To Agnes Dotson and Eli Benjamin Dotson, defendants above named:

TRUTHS TERSELY TOLD

A pair of beautiful eyes are all right, but need looking into.

Think of the money you save by not eating so much in hot weather.

The Christian Endeavor convention, now being held in Portland, is directing attention to the fact that religious bodies are paying considerable attention to the need of a good citizenship. Gov. Why We Don't Celebrate Someone wants to know why Harrisburg doesn't celebrate the Fourth this year. One reason is that the town prefers to save up all its energies for the big event at the completion of the bridge. Another thing is this: In these days of swift auto traffic most people are not content in taking in one celebration. Three or four are none too many. The bulk of the people will observe the greater part of the day on the highway going from one town to another, many of them carrying a report of "nothing doing" at this place or that.

Patriotic celebrations in small towns are for home people, and it is the duty of everybody to take a part. Until the desire subsides when people want to participate in six or seven celebrations without aiding in putting any one of them over, it will be pretty hard sledding to hold a live celebration in a small town.

It is hoped to hold the bridge celebration at a time when there will be nothing else going on between here and Chicago.—The Harrisburg Bulletin.

Just around the Corner

EVEN big-city folks must have their "neighborhood stores"! Most of them would no more think of going down town to fight their way through the crowds in search of a roast for dinner than they would of walking to the factory to get a pair of shoes.

City women know that their neighborhood stores can supply them just what they want — and that, in most cases, the service is more alert and friendly.

The same thing is true of this "neighborhood". Our merchants—the men whose ads you read in this paper—are in position to furnish your home with the best and most popular brands of goods. Not only can they save you money, but they gladly relieve you of a lot of worry and loss of time.
