P. H. MacDonald, wife and son went to Marshfield Sunday to spend a few days.

Bruce Fox and wife of Salem called on J. D. Densmore and wife Sunday afternoon.

Workmen have just finished shingling and painting the P. H. MacDonald home.

Mrs. Emma Cyrus of Portland is spending the week with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Morris.

Dr. Forest Woodmansee of Portland was the guest of Scio friends Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. L. F. Jones and Frankie Bilyeu drove to Newport Sunday to visit Guy McKnight and wife.

Noian Parrish and wife and baby of Albany called at the J. W. Parrish home Tuesday evening.

Frances Coffey of McMinnville is spending the week with her grandmother, Mrs. V. A. McKnight.

Misses Vella Brenner and Dorris Weddle drove to Newport Saturday afternoon to spend a few days.

Same big cast in "North of 36" as in the "Covered Wagon," but a bigger picture. Plenty of thrills.

W. F. Gill and wife and Mrs. V. A. McKnight visited Chester Coffey and family at McMinnville Sunday.

Ed Jones of Shelburn was in Scio on business Monday forenoon. He says he has his threshing all finished.

Lawrence Montgomery and family and Chas. Rhoda and family are picking huckleberries near Snow Peak this week.

John Densmore jr., went to Portland Saturday afternoon to join a party of school friends on a trip to Mt. Hood Sunday.

Fred Daley and Wm. Young returned Friday from the huckleberry patch. They brought a large quantity of the berries with them.

Mrs. T. S. Reynolds of Portland is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. J. Daley. Miss Dollie Daley who was also visiting her mother, has returned to Portland.

While working on an automobile Tuesday afternoon, Ardell Brock had the misfortune to strike his forehead in such a manner that a severe cut was made on the left side.

Misses Mary, Anna and Rose Jiroch and Frank Jiroch and two children of Portland, and Miss Ella Jiroch of Albany, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jiroch.

Last Friday morning the citizens were surprised to note that a slight rain had fallen, but in the Sweet Home community no rain fell. It has been quite cool during the forenoon every day since.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Mars of Jefferson were dinner guests of the editor and wife Sunday. In the afternoon they drove to Niagara.

C. W. Bragg and wife and R. M. Phillips and wife called on Mr. Phillips' sister, Mrs. Sarah Hepburn, at McMinnville Sunday afternoon.

Fred T. Bilyeu spent the week-end at Newport. Mrs. Bilyeu and daughter, Virginia, who spent the week there, accompanied him home.

Henry Muller and wife of Oakland, California, who were visiting Mr. Muller's mother, Mrs. Kate Muller, left for their home Tuesday.

Mrs. Riley Shelton, Mrs. E. D. Myers, Mrs. J. S. Sticha and Mary Brown and Helen Myers returned Saturday from a week's outing at Newport.

E. D. Myers and wife and daughter, Helen, drove to Portland Sunday to take Mr. Myers' niece, Mary Brown, home. She had been visiting Helen for two weeks.

M. E. Cyrus and wife and their guests, A. C. Parker and family of San Francisco, left Sunday on a week's hunting and fishing trip on the Santiam above Detroit.

B. W. Siller of Portland and James Skoda, whose home is in Nebraska, called at the Frank Bartu sr. home last Friday. Mr. Skoda and the Bartus were neighbors in Nebraska. They had not seen each other for 30 years.

Fred Smith and family spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. S. C. Smith, at Sweet Home. Mrs. Smith, who is 64 years old, fell out of a hammock last Friday and broke two ribs. She is getting along nicely at this time, he says.

Mrs. S. A. Newman of San Francisco is making a three months visit with relatives and friends in Oregon. She has spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. E. J. Holland and her brother, Fred Roadamel. Mrs. Newman went to Portland Tuesday afternoon to visit.

According to Democrat-Herald, C. E. Arnold is wanted at Albany for embezzling $150 from the Western States Life Insurance Co., for which he was local agent. Several policies were written by him in this community. He is not related to any of the estimable family of Arnolds in Linn county.

Mrs. C. J. Bruce has returned from Wilbur, Oregon, where she spent two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. E. D. Russell, who has a new baby girl, Addie Louise. This is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce. Mr. and Mrs. Russell and baby accompanied her home for a visit.

Albert Randall and wife of Albany, former residents of Scio, have rented their Albany property and moved to Monmouth, so Mr. Randall informed us Saturday when in town and having his paper changed to Monmouth. Miss Daisy Buckner, former postmistress here, is employed in the postoffice there.

Visit at Toledo

Sam Stoller and wife drove to Toledo Saturday evening where they spent the week-end at the home of Oliver Powell and family.

While there they called on Mrs. Calloway and son, who are in the hospital. Mrs. Calloway says it will be perhaps eight weeks until she can be moved to the Albany hospital. She seemed quite cheerful Sunday, and said that she is always glad to see any one from here. She said that the doctors may try to graft some bone into her leg where about three inches of the bone is missing. McKinzie seems to be getting along nicely. He was able to walk to his mother's room. It is the hope of their Scio friends that they both will get along nicely.
