THE SCIO TRIBUNE

Published Every Thursday by THE TRIBUNE PUBLISHING COMPANY at Scio, Linn County, Oregon. Editor Mrs. L. V. McAdoo - Business & Circulation Manager THURSDAY, Oct. 8, 1925

STATEMENT of the ownership, management, circulation, etc., required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of The Scio Tribune, published weekly at Scio, Oregon, for October, 1925.

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared L. V. McAdoo, who being sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the owner of the Scio Tribune, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

That the name and address of the publisher and editor is L. V. McAdoo, managing editor and business manager, E. J. McAdoo, Scio, Oregon.

The owner is L. V. McAdoo, Scio, Oregon, and his wife, E. J. McAdoo, Scio, Oregon.

That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None. E. J. McADOO, Business Manager. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 29th day of September, 1925. RILEY SHELTON, Notary Public. My commission expires Feb. 15, 1929.

There is considerable improvement going on in Scio at present, which shows that the citizens and businessmen are keeping up with progress.

A life that has a motive, something definite to live and work for, is never dreary; so never be content with taking things as they come, but go after them.

Quite a number have complained of picking up tacks in their auto tires within the last few days. This "pleasant" pastime may prove very sad to the ones who have been "enjoying" the "joke."

Linn county's exhibit at the state fair will be taken to the Pacific International Livestock Show at Portland, which begins Oct. 31. This is the right move, as it will properly advertise Linn county to the world.

Americans spend $8,000,000,000 annually on automobiles, it is said. Of this amount about 25% goes for fancy radiator caps, 50% for dodads on the instrument boards and the other 25% for mending tack punctures.

The state supreme court has sustained the veto of Gov. Pierce when he vetoed the bill passed by the last legislature authorizing a special election this coming November, holding that an expenditure of $100,000 for this was not warranted. Saved again from the politicians.

Allan Bynon, a young Salem attorney who became assistant U. S. district attorney, has been drawn into the Kelso, Wash., triangle by selling evidence to the authorities, so the metropolitan papers say. He needed the money, we guess, and has ruined his future. It pays to go straight.

Cooperation means working together for mutual benefit. Can there be a more sound foundation for true and profitable business relationships? It not only means that two may profit together but each will profit more. Combined interests and combined efforts will create greater satisfaction and a happier people.

Some car owners haven't had the lights adjusted on their cars, as the lights prove when meeting them at night. Neither do they dim them, which shows the driver deems himself above law. It is a pleasure to drive at night when you meet cars with adjusted lights, but the joy is taken out of it when you meet the human monstrosity who hasn't and won't dim.

Within a short time the Albany Democrat-Herald will issue an anniversary number commemorating the 60th year of its existence as a newspaper in Albany. Every section of Linn county is to receive its share of publicity and will be as authentic as possible. A feature of the issue will be the non-appearance of display advertising, so common in such undertakings.

A Santa Cruz, California, poultryman is trying an experiment with his chickens in forcing them into an early moult. This year he is cutting out the mash and soft feeds and feeding only hard feeds. Already his flock is down to a few eggs daily and the yards are filled with feathers. He believes this will be a better method than the one of cutting out all feed for a few days, as some poultrymen do.

The handicap Bob Stanfield placed on himself as his own successor in the U. S. senate, coupled with the demand of President Coolidge that Bert E. Haney resign as a member of the shipping board, is making it hard for "favorite" sons to launch their names for the office. Politics is dangerous these days, especially when the politician doesn't play on the square. What is needed is a real man, but he is hard to find.

An eight page paper this week, which will be continued as long as the subscription and advertising patronage will warrant, and we hope it will be for all time. If you like the change, please tell your friends and the publishers. We are just humans (as you) and we like to get a pat on the shoulder and a compliment (as you), and not all kicks and cuffs. All departments are there we promised, except the radio, which will appear shortly. The story is full of thrills and peculiar situations, and the funny page tickles the funny bone of the whole family. Owing to the great expense in going to an eight page paper, no reduction in subscription rates will be made this year. Don't let your subscription expire, keep up with the story, and ask your neighbors and friends to subscribe. The price is $1.75 per year in the U. S. and possessions. In Canada and other foreign countries the rate is $2.50 per year—the extra postage make the difference.

Last week we received a well written editorial on the cost of fires appropos to fire prevention week, beginning last Sunday. It was so good we decided to read it through, and down at the bottom we found a fine spiel on a certain article that if home builders would use the fire problem would almost be solved. It was a peach of an advertisement, and we came near falling for it. It is hard sometimes to tell what is legitimate news and what is not. We want to serve notice on the dear public, and moochers in particular, that space in the Scio Tribune represents labor and service, which we sell at the published rates. Hereafter anything that brings money into the treasury of a society, or benefits an individual or group, the coin of the realm must accompany the advertisement. We have made an extra effort to further several local movements, at a great financial loss to ourselves, but our efforts have never been appreciated so far as we know, but they have been severely condemned. We sell service, and the service is the cheapest in the county when measured by results obtained. Henceforth press agents, publicity grafters, hokum handlers, blurb slingers, good will campaigns, etc., are stricken from the free service of the Scio Tribune.

Improving on History

I just finished hearing a Politician, one of the Washington Boys, talk on Abraham Lincoln. The only thing I could picture in common between him and Lincoln was that they had both been in Washington. When a Politician aint talking about himself he is talking about Lincoln. Lincoln has had more Public men speak of his good qualities, and fewer copy any of them, than any man America ever produced. His famous address was only about two hundred words long. No Politician has ever been able to even copy his briefness. In fact that is the last one of his qualities that they would try to copy. Lincoln said more in those 200 words than has been said in the entire City of Washington in the last 10 years, and here is a quality that no historian or speaker has ever brought out before. At the completion of the Gettysburg speech, he wisely refused one of Grant's cigars, and borrowed a sack of "Bull" Durham from an Ex Southern private, rolled his own, got on his Mule and went back to Washington.

Will Rogers P. S. There will be another piece here two weeks from now. Look for it.
