

OUR COMIC SECTION

Let's Begin at Home

THE FEATHERHEADS

Punishment Enough

EVEN IN ANCIENT ROME

"I suppose you are delighted with your hubby's elevation to the senate."
"Not so very. It's a bother. It takes me nearly all night to find the pockets in his senatorial toga."

FROM FUEL TO JEWEL

"What is that beautiful, shining, black stone you have in your scarf-pin?"
"Oh, that's the fashionable new an-thracite diamond!"

Here's Your Hat

She—Would you put yourself out for me, Donald?
He—Why, of course, dearest.
She—Well, please do; it's after twelve and I am very tired.

Artists Have Their Uses

"I am sorry you are leaving us."
"Why? Are you fond of art?"
No, but while you have been painting in my field, I haven't had to employ a scarecrow!"—Pete Mele (Paris).

Ancestry

"Did you ever have your ancestors traced?"
"Yeah, they wanted my grandfather for horsestealing an' they traced him to Mexico an' lost track of him."

The Best Reward

Miss Mugg (at the seashore)—How can I ever repay you for saving my life?
Gallant Rescuer—Marry somebody else.

GOOD GROUNDS

The Coffee Pot—On what grounds did you get your divorce?
The Coffee Cup—Coffee grounds, of course.

VERY NICE OF HIM

"Does George allow you any liberties since you married him?"
"Oh, yes. He lets me kiss him."
