A Glimpse of Yesterday

by O. Lawrence Hawthorne

"See my new pants!" He comes to me With eyes aglow and manly stride; He's just as pleased as he can be; He fairly scintillates with pride. "An' here's some pockets in 'em too!" He yells, then struts across the floor That I may have a better view— May see him aft as well as fore.

And as I watch I think how swift The years have flown since I was three, When she whose hands designed his gift Was fashioning such clothes for me. Oh, how I wish I were a lad Of three tonight and had a chance To march again up to my dad And yell at him, "See my new pants!"
