News From Lyons.

December 8

The E. H. Potter and Clyde McRae families entertained relatives from Silverton over the week-end.

Mrs. Dellis Westenhause was an Albany business caller Thursday.

Harvey Ransom has been in Portland on jury duty the past week. Clint Surry is assisting in the store during his absence.

Mrs. Ring and Lois McElhane were callers at Ella Johnston's last Wednesday evening.

The social entertainment at the community hall Friday evening was well attended and a nice sum raised for the Christmas tree supplies.

Miss Barbara Schwindt spent several days last week with her sister in Lyons.

Marion Forrest sold his farm last week to an eastern man, whose name we did not learn, and immediate possession was given. We understand a sister is coming to keep house for him. The Forrest families have leased a place near Mehama and will reside there for the present.

Asked to Help Locate Boy

The local Odd Fellows lodge has been requested to locate if possible George (Bud) Crow, age 15; 5 feet, 8 inches tall; weight 115; fair complexion, dark brown hair, small round face; pleasing personality, small bunch or scar under left jaw near ear; very faint scar across neck in front.

The boy disappeared from his home in Gooding, Idaho, on August 18th and is believed to be in this vicinity. Mrs. Crow is prostrated and any information would be appreciated. If Bud sees this he should write home immediately and relieve his mother's anxiety.

Spelling Contest Ends

The spelling contest in the third, fourth and fifth grades closed the first of last week, Mary Madrus ranking first and Norma Mumper second in the fifth grade, Mary Becicka first and Bernice Simmons second in the fourth grade, Rex Shelton first and Helen Myers second in the third grade. Prizes were awarded to the winners.

Mrs. Rodgers intends to have another contest later in the term.

Mrs. Grace Edwards, with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Veal of Albany, spent the week-end with Dr. Mary T. Cole at Timber, Oregon.

Beginning Dec. 11, 1925
