Those who are in a "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.

THURSDAY, Nov. 5, 1925

Read the district road notices in this issue, and attend the meeting in your district. Don't let the roads get any worse; keep them good.

President Coolidge has proclaimed Thursday, Nov. 26, as Thanksgiving Day. If some one can furnish us with a turkey, the cranberries, the celery, bread and butter, we'll have something to be thankful for. Not necessary, as we have wood and a stove. However, we're thankful we live in the best state in the best country in the world. Enough to be thankful for, isn't it?

The Pacific International Livestock Exposition is on in full blast at Portland and large crowds are in daily attendance. While it started Saturday, the exhibits were not all in place and the exhibit building looked barren. Linn and other Willamette counties have excellent displays and were ready for opening day. Why don't the officials of all fairs and expositions insist on exhibitors being in place on opening day—they could be ready on time as well as two or three days late.

Just when we were ready to whoop it up for a banker for U. S. senator, W. L. Thompson refuses to announce, intimating the corrupt practice law wouldn't let him spend enough money to elect him. Then we turned our attention to Fred Steiwer, a lawyer, and soon read that his announcement had been delivered to deaf ears. Probably the Oregon Voter has turned the political ship back toward shore and has the wet-dry sheep herder headed toward Washington again. Genuine sheep herders are alright, but this one (Bob Stanfield) has been and will always be a misfit in the senate.

Did you count them last week? We refer to the number of items in last week's paper. To be sure, the home paper is not a big city paper; if it was, it would be in big town. The items totalled more hours spent in getting them and setting them in readable shape than is used by any other man or woman in the community, and yet we missed as many more, no doubt. We counted them last and there were 176 different items of news, not counting the advertising, which is also news. It is the cheapest way and the best way to get the home news—no crime news nor scandal. A few do not take the paper, because—well, they scour the neighborhood to find some subscriber who has read his home paper and will loan it. Now is a good time to subscribe and get the home news, a good story and other information.
