Dr. Wilson has been quite sick during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Maley went to Lebanon Wednesday.

The state fair is promised a good week, so says the weather clerk.

A. E. Edwards and son, Orvel, went up to Cascadia Friday for a two days hunt.

All of our hop pickers are home again and Sweet Home has resumed her normal condition.

A. Scholl has had the front of his store painted which adds much to the appearance thereof.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson made a trip up to the old home farm above Foster last Friday.

Jerry Keeney was up to Fish lake last week to assist Mr. Cochran in bringing his sheep to the valley.

Saturday evening the High school band resumed practice with the teacher of last year, R. W. Van Fleet, as instructor.

Clyde Rowell and family moved to Portland, this week, where Mr. Rowell expects to enter upon the study of medicine.

B Benton county farmer reports that he killed a snake 22 feet long. As Benton county is "dry," this story sounds just a little bit fishy.

Mrs. John Thompson was visiting at Foster Tuesday. She said that she and "Alki" could get along all right and that she had no use for John.

Henry Slavens and wife, Wm. Putman and wife, Andy Cornish and wife and several others from Sweet Home, attended the Scio fair last week.

The High school began Monday under the tutelage of Mr. Thompson from the east and Miss Harper. We trust the school will be more liberally attended than last year.

About 1000 sheep belonging to Mr. Cochran, of Brownsville, passed through town Wednesday morning, enroute home from the summer pasture in the vicinity of Fish lake.

Married

Mr. Jahn Bemm and Miss Gladys Painter were married at the residence of J. H. Keeney, last Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bemm went to the home of the bride's parents near Foster Tuesday, but they failed to escape the Sweet Home charivari crowd for all that. The crowd followed them and, from reports, must have had a hilarious time.

Stayton Man Has Freak Calves at Fair

C. C. Mulkey of near West Stayton has two calves that are unique in the annals of calfdom. They are both bipeds born without front legs.

Mr. Mulkey bought one of the calves near Sweet Home and the other near Lebanon, they were sired by the same sire, which is of the Jersey breed.

Mr. Mulkey will exhibit them at the Scio fair and at the State fair. The calves are four and six weeks old and have been raised by hand. Both are beginning to walk on their hind legs, kangaroo fashion.

Mr. Mulkey says that by the opening of the San Francisco exposition he will have his odd team trained to do many stunts. The calves are both bright youngsters and are as docile as kittens.—Stayton Mail.

Holley Happenings

Robbert McQueen is getting along nicely, although it will be some time before he can work.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rice returned home Monday from Albany, where they have been with their sick daughter, Mrs. Robert Logan, who is suffering with appendicitis, at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Swink passed through Holley Monday evening on their way home, from the Lane county hop yards.

Allen McQueen has been suffering with blood poison in his arm. They took him to Brownsville to Dr. Howard for treatment. He is some better.

The Holley school started Monday with a good attendance. They are crowded, scarcely seats enough for toe pupils, but you can see that pleasant smile on Prof. Malone's face.

Misses Wilda King and Marie Hildreth started to High school at Crawfordsville Monday.

School started in the Malone district Monday with Prof. Dinwiddie of Brownsville, teacher.

Some of the farmers are hauling apples to the cannery at Brownsville.

A. L. Weddle and family visited at Holley Sunday.

Jess Splawn and family have moved to the Timothy Riggs farm to reside. He has purchased eighty acres of land near Brownsville but he can't think of leaving Holley for awhile.

Property Transferred

A property transfer occurred last week by which George Philippi became the owner of six acres of the Clyde Rowell property in the east end of town and Mr. Rowell became the owner of the Philippi home in the south part of town.

Painfully Injured

It is reported that John Brown, of across the river, was seriously, for a time, injured by a flying root from a blasted stump. The injury was thought to be very serious for a spell, but Mr. Brown soon recovered and a considerable soreness was the only trouble.

Mexico Unsafe Says Russian

observe there is no prospect that a stable government may be established in Mexico. Carranza is an able political chief, but he can not compare with Villa as a leader of men. I am frank to state that conditions in Mexico today are not one-half as good as they were during the reign of Madero."

S. W. Wood and Milo Smith have gone to Alsea on a fishing trip, so we are expecting to hear some fishing stories when they return.

Ernest Kelly is quite sick with bilious fever.

Buddie Goodman, of Tangent, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Wes Cowitz.

Mrs. W. P. Gabriel and son, Geo. visited with friends near Sweet Home Sunday.

Mrs. J. D. Wood, Merrett Wood and John Miller were transacting business in Sweet Home last Monday.

J. D. Wood and wife were guests at the home of Mr. Miller Sunday. Mrs. Miller has been quite sick but is better.

A Rancher.

Holley Items

Mrs. Hetty Logan has so improved that she will be able to leave the hospital at Albany for home, in a few days. Mrs. Logan has had a very hard time of it. The doctors thought at first that she would have to undergo an operation.

Allen McQueen has had a bad case of blood poisoning in one of his arms. Dr. Howard has the case under control, at the present time.

Jess Davis and family who came over from their homestead to take in harvest and hoppicking, will return to their home in a few days.

That was a bold attempt to loot the safe at Crawfordsville, at Dennis & McKecher's store one night last week. As good luck would have it, they were scared away, but not until there had been a number of shots exchanged between the citizens and would-be-robbers. No one was hurt.
