a farmer and stockman.

Besides his widow, Mr. Thomas is survived by one son, Roy Thomas of this county, five brothers and three sisters. The brothers are J. K. Thomas of Jordan, Newton Thomas of Salem, Thurston Thomas of Stayton, Gerald Thomas of Lyons and Lafayette Thomas of Eugene. The sisters are Mrs. AriMa Burkhart and Mrs. Becky Kinser of Portland, and Mrs. Sarah Snyder of Dallas.

Funeral services were held in the Albany Baptist church at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, Rev. W. P. Osgood, pastor of the church, officiating and burial was in Riverside cemetery.

Four Cows Pay Well

There is one consistent booster for one of Scio's big industries, the Scio Condensery, and that booster is J. N. Long. "Norm" has four grade cows, and for March they gave a little over 3000 pounds of milk for which he received $74.36. During the winter months he did not feed any mill feed, and the cows kept their averages up on hay and clover. During all this time the family retained sufficient milk for home use.

Mr. Long says experience has taught him to stay with one firm to come out ahead at the end of the year.

Myrtle Hodge Elected Queen

The grade pupils have elected Myrtle Hodge to be queen of their May Day exercises, which comprises the usual stunts participated in on May Day. A program is being arranged. A new feature will be an exhibit of the work done by the pupils during the year, and should be an incentive for parents to visit the school, see the work that the children are doing and get acquainted with the teachers.

Leg Broken in Three Places

Mrs. Joe Oupor received a letter from her grandson, Earl Stam of Newport, conveying the news that he had broken a leg in three places while holding down second base in a ball game on Wednesday. He gave no further information, except that he was getting along nicely. Earl is 16 years old and well known here. The letter was received Sunday and nothing further has been received.

Ball Team Organized

Last Wednesday night the baseball fans met at the city hall and decided to organize a ball team for the season. Thos. Large was elected manager and Rolla Shelton secretary-treasurer. It is hoped to have a team as strong or stronger than last year.

Already nearly a hundred dollars have been raised by subscription, and a home talent play by a company from Marion at the Peoples Theatre Tuesday night netted a few dollars more to the treasury. A dance is advertised for Saturday night, April 25, at the Z. C. B. J. hall, at which time a 6 piece orchestra will furnish the music. This no doubt will help the treasury considerably.

It takes money to run a ball team and buy supplies, and as it is one of our cleanest sports, the games this year should be liberally supported. Considerable supplies have already been ordered, and practices are being indulged in.

The Thayer ball park will be used again this year, than which there is no better in the state.

Jordan Sells Business

Leonard Jordan, who came here from Lebanon about a year ago and bought the produce business of Ed Holland, has sold out to D. W. Dormer of Eugene, who took over the business last Friday.

As soon as repairs on the building formerly occupied by J. D. Densmore are completed, Mr. Dormer will move thereto, and expects to enlarge his scope of business. He is to retain the agency for the Mutual Creamery and will handle a full line of the Golden Pheasant products. Mr. Dormer comes well recommended and we wish him success.

Mr. Jordan will remain here temporarily, while he finds a suitable location to again enter business. We are sorry to lose this family but wish them success wherever they may locate.

Obey the Potato Law

The grower or dealer who observes the new potato law will benefit himself and will not have to fear prosecution, says C. E. Spence, State Market Agent. The law simply forces growers and shippers to state what kind of stuff they are selling and to back it up with their name and address. No man putting up an honest pack will try to evade the law. There is a penalty of both fine and imprisonment for violation, and the legislature made it the duty of the state department to prosecute violators. Leaflets giving the new law and also the standard grades will be sent to anyone for the asking by the State Market Agent, 714 Court House, Portland, Oregon.

B. A. Holteen, Otho Wallace, N. I. Morrison, Thos. Small, Riley Montgomery and J. N. Weddle are among those who plan to attend the I. O. O. F. convention at Sweet Home Saturday, the 18th.

DO YOU REMEMBER

When S. F. Zysset started in the Angora Goat business? And how the "wise ones" decided that spindling little kid which Sam paid $25 for? But Sam knew his 'kid' and for 25 years has been making money from his purebred goats. He had faith and stood on it.

Newsy News Notes

Hazel Philippi of Scio has been elected editor of the Co-ed Barometer, to be published May 9. This edition of the college daily is put out entirely by a staff of women students each spring and has come to be a college tradition.

There are several vacancies and prospective vacancies for radio operators in the 8th Service Co., Signal Corps, U. S. Army, for duty at the Presidio of San Francisco, Calif.; Fort Douglas, Utah (Salt Lake City) and with the Army Transport Service. If interested, write Col. C. F. Andrews, recruiting officer, Railway Exchange building, Portland, Ore.

Delegates from universities and colleges west of the Appalachian mountains will be at the University of Oregon, beginning yesterday and extending over Saturday, to attend the second biennial convention of the Women's Self Governing Association, known on the Oregon campus as the Women's League.

The American Legion campaign for a $5,000,000 endowment fund for rehabilitation and child welfare, which has been going on in several states, is now under way in Oregon. It will culminate in an intensive drive probably about the last of May.

To make the Portland Rose Festival this year one long to be remembered, Friday afternoon, June 19, a grotesque parade will be staged in which all sorts of comic figures will be in line to amuse the throngs of people along the line of march. It is planned to put Portland and Oregon on the map as royal entertainers.

Portland will entertain 16 big conventions this year. A real task, but Portland can do it.

Tomorrow Night

A 24 piece orchestra of the first Christian Church of Albany will give a recital in the Christian Church at Crabtree on Friday evening, April 17. Part of this orchestra has appeared in Crabtree before and a crowded house is assured.

An admission of 10 cents for children and 35 cents for adults will be charged.

OBITUARY

(Contributed)

Eveline Shelton was born near Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 1, 1826, and died at her home in Jordan, Linn county, Oregon, April 8, 1925, at the age of 98 years, 5 months and 7 days.

Married to William Shelton in Missouri in 1846. Crossed the plains with her husband and two daughters in 1853, and settled on a land claim about two miles east of Jordan. Her husband died in 1902. To this union were born two sons and five daughters, of which but two daughters survive—Mrs. Drusilla Phillips and Mrs. Mary Privett. She is also survived by the following grandchildren: William Crabtree, Thomas Crabtree, Thomas Phillips, Earl Phillips, Floyd Privett, Bryant Shelton, Mrs. Ed Townsend, Mrs. Ernest Koble, Mrs. Elmer A. Clark, Miss Mabel Privett, Miss Iva Shelton, Miss Winifred Privett; great-grandchildren: Floyd Crabtree, Warren Clark, Galen Phillips, Wayne Phillips, Glen Phillips, Earl Phillips, jr., Floyd Privett, jr., Alfred Privett, William Wayne Privett, Mrs. Logan Sorahan, Miss Mariam Jarvis, Miss Louise Clark, Miss Myrtle Clark, Elaine Clark, Natalie Phillips; also five great-great-grandchildren: Dale, Roe, Maxine and Doris Crabtree and Margaret Sorahan.

In the early part of her life she united with the Baptist church, and was a staunch christian until the end. She was a kind, loving wife and mother, a kind neighbor and charitable to all. She was loved and respected by all her acquaintances.

The funeral was held at the home Friday, April 10, conducted by Rev. J. Hays, pastor of the Christian church at Stayton, and interment took place beside her husband in the Jordan cemetery. A large number of relatives and friends accompanied her to her last earthly resting place and left her in her firm belief of a resurrection and entrance into eternal life.

Six grandsons were pall bearers: William Crabtree, Thomas Crabtree, Thomas Phillips, Earl Phillips, Floyd Privett and Bryant Shelton.

In the death of Aunt Eveline, the community is again reminded that its founders and builders are fast entering into the rest that is theirs. The long and useful life of Aunt Eveline has been a constant reminder that love, kindness and charity are wholesome remedies to prolong life and make the world happier and better. She has finished her labors, having done them faithfully and well, and a most wonderful heritage is given to her many relatives and friends.

Play Not Well Attended

A small house greeted the W.O.W. players of Marion at the Peoples Theatre Tuesday night when they put on their play, "Poor Father" for the benefit of the Scio baseball team.

The players did their parts well considering the small attendance and lack of appreciation on the part of the audience.

The Wesley three-piece orchestra furnished music during the evening. Only a small sum above expenses was realized by the ball club.

Owing to a misunderstanding as to the date, the Parent-Teachers' meeting last Thursday night was not very largely attended.

New Postal Rates

Effective Wednesday, April 15, the new postal rates went into effect at the local postoffice, and the increases range from 15 to 100 per cent. Money orders that formerly cost 3c are now 5c, and up to 22c; if you register a package and want return receipt, 3c extra; if you want parcel post special delivery, 15c extra up to 10 lbs., over that 20c; a service charge of 2c required on all parcels not originating on rural routes; insurance rates are 5c on $5 up to 25c for $100, with an extra 3c for return receipt; if you have anything come c. o. d. up to $10, it will cost 12c extra, $50 is 15c and $100 is 25c extra; private post cards now require 2c stamp.

The rate of postage on newspapers and magazines remain the same as before, except if the reader wants to mail his paper to some one else it takes rate of 2c for each 2 ounces or less. If the weight is 8 ounces or more, parcel post rates apply.

Mail matter of the third class include books, circulars and other matter wholly in print (except newspapers and periodicals), and other mailable matter not included in the first and second class or in the fourth class. Third class does not include any matter exceeding 8 oz. in weight. The rate of postage is 1 1/2c for each 2 oz. or less up to and including 8 oz., except that the rates on books, catalogues, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions and plants, not exceeding 8 oz. in weight shall be 1c for each 2 oz. or less.

If you require special handling of parcel post packages it will cost you 25c extra. This charge is made to expedite parcel post delivery.

With Mrs. Prill

Mrs. A. G. Prill was hostess for the bridge club at her home last Friday afternoon. Apple blossoms formed the decorations in the parlor while green and yellow predominated in the dining room. At the conclusion of the games the dipping room doors were opened disclosing the table on which reposed a centerpiece and place cards of colored Easter eggs. The guests were allowed to choose their places at the table in the order of their scores. Mrs. Paul Lardon having high score was given first choice and Mrs. P. H. MacDonald having the lowest score had no choice.

For your garden seed, either bulk or package, get them at Wesely's grocery.
