

LOCAL BREVITIES

Roe Smead and family, drove over to the Scio fair, Wednesday morning.

Oliver McClure and family went to Springfield, Saturday, for a short visit.

For Sale—21 shoats, will weigh from 75 to 100 pounds. See me at once. John T. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brady, of the Big Bottom country, came down, last Saturday.

S. V. Blodgett, of Lebanon, accompanied the A. A. White party to Foster Saturday.

Dr. Geo. Collins, of Albany, came up last Saturday, for an over Sunday visit with his friend, Chas. Lyons.

Fred Quippe, an experienced miner, came up Saturday and went on the following morning to the Santiam mining country.

The Foster public school opened the Fall term, last Monday, with F. L. Gilbert, of Sweet Home, as teacher.

Bert Templeton, one of Brownsville's substantial citizens, was looking after business matters in Sweet Home, last Monday.

In all small towns where every one knows all about everybody's business, adverse criticisms are, too often, made. If you cannot say something good and beneficial of a neighbor, it is a good plan to say nothing at all.

The old-fashioned custom of the chirivari prevails in Sweet Home, whenever a marriage occurs. It matters not if this little attention is delayed somewhat. Nobody is slighted. Several couples received this kind of a serenade, last week.

We make a Specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany.

 Drs. Lowe & Turner, opticians and optometrists, will be at Hotel Lebanon October 2. Consult them about your eyes and glasses.

W. H. Putman and family, Henry Slavens and family, Councilman Smead and family and Frank Malone, are attending the Linn county fair.

Copies of the Intermountain Tribune in wrappers, 5 cents each. Send a copy to your friends elsewhere. It might result in a new citizen for this locality.

Doctor Luther reports the arrival of a fine large pair of twin boys at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown on Sunday, September 21. The mother and boys are doing nicely.

Sam W. Dugger, of San Francisco, blew in on the Tribune family, last Monday. Sam is a member of the Naval Training Station band, of Goat Island. His visit to the old folks, was duly appreciated.

Mr. A. A. White, who has invested somewhat heavily in land at Foster and above there, came up via auto from Portland last week, for a short visit to Foster. Mr. White expects to remain on the coast for six weeks and will make another visit to this section, before his return to the east. F. B. Knapp accompanied him on his return to Salem.

The Sterling Milling & Warehouse Co. of Brownsville, Oregon solicits your trade on every thing in our line, we can please you in quality and price, we carry a full line of soft wheat flour, mill feed, ground feed, wheat, oats, hay, grass seeds, red clover, Alsike clover, white clover and poultry supplies. Give us a call when the city. Chas. Sterling, Manager and owner.

S. V. Blodgett, of Lebanon, came up Wednesday in the McHaffie auto.

Heavy frosts have been the rule in the Sweet Home valley, this week.

Quite a number of hunting parties have passed through town, this week.

The High school building is making good progress and will be enclosed in a short time.

Sweet Home schools will begin next Monday. Rustle up your books, boys and girls.

For Sale—Driving or saddle horses, good fair quality. Inquire of M. G. Reed, Sweet Home, Oregon.

Chas. Wiley and Henry Thompson, left Thursday morning for upper Canyon creek, bound for a week's hunt.

All danger of timber fires is now past. Unless there is an unusual amount of dry weather, a fire in the timber would be impossible.

Sweet Home beef cannot be surpassed anywhere. The Tribune family has been supplied with steaks which would make a city gourmand smile.

Material improvements are being made to Sweet Home's meat market. Mr. Thompson intends to make it a first-class market, not only for fresh meats, but for poultry and eggs as well.

Dr. Luther, by means of a gasoline engine and a system of piping, has an excellent small irrigating plant and his garden gives evidence of the fact.

If you have not paid the last half your taxes, you had better get busy. Taxes will be delinquent after the first Monday in October.

In any direction from Sweet Home there are fine crushed rock roads. In town the streets are paved with boulders. Something wrong in some way.

We Sell

*General Merchandise
Dry Goods, Groceries
Hardware, Etc., Etc.*

—AT REASONABLE PRICES—

The Highest Market Price Paid for Country Produce

N. R. Watkins

Sweet Home - - - Oregon

BIBLE BARRED OUT

(Continued from page 1)

don't believe it is. But in reading it in the schools it would be impossible to escape the fact that the teacher's authority or personality would throw something into the readings that would have an unwarranted effect upon the child's mind."

Almost every day demonstrates the need of a bank in Sweet Home.

OCEAN-TO-OCEAN

(Continued from page 1)

coln and Denver Transcontinental route, 636 miles; the River-to-River road, from Davenport to Council Bluff, Iowa, 236 miles; Tri-Cities Rock River road from the Mississippi river to Chicago, 180 miles. The greater portions of these old routes are still in good repair.

Intermountain Tribune $1.25 per year.

Mens, Youths and Boys Suits

Our lines include everything that a man or boy wears, from 5 years to 75 years. We can especially recommend our $12.50 Oregon Cassimere, absolutely all wool suits to any man wanting a good serviceable suit. Whenever you are in need of anything in our line, write us a letter, explaining what you want and we will send it by Parcels Post, prepaid, by return mail.

May we see you this fall and supply your needs for winter wear

The Blain Clothing Co.

ALBANY

OREGON