On account of a funeral at Mehma last Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. Y. Stewart did not hold services at Mt. Pleasant as announced. However, he will hold services next Sunday night, Nov. 29, to which everybody is invited.

J. G. Steinbrenner was in town Tuesday evening from his home in the Jordan community. Mr. Steinbrenner says there have been several sheep killed in his neighborhood and that they are organizing for a coyote hunt on Thanksgiving Day.

"The Ten Commandments" and drawing for turkeys drew a packed house at the Peoples Theatre Sunday night. Rudolph Wesely and J. L. Kelly, being the lucky ones, will enjoy turkey dinners Thanksgiving (if Kelly doesn't let his get away.)

Paul F. Smith of Shelburn and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bragg of West Scio were initiated into the Eastern Star lodge at Jefferson Tuesday night. Twelve members of Stayton lodge and several from other lodges were present. A fine banquet was served after the completion of the work. A very nice time is reported.

Bridge Club has Party

Mrs. John Wesely, Mrs. P. H. MacDonald and Mrs. J. S. Sticha were hostesses for a dinner and card party at the Sticha home last Friday evening. This was the first of the monthly evening parties which the members of the bridge club have planned for the season.

A long table was spread through the living room and dining room so that all of the thirteen members of the club and their husbands were seated at the same time. Pink chrysanthemums were used as table decorations and pink and white chrysanthemums were placed about the rooms. Place cards were suggestive of Thanksgiving.

The dinner was followed by an evening of 500, Mrs. C. W. Bragg and J. L. Kelly taking high scores and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Jones, the low scores.

Maude M. Johnston and family
Nella B. Thomas and husband

Enjoyed Her Trip

Mrs. Almina Pomeroy spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Lulu Worley, and family in Salem. Recently Mrs. Pomeroy accompanied this daughter and grandson on a visit to two sons, R. H. and Eugene Pomeroy, at Kimberly, Idaho, going over the same trail she traversed with her parents when they came to Oregon more than 70 years ago.

She says she recognized some of the places where the caravan camped, especially the place where her brother got lost, who thought their camp was hostile Indians. They found him next day hiking back toward his old home.

Mrs. Pomeroy says she enjoyed every minute of the trip and visit. Her sons are doing well in Idaho, she says, and while she liked the country she says Oregon suits her best of all. While at Kimberly she visited her niece, Mrs. Emma Wheeler, whose husband conducted a store in Scio and for whom Mr. Pomeroy worked. Mr. Wheeler died a few years ago, and now Mrs. Wheeler is Mrs. Campbell.

Read Comics, Says Doctor

Read the newspaper comic sections, cultivate a taste for good stories and look on the humor side of life if you would be healthy was the advice given recently by Dr. Frederick W. Seward, neurologist of Goshen, N.Y., at the 81st annual convention of the American Institute of Homeopathy.

"People whose ire is easily aroused, who fly into a rage on the slightest provocation, are candidates for nerve exhaustion and brain fog," Doctor Seward said.

"I advise neurasthenics to look for the funny side of life. The liberal sprinkling of our newspapers with comic strips is a decidedly beneficial thing from a health standpoint."

Editor's Note—For a real hearty laugh, turn to the Comic Section. It appears regularly in each issue of this paper.

Scio Defeats Jefferson

A practice game of basketball between the Jefferson girls and Scio girls, followed by a box social, was the attraction at the gym last Friday night. The final score was 31 to 2 in favor of Scio. The Jefferson girls' team has just been organized and this was the first time some of them had ever played, which accounts for their low score.

The baskets sold readily, averaging $1.00 each. The door receipts and boxes netted in the neighborhood of $20.

We understand the pie social at the Shindler school last night drew a fair crowd and the receipts were satisfactory.

Good Program Given

The pupils of the Scio schools gave a splendid program in the school auditorium yesterday afternoon which was largely attended by parents and patrons of the school. We have the program but too late to publish this week.

Purifying Drinking Water

After its long flow underground New York's water supply is freshened by spraying in great tanks. These are usually located in high country with flowering fields nearby in order to get the most beneficial results from the aeration.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Combined Treatment, both local and internal, and has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years. Sold by all druggists. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.
