Locals

Mrs. Thoms specializes in all kinds of beauty work.

See Hagey, the Jeweler, for ladies fine Oregon Agate Rings.

A. J. Salzer of near Jordan was a caller at the Tribune office last Saturday.

Mrs. Nell Bilyeu and Mrs. Fanny Lindley called on friends in Albany Monday evening.

The Ladies Aid Societies will have an Apron, Cake and Candy sale on December 23 and 24.

Ed Posvar and O. K. Howard have installed Freed-Eisemann radios during the past week.

Roy Shelton and family of Salem were visitors at the parental home of E. C. Shelton Sunday.

Hagey, the Jeweler, has the best assortment of Maher & Grosh Pocket Knives ever shown in town.

The Ladies' Aid Societies reports the receipts from their bazaar on last Friday and Saturday to be $59.

R. C. Pepperling of the Crabtree community was in Scio Tuesday. He said he had lost his dog and was looking for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tharp of near Tangent visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. L. Watenpaugh, last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roll Morris, Dean Morris, John Brock and Merle Cyrus attended the funeral of Dr. M. L. Jones in Portland Monday morning.

John Burnside of Haynes, Oregon visited Mrs. N. E. Gill and W. F. Gill last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Burnside is a nephew of the late M. C. Gill.

Mrs. C. A. Bates, who has been quite ill with gall stones for the past two months, was taken to Salem by her physician Monday where an x-ray was taken.

The contribution of Thos. Small to the Red Cross roll call came in after the report was published last week. This brings the total for the Scio district to $153.75.

The bank at Shedd was entered early Tuesday morning and robbed of about $5000. This bank was also robbed in 1924, three of the robbers are now serving time in the pen.

Dr. Prill reports the birth of a son on December 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing, who reside on Rodgers mountain; first child. Both mother and babe are doing nicely.

While working at the condensery Tuesday C. C. Vandervert cut the little finger of his right hand about half off. Dr. Prill dressed the wound and thinks he can save the finger.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Peery of Springfield and Mr. and Mrs. P. H. MacDonald went to Portland Sunday in response to news of the death of Dr. M. L. Jones. Mrs. Jones is a sister of the above ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kalina, who recently traded their ranch, four miles southwest of town, to Jack Hollida for property near Albany, have rented it and gone to Malin, where they will remain for some time visiting relatives.

The Christian and Baptist Sunday schools will have a combined entertainment and Christmas tree at the Christian church on Christmas eve. This is the regular custom of the two Sunday schools, holding their entertainment at one church one year and at the other the next.

Mrs. James Richardson of Amity, former resident of Scio, writes that she is again bothered with her eyes, caused by sickness. Reluctantly she has had to stop the two papers she was taking, the Scio Tribune and Salem Statesman. Her many friends here will be sorry to learn of her affliction.

J. H. McCune of Moro spent part of last week visiting his cousin, Mrs. F. T. Thayer, and Mrs. D. M. McKnight, who is a second cousin. Mrs. McKnight's mother, Mrs. Esther Ray also visited her the last of the week, and on Sunday Mrs. McKnight, Mrs. Ray and son, Lewis, accompanied Mr. McCune to Monmouth where he will visit his mother, Mrs. Kate Hickman, before returning home.

Thomas Large drove to Portland Sunday. On the highway just south of Woodburn a large car and a stage had evidently collided. The stage was lying with the side against the embankment and the other car had two wheels torn off. As far as he could learn Mr. Large says no one was hurt, but a man in another car who stopped was struck by a passing car and his leg broken. Mr. Large says the fog was so dense that one could hardly see across the road.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the Z C B J lodge and friends for their kind assistance during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father, also for the beautiful floral offerings.
