Warning to traffic violators has been issued by the city council. The law has been in effect a number of years, and since the city jail has undergone rejuvenation, traffic and other law violators will have a place to think it over. It is hoped no one will ever occupy it, but it is there should it be needed. Yes, the law is in effect now, so be careful.

July Fourth is set aside as "preparedness" day, as well as to commemorate the 149th anniversary of the birth of America's independence from British rule. Shall we celebrate here in Scio this year, or shall we go elsewhere? What say you, Mr. Business Man and Citizen?

That 67-year-old Silverton man whose object in life was to debauch young girls, will have an opportunity to measure himself in the penitentiary if the charges against him are found to be true. "There is no fool like an old fool," and this old pervert proves the adage.

News From Lyons.

June 9

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Whitney and Miss Clara were Albany visitors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott were Silverton visitors Saturday. Their son returned to Lyons with them, after attending school the past year at Silverton.

J. H. Johnston and family spent Saturday in Albany.

Miss Barbara Schwindt, who has been living with her sister, Mrs. Della Westenhause, and attending high school, completed her grade and left Thursday for Salem, where she secured work at the cannery and has arranged to attend school in Salem next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thomas of Jordan were callers at Jack Johnston's Sunday.

Mrs. Pearl Colby was home over Sunday. She is nursing her mother at Mill City.

Several students completed the 8th grade examinations in May and received their diplomas, among them were Miss Georgia Whitney and Rurrel Brown. The June examinations will be given Thursday and Friday, June 11-12.

W. F. Hardison of Portland was a Lyons caller last Friday, taking his daughter, Miss Winifred, home. Her school closed on Friday, June 5. She has been elected as primary teacher again for the coming year.

Senior Play Pleases

After weeks and weeks of hard work and many discouragements because of having to put new performers into the cast, the senior class play, "Am I Intruding?" was given before a good sized and appreciative audience at the Peoples Theatre last evening. All the actors did their parts well, and should feel well repaid for the time and effort put forth in producing it.

R. M. Cain, president of the Parent-Teacher Association during the past year, acted as coach.

Stop Forest Fires

The week of June 29th to July 4th has been set aside as the second annual "Stop Forest Fires" campaign to be observed throughout Oregon. It has been announced by officials of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce. The campaign, initiated by the Klamath County Chamber of Commerce last year and taken up by the state body, will also be observed this year in Washington, Idaho and California.

My friend, have you heard of the town of Yawn, On the bank of the River Slow, Where blooms the wait-a-while flowers fair, Where the some-time-or-others scent the air, And the soft go-easy's grow? It lies in the valley of what's-the-use, In the province of Let'er-slide; That tired feeling is natural there, It's the home of the listless I-don't-care, Where the put-off's abide.

TO MISS FLAPPER
 Blessing on thee, little dame,
 Bareback girl with knees the same,
 With thy rolled down silken hose
 And thy short, transparent clothes;
 With thy red lips, reddened more,
 Smear'd with lipstick from the store;
 With thy makeup on thy face,
 And thy bobbed hair's jaunty grace,
 From my heart I give thee joy—
 Glad I was born a boy. —Ex.

UNREQUITTED LOVE
 "I'm stuck on you," he sweetly cried,
 And so I now embrace you,
 Think not while I am by your side
 The world will e'er misplace you."
 "Oh, could I cling about your neck
 Or touch just once thy perfect mouth
 Alas, this never can be so,
 For you are a bottle, and I, but a label."

Sound Advice
 by O. Lawrence Thawthorne
 It seems to me we do not dwell
 Enough upon the past;
 Intent on what tomorrow holds
 We speed along so fast
 That what our fathers were and did
 We seldom contemplate,
 Nor do we seek their sage advice—
 Until it is too late.
 There's nothing to be gained thru haste;
 Great movements take their time.
 We ought to think before we act,
 And caution is no crime!
 With history wise men confer,
 And from the past they gain
 Instruction and philosophy
 That strengthen, yet restrain.
