Trade Hotel Property

Last Thursday C. M. Donovan and wife traded the hotel property for a 263 acre ranch, 4 miles north of Monroe, in Benton county. Everything on the farm goes with it except personal effects, and the same applies to the hotel and its furnishings.

The new proprietors of the hotel are named Thom, but are not related to our fellowtownsman, D. C. Thoms, and come to our city as a desirable place to live and as a great opportunity for business. The Donovan's have owned the hotel for the past two years, and by catering to the public and business acumen have built up a good business.

It is the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Donovan to move to Salem to make that city their future home, while their son Frank will operate their newly acquired farm. We are sorry to lose this estimable family from our business and social life. The Tribune bespeaks for the newcomers a hearty welcome by our people and hopes all their plans materialize two fold. They are said to be energetic and promise to give Scio a hotel to be proud of.

The transfer of the properties took place Tuesday.

IN MEMORIAM

Leonidas Lodge No. 36, Knights of Pythias, Castle Hall, Scio, Oregon, Aug. 4, 1925.

Whereas, The Ruler of the Universe has removed from our lodge our beloved brother, C. C. Bilyeu, by the messenger of death. We bow our heads in sorrow as we submit to the will of Him who holds our destinies in His hands. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the lodge has lost an upright and faithful member and brother, his daily walk and actions in life truly exemplifying the beautiful teachings and principles of our order.

Resolved, That we truly sympathize with the grief-stricken family in their bereavement, and that we commend them to our Heavenly Father, who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this lodge, a copy thereof transmitted to the family of the deceased brother, and a copy be published in the Scio Tribune.

John I. Shelton,
C. A. White,
Guy Johnston,
Committee.

Is Eight Years Old

Little Miss Geraldine Werst of Portland, who is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Thayer, reached her eighth birthday Sunday. On Monday afternoon she was given a party at the Thayer home, having nine little girls as her guests.

Games were played on the shady lawn and later refreshments were served. Those present were Angeline Wesely, Lorraine Hixson, Eunice Jordan, Evalyn Lindley, Joyce Peterson, Edris and Juanice Thayer, Zella, Franc and Geraldine Werst. Geraldine received several nice presents.

For Sale or Trade

Dodge Touring, 1923 model, balloon tires all around; in fine shape. Also a trailer for sale at a small price.
Fred T. Bilyeu.

Fire Horses Pass Through

Bob and Dan, two dapple grey horses that served in Portland's fire department for more than 18 years, were guests in Scio over Thursday night while on their way to remain the rest of their lives with T. A. Frewen, who owns the west half of the old Pitchford place, two miles east of the Roaring River Fish Hatchery.

While the horses are now aged and have earned their keep many times in their runs to fires, they are pensioned out to Mr. Frewen who is to give them a home and good care as long as they live. While here they were petted and fed candy by some of our people who yet remember that a horse is a noble animal and has done much to assist mankind. We believe they are in good hands and will receive kind treatment.

Two Get Scalped

J. F. Wesely is wearing a bandage on his head this week while a lacerated scalp is healing. On Sunday Mr. Wesely and some friends were swimming on Thomas creek. The water was more shallow than Mr. Wesely expected it to be, and when he dived his head struck on a rock which cut it.

While shingling the roof of the Tribune office Tuesday afternoon E. C. Shelton struck at a wasp which he thought was going to light on his face. In some way he missed his mark and cut himself on the top of the head with the claws of his hammer.

New Grain Coming In

The threshing season is now on in this vicinity and the Scio Mill & Elevator Co. is receiving quite a lot of it. Because of the extreme cold weather last winter and the unusual weather in the spring the yield is light. Trollinger Bros. brought in the first and to date the best grain, while the C. C. Bilyeu place is said to have produced the largest yield per acre.

A. L. Arnold, who is threshing this week for the boys along the West Scio road, says the wheat is averaging from 15 to 25 bushels.

There Are Twelve Gates

Next Sunday morning in the local Christian church Rev. J. Y. Stewart will preach. We are told that there are twelve gates leading into the Heavenly City. In the next two sermons he will treat of the twelve gates we pass through as we journey towards it. In a third sermon he will treat of some gates that lead in the opposite direction from the Heavenly City.

Service at Mt. Pleasant at 2 p. m.

Infant Child Dies

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Miller of Marcola was buried at Franklin Butte cemetery on last Sunday. Rev. E. S. Muckley of Crabtree conducted the services. Mrs. Miller is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Meritt on route 3.

Mike Hastings, Fox Hastings, Loretta Butler and Opal Wood of Pendleton and Eevrett Riggs of Lake View, all of whom have taken notable part in World championship Rodeo contests, have signified their intention of taking part in the Chicago Rodeo, August 15 to 23.

Scio Severely Swamped

Scio's ball team went to Albany Sunday full of pep and sails all set to win a ball game, and they came back home the same day with the wind knocked out of them and their sails torn down, for Albany trimmed them to the beautiful old tune of 13 to 0.

The Albany Democrat-Herald was humiliated beyond redemption because Scio's team and fans did not start a row, and all through its write-up of the game had to make mention many times of the expected row. It was too bad the Democrat was disappointed, and we are sorry it feels so hurt over it, but as Scio citizens are real sports they take defeat as gentlemanly as they welcome victory, but when an umpire deliberately steals a game is when their blood boils. We understand the umpire Sunday was very fair, thus he had the respect of Scio's team and the Scio fans.

Scio was outclassed, that's a fact. The Scio team was over-confident, that's another fact, and blew up at the start. Scio's team are laborers, that's fact three, and do not get the daily practice. But they are not fighters and play the game because they like to, win or lose, and not to quarrel with an umpire or their opponents. In this respect, we opine, Albany would have "rowed" had she been beaten as badly as Scio—just the difference in sportsmanship as expressed by the Democrat.

Next Sunday the local team plays Toledo again at Toledo. Three weeks ago Scio defeated Toledo, and they are going to try it again. Advance tickets are being sold here by members of the team. Get yours today and make a good showing of fans at Toledo.

Scio Couple Married

John Kouba, 70, and Anna Shindler, 67, both of Scio and both native born Bohemians, went to Albany Monday where they were married by Judge Payne that afternoon. The happy couple returned to the home of the groom in Scio Monday evening, where they have been receiving the congratulations of their many friends. Both have grown children. They are said to be the oldest people to secure a marriage license in this county for many years and make up the third couple whose ages total more than 110 years thus far during 1925.

Leg and Shoulder Broken

Mrs. Ivy Abbott received a letter yesterday morning from Mrs. Oliver Powell, who now lives at Toledo, saying that her son, Alfred, has the mumps and that the family is under quarantine. Alfred is getting along fine, she said.

While looking out of her window, Mrs. Powell says she saw two people carried into the hospital, and on inquiry learned it was Mrs. E. J. Calloway and her son, McKenzie. Mrs. Calloway has a broken leg and McKenzie a broken shoulder. How and when the accident occurred the writer did not state, but probably Monday and from an automobile wreck. This is indeed sad news, and their many friends here will be sorry to learn of the misfortune that will lay them up for some time.

Later word from Gerald Hassler is that they were hunting agates on the beach at Newport and a car ran into them. He said he helped to carry them into the hospital, and that Mrs. Calloway's leg is broken in two places and McKenzie's face is also badly cut.

Gerald also said that his hand in which he has blood poison is giving him a lot of pain, and that he had it lanced Monday.

Eastern Capital Attracted

Oregon's vast undeveloped resources and the dawning of a new era of industrial activity in the Pacific Northwest has attracted additional Eastern Capital.

Announcement has been made by the Commercial Investment Trust Company of New York that they will open headquarters in Portland for the purpose of financing manufacturers, dealers and industries doing business on time paper.

This is one of the largest finance companies in the United States. The board of directors is composed of men of large financial and business interests, among whom are David May, of the May department stores, Morton J. May and Edward G. Wilmer of Dodge Brothers, and others of equal prominence.

W. G. Ide, who has been manager of the Land Settlement Department of the State Wide Development Fund for the past two years, and General Secretary of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce over a period of several months, has been chosen manager of the new company.

Arthur Foster, who has been in charge of the Ashland Gateway office during the past six months, will succeed Mr. Ide.

Makes Record Trip

N. I. Morrison made a record trip to Portland with his truck last Friday. J. T. Brock and Wm. Dobrkovsky needed some parts for their binders, and not having just the right pieces in stock, Mr. Morrison decided to go in for them. He left after daylight, drove to Portland got the parts, delivered them to the customers and was back in Scio before five o'clock in the evening.

Messrs. Brock and Dobrkovsky were well pleased with this quick work because it enabled them to get back to cutting their grain one day earlier than they expected.

Mrs. Albert Young is suffering with a nervous breakdown. On Saturday her condition was such that Dr. Prill called Dr. Wallace of Albany in consultation. She is reported to be much improved at this time.

Accident on Highway

Sunday night about midnight, as I. V. McAdoo and wife were returning from a visit with relatives in Salem and a day spent in Helmich park in Polk county, they came up on a rear-end collision of two cars about half a mile north of Ankeny Hill road. The car bumped into was driven by Elbert Bede, editor of the Cottage Grove Sentinel, who was forced to stop suddenly by a young heifer jumping off a bank on the road just in front of him, while the car behind him mashed his gasoline tank and spilled gasoline all over the road, and the windshield and radiator of the bumping car was demolished. This car was driven by two young men about 18 years old, one of whom was badly lacerated on the face and head, his nose being split open we were told, while the driver only suffered a few minor cuts on the arm. We took the driver to his home, about three miles off the highway on the Ankeny Hill road, but were so excited we forgot to ask his name. Mr. Bede wrote us Tuesday that he arrived home at 6 a. m. Monday after being towed to Albany.

No blame was attached to anybody, just one of those accidents liable to happen any time.

Former Residents Visit

Joseph Tryon and wife, Miss Virginia Curl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Curl, of Portland; Mrs. Mattie Glover of Cascade Locks, Minerva Burkhart and grandson, Edwin Anderson, of Albany, visited Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. D. Myers and Mrs. Riley Shelton. Mrs. Tryon, Mrs. Glover and Mrs. Burkhart are cousins of Riley and Mrs. Myers. The ladies are daughters of the late D. L. and Lucy Curl, and were born in the Jordan community, the parents coming to Oregon in 1847; their grandparents were Uncle Jimmy Curl and wife, Anna, and Uncle Haman Shelton and wife, Priscilla.

The old pioneers are fast leaving this vale of tears, and the only near relatives left of pioneer days are two uncles, Uncle Haman Shelton, east of Scio, and Miller Curl of Jefferson. Their father was county commissioner of Linn county, when the court house was remodeled and built over, his name being inscribed on the outside of the building near the entrance.
