Mrs. Joe Kalina has so far recovered from her recent operation at an Albany hospital that she expects to return to her home south of town the last of the week.

Joe Novak sold four of his cows Saturday to the Feeble Minded home near Salem, and Sam Stoller delivered them for him. The herd at the home became tubercular infected, it is said.

More Settlers Come

Portland, May 13—(Special)—Will J. Roberts, high school principal at Ontario, Oregon, has been selected to manage an "Oregon Bureau" to be maintained at Green River, Wyoming, by the Land Settlement and Publicity departments of the Oregon Development fund during the coming tourist season, it was announced by W. G. Ide, Manager of the Land Settlement Department.

This is the fourth office to be established by the department outside of Portland, the previous three being the Los Angeles Bureau, and the two "gateway" offices at Ashland and Ontario, Oregon.

Eighteen settlers coming from six states and one Canadian province, were located in Oregon during the first ten days of the present month. They purchased 397 acres of land and invested a total of $37,645.

Lacombe Friday Night

Henry S. Nolan, secretary of the Lacombe Community Club, phoned the Tribune office yesterday that his community would like to see everybody from Scio at the club meeting there tomorrow night. Senator S. M. Garland has been invited to tell about the Dennis measure and how it became enacted, and other good numbers are on the program. Go if you can.

Suing for Divorce

Complaint has been filed in the circuit court against John L. London by Mary London, who is seeking a divorce, on the grounds of cruelty and non-support. They were married at Vancouver, Washington, January 10, 1925.

Mrs. London asks $300 permanent alimony and the restoration of her maiden name, Mary Harmon.

Baseball Sunday

Next Sunday, May 17, weather permitting, the local ball team will meet the strong Springfield team on the home diamond. Nothing but good teams are being scheduled, so the manager announces. The hour is 2:30 sharp. The lineup is about the same as last Sunday, which game was cancelled on account of rain.

Chance for Experiment

It was between dances. They were sitting in a dim corner. "You have wonderful eyes," he murmured. "Yes?" she inquired expectantly. "They are like stars," he went on. Her lips brushed his as he murmured: "They are so bright." His hand fumbled in his pocket and he drew forth a glittering object: "They are so very bright," he repeated. He thrust his watch before her. "See if you can see the time in the dark."

Value of Self-Control

No man whose appetites are his masters can perform his duties with strictness and regularity. He that would be superior to external influences must first become superior to his own passions. When the Roman general, sitting at supper with a plate of turnips before him, was solicited by a large promise to betray his trust, he asked the messengers whether he that could sup on turnips was a man likely to sell his country.

Superstition

"Why did you discontinue your auto trip so soon?" "Well, you see, my wife is superstitious; and after we had run over 13 people she thought we had better turn back, as it might mean bad luck."

P-T Meets Tonight

The closing meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association for this year will be held at the school auditorium this evening. No announcement is made except that this meeting will be entirely different from any previous meetings.
