Select Their Own Coffins

In many parts of China and Japan "coffin shops" are to be seen on the principal streets. These people like to make early preparations for their demise by purchasing their coffins. The shops show an attractive line of samples from which to make selection.

SHELburn NEWS

Nov. 24

W. H. McLain was canvassing the last three days of last week for the Red Cross funds. He had good success.

Mrs. T. M. Russell and daughter, Ellen, visited Mrs. T. J. Gibbons Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Cannon and Marion Brown butchered hogs last week. Mrs. Anna Anderson arrived from California Monday to be at her father's bedside.

Mrs. Paul Smith canvassed Shelburn and those close by last week in the interest of Red Cross work and met with good success.

County Clerk Russell and wife spent the week-end with home folks.

All voters are urged to attend a special road meeting at Shelburn school house at 10 a. m., Saturday, Nov. 28. Those in favor of good roads come and carry the vote for $1000 tax.

Mrs. Isaac Bennett and Mrs. T. M. Russell and daughter, Ellen, visited Mrs. Byron Bates Friday.

W. H. McLain made a business trip to Scio Monday.

O. V. White of Stayton called on O. S. Lyons Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Compton of Portland visited at C. D. Osborn's home last week.

T. M. Russell called at O. S. Lyons Sunday evening.

Mrs. Rigans of Portland visited with Mrs. Alta Osborn Monday.

Mrs. Rosa Gibbons was shopping in Scio Monday.

Fred Roadarmel has dressed and shipped a fine lot of turkeys to Portland for the Thanksgiving trade.

Ercell Osborn and family ate dinner with W. H. Grimes and family near Jordan Sunday.

Loses Turkeys

Some one is enjoying turkey dinner today at the expense of Mrs. Wm. Abbott and without her consent. During the past week 35 of her fine turkeys have disappeared. This entails a loss of more than a hundred dollars as Mrs. Abbott received over a hundred dollars for 25 turkeys she sold recently.

Queer Animal

The fur of the sea otter is of a deep brown color, with a soft, woolly part near the skin which gives the pelt great value. The animal has a body that looks something like a seal, partly because the hind part of the body ends with flat, oar-like feet that are like the flappers of the seal. A sea otter weighs from 80 to 100 pounds.
