

News From Lyons.

December 2

The Misses McElhoney and Zeta Prichard spent the week-end in Portland, returning Sunday evening.

Albert Ring and wife entertained Portland relatives Thanksgiving.

J. H. Johnston and family were Albany visitors Friday.

Miss Georgia Whitney visited over the week-end with friends at Silver-ton.

Fred Mariels has been quite busy the past week doing chores for Arthur Vaughn while the Vaughns and Mrs. Strayer spent several days with Portland relatives. They expected to return Sunday evening.

Hugh M. Johnston spent the week-end visiting with the M. S. Titus family in Stayton.

Rev. Brouse and family were Thanksgiving guests with E. E. Trask and wife. In the evening a donation party was given for the minister of the M. E. church.

The Sunday school superintendent announced there would be a church social next Friday evening, December fourth, at the community hall.

Clyde Thomas and wife of Jordan were Saturday callers at Jack Johnston's.

The schools at Lyons and Fox Valley have received the 1925 tuberculosis seals and the pupils will take part in selling as many as possible to help a just cause.

It is rumored that Prof. Payne is away on a matrimonial tour since Thanksgiving day. However, we are unable to get correct details yet.

Miss Hilda Johnston spent Friday and Saturday with her aunt, Nella Thomas at Jordan.

Miss Ibella Surrey and brother, George, of Lebanon were Lyons and Fox Valley callers Saturday morning, going on to Salem to do some shopping in the afternoon.

Ella Johnston is the owner of a Star roadster since the first of the week, the Truax Motor Co. of Albany making the sale.

Clyde Lewis and family and Mrs. Floyd Martin and daughter spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Portland.

Festive Day Enjoyed

Concluded from Page 1

Monmouth, where Miss Freda and Miss Beas Wigglesworth, who are students at the State Normal, left the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Morris of Portland spent Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Pennell of Camas, Wn., spent Thanksgiving with their son, C. L. Pennell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Miller were Thanksgiving day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leffler.

SHELburn NEWS

December 1

Charles Bates and sons are caring for the Lyon's chores while the family is in California attending the funeral of the late O. S. Lyon.

Ercell Osborn and wife, who accompanied their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Rigans, to their home in Portland Friday, Nov. 27, returned home today.

H. O. Shilling and his son-in-law, E. S. McCrae, traded milk cows on Nov. 30 and both think they got the best end of the bargain.

W. E. Evans of Lebanon called at W. H. McLain's Nov. 26.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McLain had all their children and grandchildren Thanksgiving except their son Harvey, who is in Burlington, Iowa, Overloaded With Merchandise For This Reason Only!

The Bartcher Furniture Co.

LAUNCHES

A STUPENDOUS DISPOSAL

Sale Opens Thursday, Dec. 3, at 9:00 a. m., and will continue for nine selling days.

SALE

Just 9 Selling Days of This Sale. Opens on Thursday, Dec. 3, Closes Saturday, Dec. 12.

A Mighty, Merciless Slaughter of Prices

Thursday morning when the doors of this well known store swings open, the people of this section of Oregon are going to come face to face with the Greatest array of Bargains they have witnessed in many years, for every dollar's worth of this Immense Stock, except a few contract goods, goes on Sale at Prices that will Astonish You. This is our first store-wide sale, and we are entering into it with the determination to make it the master stroke in our business career. We are going to give you a real sale, and when we say a Real Sale we believe the people of this section of Oregon will heed the call of our advertising and reap the benefits of this sale. We invite you all to come and share in this Great Bargain Event.

Bartcher Furniture Co., Albany, Ore.

teaching chemistry. Those present were A. J. McLain (W. H.'s brother), Dillon McLain, T. M. Russell, wife and four children, Jesse, Doran, Cyo and Ellen of Shelburn; M. C. McLain, wife and two sons, Ronald and Harlan, and A. G. McLain and wife of Portland.

Mrs. Mollie Miller and children attended the program and pie social at Cole school house Nov. 25.

Opal Shilling spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. E. S. McCrae, at Munkers.

Miss Doris Meisner, Shelburn's school teacher, spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Camas, Wash., returning on the eight o'clock train Monday morning.

At the road meeting held at Shelburn on Nov. 23, the special road tax was voted down.

T. M. Russell, assisted by Frank Miller and his stepson, Bob Martin, butchered a fine beef Nov. 28.

T. M. Russell and wife made a business trip to Stayton Nov. 30.

Miss Mary Kotan, who is teaching school in Albany, and her sister, Miss Rosa Kotan, whose home is on route 3, spent the Thanksgiving vacation in Portland.

Mrs. H. Robberding of Portland came out last Wednesday to attend at the bedside of her father, Matt Doubek, who died on Sunday morning.

WINTER IS HERE

Come in and see us about getting glass enclosures put on your car. Do not delay getting your tops, curtains and upholstering done now and ride in comfort. We are equipped to do your work satisfactorily.

All work guaranteed.

Jenning's Auto Top Shop

Corner E. Second and Baker Streets

N. L. JENNINGS, Manager

ALBANY, OREGON

TELEPHONE 418-J

Bring Your Job Printing to the Tribune.

If one of the Tribune advertisers "sting" you, tell us; if he treats you right, tell him.

Solve a dozen Christmas Problems with the Gift only you can GIVE

YOUR PHOTOGRAPH

The Most Appreciated of All Gifts

C. E. Clifford

333 West First Street

Albany, Oregon