

Local and General.

Miss Alice Stowell of Eugene City, is visiting Miss Woolley of this place.

Dr. J. H. Johnson has returned from New York, and will resume his practice again at this place.

The ladies of the M. E. church, return their sincere thanks to all who so liberally patronized their fair and festival on Friday evening last.

While working at a hay rack, Wesley Baltimore had the misfortune to cut a severe gash in his left hand with an ax, severing the tendon of the little finger.

Elmer Montague P. M. informs us that a new post office has been established on the Santiam, two miles above Waterloo. Jas. Matheatt is the postmaster.

Mr. E. Goss has a new "ad" in another column. This week, relating to hardware. He also announces that he is selling furniture at manufacturer's prices.

Mr. J. E. Knox will accept our sincere thanks for some very acceptable local news; and for the copy of the Grand Lodge I. O. G. T. We regret our inability to publish the proceedings of this week.

G. E. Hardy of this city, is agent for the I. F. & H. A. Singer sewing machine—something entirely new. Like the old Singer, they will certainly take the lead. Call and see them at Hardy's jewelry store.

The Lebanon flouring mills are now supplied with the roller process. Supt. Unger will soon be taking from these mills as good a brand of flour as can be made in Oregon.

Dr. J. M. Powell will use us from San Francisco, so he will return here in a few days and again attend to his professional business. He will be ready to examine all pensioners who have orders to call on him, after the first Wednesday in July. During his absence, the Dr. has been giving his attention to microscopy and all classes of surgery.

It is now discovered that the re-appointment bill passed by the last legislature makes no provision for Walla Walla county, leaving it entirely without representation. The bill creating the new county was passed before the re-appointment, hence the clause in which it provides that Walla Walla shall have one representative, and Union one representative is repealed.

Mr. M. B. Gaylord, one of our old soldier friends, evidently believes a poor printer, enjoys good things, too, and consequently sends us a whole lot of nice, large, delicious strawberries—the largest we have seen this year. These berries were grown on Fern Ridge, which evidently speaks well for that place. Go, you Southern Oregon. Thanks, Mr. Gaylord, thanks.

General Manager Wm. M. Hoag, and Walls Nash, vice-president, of the Oregon Pacific railway, were in Albany on the 24 inst. They stated that work is to be prosecuted on the round house at that place, and the road eastward, without intermission until winter. A contract will be let Monday next for brick for construction of the round house and other buildings there.

The "ad" of C. B. Roland & Co., Albany, appears in another column, to which we direct special attention. It will be seen that this enterprising firm are the proprietors of a new store and have in stock the newest and most stylish designs of all kinds of mens' boys' and youths' clothing, and a handsome array of gents' furnishing goods of every description. Also a best of hand sawed shoes, &c. Call and see them.

Kelly, the Polk county wife murderer, continues to answer "I don't know," to all inquiries as to what made him commit the brutal and cowardly deed, says a Polk county paper. The sheriff and fourteen deputies escorted him from his father's house to jail, a strong guard being considered necessary in order to prevent the capture and lynching of the prisoner. His condition is gradually improving, the past two days he ate a little, and the prospects are good for his ultimate recovery. He is guarded day and night.

On Thursday last week, James Elkins returned to Albany from Princeton, where he had been looking after his cattle interests. He reports the health of Samuel Cowan, who is reported to be dangerously ill, to be much improved, with prospects of his speedy recovery. Immense quantities of wool are now being shipped from that locality at prices ranging from 19 to 21 cents, Eastern Oregon wool always selling for about three cents less than Willamette valley wool. At Brineville considerable interest is being manifested over the route of the Oregon Pacific railroad. One route has been surveyed leaving Brineville about twenty miles off the line, but the people of that town hope to secure its location.

No Paper Next Week. Desiring a little recreation with the rest of humanity next week, we have decided not to issue THE EXPRESS on Friday next. We hope to make some decided improvements previous to our next issue.

A Good Report.

From a letter written us by G. L. Sutherland, who has just finished a nine months term of school at Sodaville, district No. 13, we take the following: The first three months there were an enrollment of 63 pupils, with an average daily attendance of 52 pupils.

The second three months, an enrollment of 68 pupils, average daily attendance of 42 pupils. The third and last quarter, an enrollment of 91 pupils, with daily attendance of 34 pupils. The average daily attendance for the full nine months, 40 pupils. During the nine months there have been 30 pupils enrolled on the register, who have attended the school, 18 of which were non-resident pupils.

The State Dental Board. Board of state dental examiners consisting of S. J. Barber, J. Welch, N. R. Cox, and J. R. Cardwell, met last week at Dr. Welch's office in Portland and elected officers as follows: Dr. J. R. Cardwell, chairman; N. R. Cox, secretary and treasurer. Books of registration were opened. All dentists in practice in this state the time of the passage of the act, and at the date of February 23d, are required to send in the registration fee of $2.00 and to register their names and all coming into the state subsequent to that time are required to appear before the board for examination and registration, failing which they are liable to a fine of from $50 to $80 for each offense.

A Kicking Cayuse. A kicking cayuse, was the subject of considerable interest at the blacksmith shop, of Harkness & Mayer Bros., the other day. Being terribly opposed to the shoeing process, which in his case, was peculiar, he proceeded to clean the shop of its contents, and everything left in confusion before his hind feet, except the anvils which fortunately were fastened down. This cayuse was not large, but his kicking faculties were immense, and even after being checked down several times it was as violent as before. He undoubtedly did a good job, so as not to be compelled to again subject life and property to annihilation in the very near future.

In the Dining Room. A Salem dispatch of the 18th says: W. W. Saunders was this morning sentenced by Judge Boise to imprisonment in the penitentiary for life, his attorneys having decided to accept the verdict of the jury and what to make a motion for a new trial. Saunders appeared considerably dejected, and bore up well during the sentence, having made up his mind to submit calmly to the sentence on the shoes. He undoubtedly did a good job, so as not to be compelled to again subject life and property to annihilation in the very near future.

Waterloo Springs. I do not desire in speaking of this place, to call attention to the soda spring here, for every person in the county, and in fact in the State, knows of it and its medicinal properties; but I desire to inform your many readers that, as heretofore, Mr. Gess is prepared to accommodate all persons desiring to visit this place for their health. He is prepared to furnish a better and anything in the way of groceries, canned fruits, meats, etc. Tourists will find the best of food and other accommodations. All comers will find the table spread with everything desired by the most fastidious. Mr. Gess's experience as a cook at this place has taught her how to please the taste of persons who are, or have been sick, and for this reason the public cannot find a better place to spend a few weeks than here. Any person desiring to visit Waterloo, who will notify George Gross by mail, before arriving at Lebanon, will be met by him and conveyed to his place, at reasonable rates.

TESTIMONIAL.

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: This is to certify that George L. Sutherland has taught our school nine months with great satisfaction, and we take pleasure in giving this testimonial of him as a teacher. We believe him to be a fair, honest, industrious and impartial teacher in every sense of the word. Those who have had the most fault to find with him, have done so more through envy than any just cause. We, the directors of Sodaville district No. 13, Linn county, Oregon, having visited the school, once in company with County Supt. Reid, and several times since, concur with him in saying that Mr. Sutherland is a good teacher, and we are highly pleased with the advancement of our children under his instruction. We further believe there are few teachers, indeed, who can take 63 pupils from 4 to 22 years of age, and in studies from "A, B, C, to as high as is commonly taught in district schools, having an average of thirty recitations to the counting year. We will give as good satisfaction as Mr. Sutherland has done for us. We would gladly have given him the school for another year, if he would accept it; but he thinks he can do better. Therefore, we wish him abundant success, as we know him to be a deserving teacher. He has taught the most successful and satisfactory school during the nine months that has been taught in this district since we have lived in it.

Respectfully given by W. W. PARRISH, S. W. ROSS, M. M. JACKSON, G. W. WILSON, Directors School Dist. No. 13, SODAVILLE, OR., June 24, 1887.

Albany Notes.

June 29.

Thos. Kay of Brownsville, was admitted to citizenship in the circuit court yesterday.

Plans will be received up to July 1st., for the building of a new hall by the W. C. T. U.

Yesterday Frank Purdon severely injured his hand, breaking the thumb, by having a stick of timber fall upon it, at this saw mill.

William Keffron met with a painful accident Tuesday evening. He struck a bottle with a hammer, and a piece of the glass flew into his eye.

Mrs. Seales who was so badly injured near the Callipoua bridge, will probably recover, though her life was despaired of, for several days.

Yesterday the libel suit of O. T. Poragant against George Rogers of the Lance, was settled by the latter paying Porter one dollar and all costs.

Seventy-five people went to Yaquina Bay on the excursion last Sunday. The train made the run over in three hours and fifteen minutes, giving the excursionists about eight hours at the Bay.

Word was received here yesterday from Unadilla county, stating that young Hawk, who was supposed to have been murdered at Colburg Lane county, was living there alive and well.

Last night Col. F. O. N. guard was mustered in at Linn Engine Co. No. 2 hall. O. H. Irvine was elected captain; A. A. Archibald, first Lieut.; E. D. Cusick, second Lieut. The other officers will be appointed by the captain.

A. L. Knott, second P. M. General has written if arrangements can be made with the railroad company, the mail between Albany and Lebanon, will be carried on the cars, which would certainly be a great convenience.

Today all the railroad employees are happy, for yesterday Wm. M. Hogg came down and paid them all off in full. The company is now out of debt except a little old indebtedness which will be paid in a few days. Work will commence on the extension at once.

Knox Butte Items.

I take pleasure in sending the Express the following items from this part of Linn county: J. M. Archibald is building an addition to his barn. The Grangers sold their pool of wool for 25 cents per pound.

The Linn Co. Council has chosen the Osborn binder for this season. W. W. Phillips is expected home from Eastern Oregon in a few days. Brown Houston, son of Newton Houston, is at home suffering with a lame shoulder.

Isaac Miller of Miller's station, is building a barn 100x30 feet, with 16-foot sheds on both sides. It will be used for a stock barn. The Grange picnic at Jefferson was a decided success. Col. Woodford's great speech for prohibition was a most unanswerable and convincing argument.

On the evening of the 18th, your humble servant met Rev. J. W. Gray of Salem, at Miller's station, at 7 o'clock, and proceeded to Miller's school house, a short distance from the station, where we were soon joined by Rev. H. P. Webb and Dr. G. W. Gray of Albany, and a good audience to whom the Rev. Webb discoursed on the Prohibitory Amendment, for some two hours, when the meeting ended by organizing a Prohibition League, with H. Farwell, president; E. T. Fisher, vice-president; Miss Etta Stratton, secretary. Misses Stratton, Fisher and Farwell were appointed committee on program.

The League will meet the 28th of July. We predict a good work by this League. E.

Col. George Woodford. Col. George Woodford suddenly appeared on the platform at a crowded audience at The Dalles, and as suddenly the magnetism of the man was felt.

"To your feet, and sing out!" resounded from his commanding service while he gave the loudest example himself, and the roof of the M. E. church echoed back the inspiring words.

"And crown him Lord of all!" Col. Woodford has a commanding presence; he is a noble looking man, his voice and manner is telling, and he perfectly understands the art of gradually interesting his people, captivating them first and then capturing them for the cause he loves. On don't reckon time while hearing Col. Woodford speak. It goes as an evening bell when you find from one to two whole hours fled, and you are not aware of having drawn more than one whole breath the while he speaks without notes, and hot from the heart.

The sequences of his arguments, each perfect in itself, are only broken by the numerous anecdotes, that nobody man, to enjoy better than the Colonel himself everything that he deals with is real, fun and all.

When he comes to this county let the country folks roll up in waves to hear him talk.

To obtain Col. Woodford's services address, Mrs. H. R. Briggs, State President W. C. T. U. corner Front & Wood streets Portland.

State News.

The shipments of wool from the vicinity of Elkton and Scottsburg, this season are probably the finest quality produced in Douglas county.

The Tribune says the stench in the Pendleton city jail is so strong that it is actually pulling the iron bars from their fastenings.

The Malheur and Harney lakes were formerly separated by a large sand reef, but it is now said that owing to a break made in the reef they are united and said to be denominated as one lake.

Young peaches are so numerous in the orchards of Ashland that the owners are obliged to pick them off to save the trees from breaking.

Property in Klamath county is rapidly increasing in value. Last year the assessment roll showed $750,000, this year it will foot up $1,000,000.

Another skeleton was found Tuesday morning by the workmen on the Brunson ditch. Baker county. Many riding relics were found in the gravel, such as beads, arrowheads, etc., which leads to the belief that both were Indian skeletons.

Stockmen are more inclined to decrease their stock on the range, this year than formerly, says the Baker City Democrat. They see the necessity of devoting more care to their herds, and also are beginning to understand when they are receiving a fair price for their commodity.

Extensive coal croppings have been found on the west bank of John Day river. If it should prove to be of value it will be a great blessing to this section, which is quite barren of wood, and would furnish a means for the farmers to secure fuel at a reduced rate from present cost.

The new court house for Malheur county is completed, the iron cells for the jail have been received and will be placed in position immediately, and a fire proof vault has been built for the safe keeping of records. In the making of these improvements enough has already been done to make the county for the same, and the new county starts out on the principle of "pay as you go."
