

Help those Sick Kidneys

How many times have you had your work, sleep, or your leisure hours interrupted by recurring pains in the region of the kidneys?

Did you ever experience anything more unpleasant and annoying?

You probably neglected it too—let yourself believe it wasn't serious—be over it in a day or two. When the kidneys give you warning of inability to perform their duty, assist them in every way, help them get rid of poisons that are accumulating, waste matter they cannot throw off.

They are weak and need strengthening. See that they are built up, back to normal, and it won't be many days until you are built up, eager for work and enjoying your rest and leisure hours

All You Need is to Take

Will Get Them All (?)

Last Sunday afternoon Wallace Perry, Frank Perry, Guy Funk, N-B. Moses and Dr. T. K. Sanderson, all of Scio, passed through town enroute for the upper Canyon creek country for a few days hunt. Of course there will be no deer or bear left in that section when the party returns.

It is understood that Doc Sanderson proposes to catch a bear, extract a tooth or two, then give his bearship his liberty again as a sort of walking advertisement. Doc thinks he may establish a dental office in that locality and he wants his skill known to the inhabitants.

Fairies.

How many kinds of fairy were there? A good many. For an elf differs from a troll, who must not be confounded with a pixy. Then in addition there was the kelpie, the gnome, the brownie, the kobold, the nis and the urisk (a hairy Scotch spirit).—Chicago News.

Circumstances.

You might as well expect one wave of the sea to be precisely the same as the next wave of the sea as to expect that there would be no change of circumstances.

SWEET HOME - OREGON

A tiny, wide awake three-year-old boy that the writer sees often takes a very optimistic attitude toward the things he tries to do and toward operations in which he sees other people engaged. His inspiring declaration as he looks up at you is, "I can do it," and this very attitude causes him to tackle a great many things that but for it would be largely impossible for him. This is a refreshing note in one so young and is in striking contrast to the indifferent, uninterested and often lazy attitude of many children and grown folks. This youngster will get somewhere some day unless we miss our guess, and it will be because of an attitude of mind and will which he started to develop as a three-year-old.

Dead Easy.

Two guests missed the first courses of a dinner at a suburban home, which had been arranged partly in their honor. Hand bags had been searched, distant homes called on the telephone for information, much nerve energy had been expended, all because the key to the trunk containing the necessary dinner raiment could not be found. Finally a locksmith from the town four miles away came by automobile, was led to the trunk, and in less than a minute the lid was turned back.

"Good work," said the maid.
"Dead easy," said the locksmith; "the thing wasn't locked at all."—New York Tribune.

Up to Date Milkman.

"What are you giving your cows now in the way of galactagogues?" asked the Irvington professor of the milkman.

"Oh," said the milkman, who has just been graduated from Purdue and is not to be stumped by any Butler college pedagogue, "their sustenance is wholly of vegetable origin, rich in chlorophyl and opulent in butyaceous qualities."

"A pint, if you please," said the professor.

"Git up," said the milkman.—Indianapolis News.

The Speaker.

It was his power of protesting that in the first place gave the speaker of the British house of commons his name. For the early members were not great at oratory and soon realized the desirability of choosing a spokesman with a ready tongue and the courage to argue with the king. Hence came the title of "speaker," which was first given to Sir Thomas Hungerford in 1376.
