When the American hired man kicks on his $35 a month, board, washing, horse and buggy to take his best girl a-riding, etc., he might be reminded of the fact that in the province of Shantung, China, the hired man's wages are $6 a year. A day laborer receives 10 cents a day and the farm laborer still less. The food used by the laboring man consists of sweet potatoes, beans, wheat products and vegetables, costing on the average about 2 1/2 cents a day.

Some housewife who seems to make a business of making her head save her hands and feet has hit upon the plan of stacking the dishes when the meal is over on a two deck stand provided with casters and wheeling this, loaded, from the dining room into the kitchen, instead of making from eight to a dozen trips in carrying the same dishes out by hand. In getting the meal on to the table nearly as many steps are saved by placing the prepared food on these shelves and wheeling the stand into the dining room. The idea is certainly worth trying out by any housewife whose time and strength are limited.

stock and farm exhibits. There were several breeds of horses, four breeds of cattle, four of hogs, some three or four breeds of sheep, several pens of Angora goats, six or eight varieties of chickens, turkeys, geese, ducks, etc. The vegetable exhibit, considering the unfavorable season, was most excellent. The ladies' department was especially good in needle work, canned fruits, etc. The public school exhibit was most excellent and extensive, owing to the untiring energy of Superintendent Jackson. The track events, which occurred in the afternoon of each day, were quite interesting; though we thought there was a common understanding among the harness men, which horse should win. No fault could be found with the running races, except some of the horses were outclassed.

The most attractive event of Thursday was the arrival from Albany and the successful alighting of the flying machine. But when the flight was attempted on Friday, the machine did not ascend as quickly as desired and one of the planes caught on the fence resulting in considerable damage to the machine.

The O. A. C. Cadet band supplied very high grade music during the entire three days of the fair.

The fair management deserves great credit for the very successful manner in which the fair was conducted. Not a hitch or bobble was made. Everybody seemed to understand what was required of him and did it promptly and well.

The attendance was light the first day—not more than 500. The second day the crowd was swelled to 2500 and the last day proved to be equally as great.

Fairies.

How many kinds of fairy were there? A good many. For an elf differs from a troll, who must not be confounded with a pixy. Then in addition there was the kelpie, the gnome, the brownie, the kobold, the nis and the nris (a hairy Scotch spirit).—Chicago News

Whist undoubtedly is derived from the old game of trumps, which has a purely English lineage. There is no record of the origin of this game nor of its development into ruff and honors, which was the parent of whist. The earliest reference to it is believed to be in a sermon of Latimer about the year 1529. The name probably is derived from the "hiss" or "silence" which close attention to play demands of the players.

VINDICATION

WHO MALIGNS?

Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway has the respect of every man and woman in the State of Oregon who thinks out his or her own opinions. She is assailed only by a minority of those who allow other people to think out their opinions for them.

SHE SPEAKS

It has been brought to my attention that the Anti-Saloon League, following the same tactics it has followed in every campaign heretofore, is trying to besmirch this organization and to carry on a vicious campaign of untruths. No name seems to be too good to be dragged into the mud by them. I have reliable information that a statement has been made to the Anti-Saloon League and to the Committee of One Hundred by Mrs. Cora C. Talbot, former secretary of the Taxpayers' and Wage-Earners' League, that she was brought into this work by me under the impression that it was a Women's Suffrage movement and her duties would be those of a physician while I made speeches throughout the state. I also understand that Mrs. Talbot makes the statement that funds have been collected without authority, and in some way the Brewers' Association has been collecting these funds. These two statements are absolutely untrue. The collection of funds was authorized by me as president, and the secretary was ordered to have a letter sent out in connection with this work. I understand that Mrs. Talbot, in this purported letter, in the name of the Anti-Saloon League and the Committee of One Hundred, states that she objected to the raising of funds under her signature as secretary. How did the good lady think the work of this league was to be carried on? Why did she think Mr. Bortzmeyer, cashier of the Scandinavian-American Bank, was appointed treasurer of this league? Did she think we would ask the brewers to put up the money surreptitiously? If so, she reckoned without her host. I have always fought in the open, and now, in my 80th year, and probably in my last campaign, I do not intend to change the principles I have always fought for, nor depart from my honesty of purpose in advocacy of equal rights for all the people—by no means excluding women for whose interests I have spent my life to obtain the ballot. My chief concern in their behalf has always been to secure for them their economic independence, as married mothers within the home, which alone will enable any woman to quit the business of marrying inebriates or raising drunkards.

The moneys collected are in the hands of Treasurer Bortzmeyer, and all those who have donated have received a letter acknowledging receipt thereof. Any one so desiring may inquire from our treasurer as to whether the money has been put in his hands, and I am quite sure he will advise them of receipt of their donation. If there is any one who has paid their money into this organization under misapprehension as donation for carrying on this work this league will be only too glad to refund it.

It is indeed strange that Mrs. Talbot thought this was a Suffrage movement when she went to the Portland Hotel, engaged the dining-room for our first luncheon for organization and arranged for the payment of this luncheon, and went so far as to get speakers to express their views against Prohibition.

The real break between Mrs. Talbot and myself was caused when I found out that she had gone to the Brewers' Association and told them she could be of good service to them in connection with this league and asked and received a salary from the Brewers' Association on the ground that she was putting in her time and needed the money. On the 26th of August a meeting was held between Mrs. Talbot and myself for the purpose of getting matters straightened out before starting the general organization. At this meeting a statement was signed by myself as president and Mrs. Talbot as secretary that the two letters sent out by myself, as well as the letter sent out by the publicity department, were approved. This statement ended with the sentence: "After discussing generally the affairs of the league, the officers ratified all work that had been done up to date by the publicity bureau and officers of the association."

I have lived in this state for 60 years, during all of which time I have toiled and worked for the people of my state, and I am willing to leave it to the public to decide as to whether I would lend myself in any way to any organization or any act that could be construed as anything but honorable. Every one in this state knows Mrs. Duniway and her family. I wish further to say that, if the occasion arises and I deem it necessary to go further into this matter, I will be glad to publish some additional facts in these same papers not necessary to publish now, and will meet the conditions as they arise. If the Anti-Saloon League, by its paid foreign agitators or Committee of One Hundred, think they can becloud this issue by trying to drag into the mud my name or others, they are very much mistaken. I expect to carry this work on to the conclusion of this campaign and then allow the people to judge as to whether we will control our own affairs in the State of Oregon or allow the paid agitators of the East to show us what to do.

(Signed) Abigail Scott Duniway

Inasmuch as the officers and members of the Hop Growers' and Dealers' Association of Oregon have individually and collectively been assailed by the same designing political 'reformers', quite as viciously and equally as unjustly as this attack on "Oregon's Grand Old Lady," we hereby give publicity to Mrs. Duniway's open letter, as an offering of tribute.
