

The American Red Cross in Action

A recreation room in a U. S. Veterans' Bureau Hospital for disabled war veterans, supervised by the Red Cross—just one phase of Red Cross service to those who suffered in the world war

A Red Cross Community Work Room where eighteen organizations of women volunteers fill all Red Cross quotas and also provide surgical dressings and garments for local institutions

This farmer has found the Red Cross Public Health Nurse an ally and a help in his home problems—she is the "friend in need" to all the community

Girls and boys in a public school, all members of the American Junior Red Cross, writing to school children of another land—helping to weave world-wide ties of friendly understanding

American Red Cross nutritionist teaching school children the importance of proper foods

In communities that never had the benefit of family work the experienced Red Cross worker serves those who need friendly council and assistance

ALWAYS READY!

AMERICAN RED CROSS NURSING SERVICE

Under the Red Cross emblem is enrolled an army of nurses, prepared to serve in the emergencies of war and peace

The Red Cross Field Director in Camp, Army Post and Navy Yard is father to the boys of the regular Army and Navy

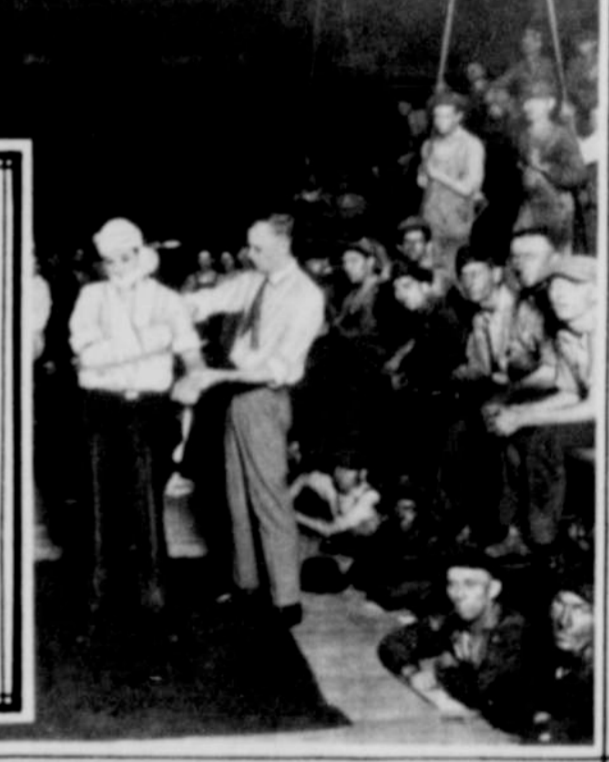

The girl by the bedside of her sister has been taught the essentials of caring for the sick in the home through a Red Cross Course in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick

The American Red Cross lends a helping hand to people overtaken by catastrophe in other countries

A class of boys learning how to rescue drowning persons by Red Cross methods

A Red Cross instructor teaching shop workers the principles of first aid in accidents, knowledge that often saves life

Join!

Annual Red Cross Membership Enrollment

Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day
November 11, 1925 to November 26, 1925

Enroll for 1926 through your local Red Cross Chapter or Branch

Now!