NEURALGIA."

Nerves .- Everyone of the thread-like nerves has each a latent power to cause excruciat-ing pain, the limit of which is simply the limit of human endurance, and NEURALDIA has a few of these fibrous torments all puls-ing painfully at once.

CHARACTERISTICS. CHARACTERISTICS. Subtlle Pain.—Nothing is so subtlle in its approach; nothing so flagrant, acute and distressing, and certainly nothing yot dis-covered so completely subdues its ravages and so permanently conquers its pangs as that above mentioned.

SYMPTOMS. symptoms.—Neuralgia is defined to be a nerve disease, the chief symptom of which is an acute pain, intermitting, which fol-lows the course of the nerve branch affected. TREATMENT.

Treatment.—Apply Sr. JACOBS OIL frequent-ly, gently rubbing the afflicted parts; apply to the whole extent of the nerve soreness; keep up a gentle friction until a burning sensation is produced.

The Weight of a Fly. James Spencer hit on a novel way to get at the approximate weight of a fly.

His store is greatly pestered with flies, and he recently brought into use the
