

LOCAL BREVITIES

Agate mounting, gold filled or solid gold. Stacy, Lebanon.

Roe Smead carried a hack load of people to Lebanon, Tuesday.

Oregon is herself again with rains descending alike on the just and unjust.

Hack loads of homesteaders, bound for Portland, are of almost daily occurrence, these days.

For Sale—Good pigs and shoats. Inquire or write to Levi Ellis, Foster, Ore.

I. W. Brown of District 28, was doing business in Sweet Home last Monday.

Keep your feet dry by buying and wearing a pair of those Ball Band rubbers for sale at Scholl's.

F. L. Gilbert is reported to have been employed to teach another three months school at Foster.

R. W. Wallace of Lebanon, and Fred Robinson of Waterloo, were Sweet Home visitors Friday.

For Sale—A good second hand Mason & Hamlin cabinet organ—cheap. Inquire at the Tribune office.

Our streets—well there is no use to try to describe them, they are simply awful, not miery, but sloppy till you can't rest.

It is expected that some new developments in the railroad proposition will appear soon after the opening of the new year.

Estrayed—A black Poland China boar. Any one knowing of his whereabouts will confer a favor by notifying me. J. D. Rolfe.

Lemuel Tittle has retired from the firm of Goings, Tittle & Goings. The firm name will hereafter be J. H. Goings & Son.

Born—At the home of her parents on December 17, to Mrs. Gainer, of Lebanon, a son. Dr. Luther was the attending physician.

For Sale Cheap—An International high wheel automobile, in good condition. If sold at once the price will be right. See E. H. Billings, Foster, Ore.

Supervisor of Schools Baker and Prof. Shafer, of Oregon University, were central participants in the Parent-Teachers meet last Saturday. Prof. Shafer delivered the principal address.

Albert Frink, of across the river, made a mislick with an ax Wednesday, cutting his right hand severely. Dr. Luther dressed the wound. Several stitches were required to bring the parts together.

The City Drug store has now on hand and is receiving a fine line of holiday goods. Call and see them before buying your Christmas presents. Dr. N. R. Luther.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Geisendorfer proprietors of Cascadia Springs, went to the valley Tuesday, expecting to visit Albany and other points for a month. Mr. Shearinghouse drove them to Lebanon.

For Sale or Trade.—I have two Jersey male calves, one yearling and one spring, one good buggy and a young mare. Come and see me and if you mean business, you will not go home alone. S. J. Moss.

We are frequently requested for sample copies of the Tribune by parties desiring to come to Oregon and to this particular locality. If there should be a purse raised to pay for it, we will get up a special number, carrying all the information which these prospective settlers desire. But we cannot bear all the expense.

The Tribune was promised a complete report of the Parent-Teachers meeting of last Saturday, but at the time of going to press, it has failed to make its appearance.

Rev. C. H. Wood makes daily trips to Foster, these days. He is building a bellfry on the church at that place and otherwise giving the building a general repairing and painting.

The high school band made its initial appearance in public, at the Parent-Teachers meet last Saturday. For less than two months practice, the boys acquitted themselves very creditably. By the close of the school year, they will be furnishing excellent music.

Greenville Items

(Delayed from last week)

A large horse shed has just been completed at the Greenville school and if you will attend the social on Saturday night, December 20, you will find plenty of room for your team. You are cordially invited. Girls, under 12 years, baskets are to be sold separately. The program is as follows:

Song. Jolly Students, by the school.

Recitation. Sister's Shopping Bag, Miss Moss.

Dialogue. No Peddlers Wanted, four boys.

Recitation. A note to Santa Claus, Thomas Dewell.

Recitation. If I Were Santa Claus, Fay Moss.

Song. Jingle Bells, five girls.

Recitation. Santa's Boy, by Ray Moss.

Dialogue. Xmas Eve, by three small girls and two boys.

Recitation. Xmas Dream, Earl Wodtli.

Song. Advice to Santa Claus, five small girls.

Tableau. The Flower Girls, two girls.

Dialogue. The train to Marrs, two boys and one girl.

Recitation. My Pa, Frank Milliron.

Recitation. The Little Mother, Dorris Watson.

Song. Oregon Grape, school.

Tableau. Rock of Ages, by two girls.

Drill. Liby March and Song, by eight girls.

Dialogue. Grandma Shiras Visit, six girls and one boy.

Lawrence Thompson has completed the roof on his new silo.

Though a very busy time with farmers, some of the members of Line 5 have found time to raise their new telephone poles.

The writer had a call from two of the homestead boys of 12-4, this week. They are in the market for some young cattle to run on their new range.

Joe Wadkins is plowing some this week. Joe says the old furrows are some crooked. He does not say anything about the new ones.

Vern Philpott has been doing some carpenter work for L. B. Thompson.

Greenville Booster.

Naturally.

Schoolteacher—Can you tell me the kind of illumination they had on the ark?
Little Willie—Arc lights.—Chicago News.

Only the best mainsprings used for watches. Stacy, Lebanon.

For sale or will trade for stock, a good two-horse hack. Call and see me. James Watson, Sweet Home.

We make a Specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings. F. M. French & Son, Albany.

Hotel Sweet Home

MYERS & ROSE, Props.

Clean and Airy Rooms and Beds. The tables are supplied with the best the market affords

Special Orders—Special Prices

Feed and Livery Barn in connection with Hotel. Prices are Reasonable.

SWEET HOME - OREGON

For Sale: 50 head of goats, good weathers, at $2 per head. Enquire of Levy Ellis, Sweet Home, Ore.

Let Stacy fix your watch. Work guaranteed. In Courtney building, Lebanon.

All kinds of watch and jewelry repairing correctly done at Stacy's, Lebanon.

Fresh and pure drugs constantly on hand at the City Drug Store, Dr. N. R. Luther, prop.

When in Lebanon stop at the Depot Livery Barn

Ladies Waiting Room

WE WANT YOUR TRADE AND WILL TREAT YOU RIGHT.

B. O. BELIEU, Prop.

Phone Main 101

LEBANON, ORE.

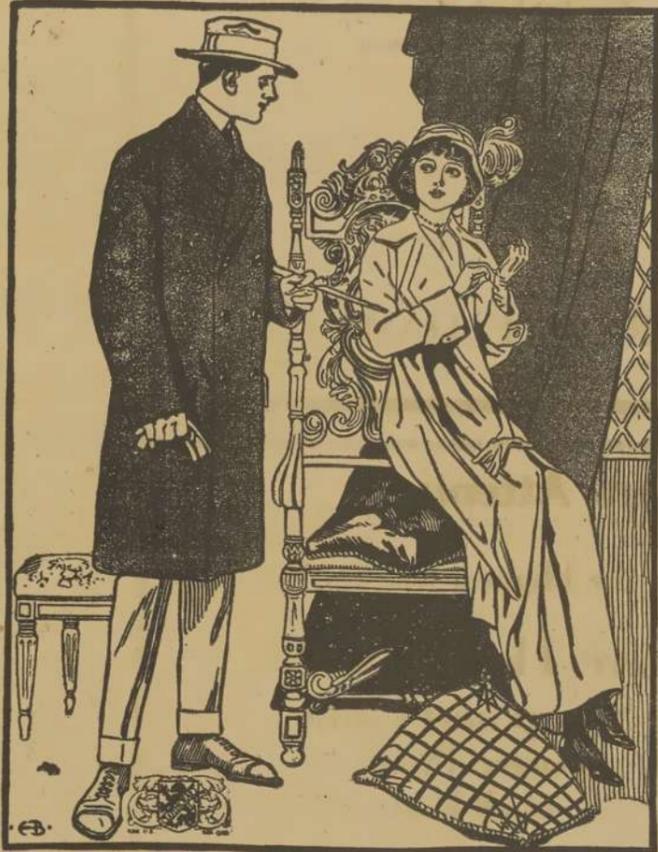

Undertaking, Embalming and Funeral Director

CALLS PROMPTLY ATTENDED DAY OR NIGHT

H. R. SLAVENS

Phone 3x6

SWEET HOME, ORE.

STOP GUESSING

In buying things to wear, don't take chances. Know before you buy that you are getting goods that are right and that will stay right.

We are Specialists in the Clothing and Furnishing goods business, carrying complete lines of Mens and Boys Suits, Overcoats, Shoes, Hats, Shirts, Underwear, etc. of all kinds.

We have the newest and most complete stock in Lebanon and our prices are the lowest, Quality considered.

You Are Invited to visit our store when in town and look over our merchandise whether you buy or not.

WE HAVE WHAT YOU WANT AT THE PRICE YOU WANT TO PAY

LEBANON CLOTHING CO.

HOTEL BUILDING

R. WAYNE GREEN, Mgr.