Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Young, who recently moved to Oregon City from Camas, Wash., have again moved back to Camas, where they have purchased property. Needless to say the Tribune follows them, as they want to keep tab on all their old Scio friends.

Gets Rock in His Eye

Mrs. Art Shelton went to Stayton Thursday evening to meet her son, Elden Knauf, who was coming home from a government camp above Detroit where he is in the forestry service. On that day he had gotten some particles of rock in one of his eyes. He went to Albany Friday where Dr. Bridgewater removed two small pieces of the stone from his eye. He returned to his work the first of the week.

Heavy Rain Falls.

Heavy rains, accompanied by thunder and lightning, visited this section of the valley Monday afternoon and evening. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. MacDonald were held up this side of Mill City, the storm causing the engine in their car to refuse to work.

Globe - Albany
SUNDAY and MONDAY, SEPT. 13-14

Weddle, who had gone to Portland to spend Labor Day, found it very difficult driving from Portland Monday evening, the storm being so severe that they had to stop at Canby and wait until it had abated to some extent. Because of the storm and bright lights on the wet pavement they were over three hours driving from Portland to Salem.

Several telephone lines around here were also put out of commission.
