

dustrial interests of the country that the democratic party cannot afford to of bonds. The amount of the call is $19,717,500, being the last of the 3 per cent bonds. No more bonds are rethe government is obliged to wrestle with the problem of how to prevent unneeded money from piling up in the treasury. In every other great country the question with which they have to deal is how to avoid or meet a deficit. The former, though troublesome at times, is the more pleasant occupation.

has received a commission from the most eminent grand master of the grand encampment, Knights Templar of the United States, to act as his deputy on the occasion of the organization of the grand commandery of Washington territory.

McGlynn, of New York, saying if he does not come to Rome in 40 days the extreme penalty of the church-excommunication, will be visited upon him. It will be remembered that the Dr. endorses Henry George's land theory.

Prohibition at Astoria is being pushed with-vigor. Geo. Johnson, Secretary of the Columbia River Fisherman's Union, seems to be the leader of the movement.

Secretary Lamar has restored to settlement by actual settlers lands heretofore withdrawn from markets in the interest of railroads, amounting to 25,000 OON INCOME.

OF EACH WEEK. Call early at the Depot. M. E. HEARN.

fully prepared to pay the highest prices as usual in cash, for all wool offered. Wool growers of Linn county generally know that Montague pays a little more than any one else for good wools. Drop in and see him before you sell; it will be to your pecuniary advantage to

Go and See Montague's

$2.00 shoe for men,s wear. It will com-pare favorably with any $3.00 shoe in the market. When you can save $1.00 on a pair of shoes do it and you can in-vest it in something else to your advantage.

SMITH & HAMMACK,

-ARE PAYING THE-

Highest CASH Price

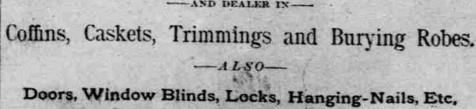

-FOR WOOL ----Sacks Furnished on Application. MAIN STREET,

nl-tf. LEBANON, OREGON,

-AND DEALER IN-

E. GOAN

Manufacturer -:- of -:- Furniture,

Lebanon Junction, Oregon,

WOOL WANTED!