

FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1888.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE

Dr. Mark Hayter, Dentist, Lebanon. Grand 4th, of July Ball, at Lebanon. Tickets including supper for the 4th, of July Ball, at the St. Hotel, $1.50.

The Woodruff Orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the 4th, of July Ball, at Union Hall.

Z. T. Bryant, Dr. Lamberson, A. R. Cyrus and D. Andrews went to Portland Tuesday, as witnesses in the U. S. Court.

There will be a grand ball at Union Hall on July 4th, 1888. The dance will be under the able management of M. D. Wheeler.

If you want nice marble work for ornament, or a first class job of monumental marble, call on M. N. Kock opposite the Bevere House, Albany.

Mr. L. A. Harmon and Mrs. Pillsbury, father and sister of our barber Charlie Harmon, both of Roseburg, are visiting in our town this week.

We call the attention to the ad of W. Fortmiller & Co., wholesale and retail dealers in furniture in Albany. They have a large and select stock of everything in their line, at rock bottom prices.

Patience is always crowned with success. This rule is without any exception. It may not be a splendid success, but patience never takes anything in hand that it does not succeed with in some form.

Judge Otto Lubker, of Sweet Home, was in town Monday, he wears the judicial robe with grace and dignity. Some judges make them walk a chalk line, and how them down with large slices of Blackstone and Kent.

The town of Argentine, Kansas, is in trouble. The public records were left in the mayor's office. A bill got entered and ate them up. His owner offered the goat to file away in place of the lost charter and ordinances.—Ex.

The Lash Bitters Company gave a musical entertainment on the street last evening which was very good. They also gave an entertainment at the Band Hall which surpassed anything of the kind we have seen for a long time.

We are sorry that our correspondence from Crawfordville and Waterville crowded out this week as the forms were already made up when they arrived owing to our printers desiring to attend the Fireman's Tournament at Portland.

Montague will continue his Cash Clothing Sale through next week as the late rains have prevented many from taking advantage of it. Bear in mind that this sale will positively close one week from Saturday night. It is only for the benefit of Cash and Produce buyers.

We are glad to report that all the cases of scarlet fever at Seaside are convalescent, and Dr. Foley informs us that he thinks there need be no more uneasiness about it. We rely on what Dr. Foley reports, and we think visitors need have no apprehension whatever in going to this favorite and popular resort.

The installation of Rev. G. W. Gibbons, will take place in the Presbyterian church on Monday the 25th, beginning at 8 o'clock P. M. Several ministers, from different parts of the state, will be present to take part in the interesting services. All who attend will be pleased and interested, and we bespeak a general attendance of all our citizens.

We have reliable information of several families who will soon be in Lebanon, from the east, some from Tennessee, some from Kansas and some from Texas. We bid them one and all, a hearty welcome, and can say from personal experience, that they will find a kind, generous and hospitable people.

Some of our friends are terribly afflicted with the cold or blues over the continued wet weather, come cheer up, the sunshine will come leaping and skipping, the harvest bells will tinkle and jingle and all go merrily and cheerily in the right time. A better hand, a wiser head and a kinder heart than yours or mine guides the wind and weather.

Miss Vina Miller, of Seio, is convalescing from The Present Conflict of Science with Religion. This is a grand, good book, full of profound truths, rich in research in the wonderful works of God. It conveys to the reader a wonderful fund of pleasing information on the great issue of the conflict of Science with Religion. We heartily commend the book to the careful attention of our readers.

We return thanks for a copy of a large pamphlet on the Resources of Oregon, published by Frank C. Baker, state printer. The book contains much valuable information and exceeds any of the kind we have ever seen. It certainly reflects great credit on the place and part of the compiler. By the way, this would be a grand emigration document to send east, coming as it does from so high authority. The mechanical work is unexceptionally good.

By the death of Emperor Frederick the German nation has lost a "gigantic master" of liberal ideas, humane instincts and devoted patriotism. A hero in war, he was doubly so in peace and upon his death-bed his fortitude lifted him far beyond mere nobility of birth in the hearts of his people and made his memory dear for time and eternity, notwithstanding the brevity of his reign and his suffering from the day of his father's death to his own passing away.

In the last few days we have received many letters of inquiry from the east concerning Oregon, and Linn county in particular. We can only answer their letters in a general way, and in many instances guessing at what is right. We propose to the time honored citizen, to any and all who are interested in the development of the country to adopt some mode by which we can better advertise this section. The Express will gladly and heartily cooperate with our fellow citizens in any move in this direction. We need an emigration committee. We need to establish our own immediate section. It

Notes From Newberg.

Ed. Express: I thought I would write a letter to my many friends through your paper. I was on my trip two weeks ago and made my first trip; it was a very pleasant work, and I am much pleased with it. I was down two days with what the Dr. called bronchitis but did not enjoy that very much, but I am better now.

Newberg is a very nice little town with about 175 or more inhabitants. They have an academy here which is in a flourishing condition; its standard of scholarship is as high as any other school of the same kind in the state, and is managed by good christian people whose past record as a church is not to be surpassed; that is the Society of Friends or Quakers; and I would say that if any parents want to send their children to a school where there are no saloons nor never will be, then send them to the Newberg Academy.

Our church will have a communion at Byerly's Mill on the Luckiamute River, beginning June 19, and I would be glad to have as many of my friends there as possible, and we will have a good time worshipping the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

State Teachers' Association.

The State Teachers' Association will be held at Salem, July 5th, 6th and 7th, 1888. The Association will convene in the legislative hall, capitol building, at 10 a. m. on Thursday, July 5. All teachers and friends of education are cordially invited. The Collegiate Association will meet in the senate chamber, capitol building, at 2 p. m., Thursday July 5; also at the same time and place, Friday, July 6. The presence of all members of colleges and universities to the state is earnestly desired.

The department of superintendence will be organized by the several county and city superintendents, and will meet in the office of the superintendent of public instruction at 4 o'clock p. m. on Thursday, July 5, and the department of music will convene in the legislative hall at the same hour. The hotels of Salem will entertain those attending, during the days of the Association, at reduced rates. Arrangements have been made with the O. & C. R. R., the O. P. R. R., and the W. V. Ry. (narrow gauge) companies for reduced rates to all attending, and the usual reduction will be granted. Several State Superintendents of Public Instruction, and other leading educators from the eastern states and several of the territories, have been invited and are expected to be present.

To Whom it May Concern.

EDITOR LEBANON EXPRESS: Dear Sir:—I would esteem it a great favor, if you will allow me a few lines in your valuable paper as I wish to set myself right before my many friends and scholars in this county and elsewhere, in regard to certain scandal that has been going around about me. It came through a meeting of the Ladies Aid Society—by one of its members saying that I made a living in Portland by furnishing music for houses of questionable repute; that the same was told by a drummer from Portland, who was here at the time. That it was done to permanently injure me, cannot be disputed, and it is no credit to the one that repeated such a scandalous report. In duty to myself, as well as to the ladies who were present the afternoon the malicious lie was uttered, I will present any one of them with a free ticket to Portland to go and see for themselves the correctness of this report, and will also give another free ticket to bring the drummer here and say so publicly, "He is a dirty miserable coward who will stab behind a man's back. I have been teaching music for the past twelve years on the Pacific coast and I challenge any living soul to say that I ever made such a living, and I hope and trust I never will. Respectfully,

W. G. LANGSFORD.

I will be very thankful to any one in this town who can furnish me with any information of any person who started these lies, for a more outrageously and cowardly scandal was never circulated on a more innocent person. W. G. L.

OFF FOR PORTLAND.—The Lebanon Hose Company No. 1, start for Portland Thursday to enter the contests in the prize tournament 23d, 24d., Our boys "pulled for the shore," winning first prize last year and second prize two years ago, a vigorous effort will be made to maintain the prestige of the past, and add new laurels in the present contest. The company is well drilled, well managed, and with plenty of "stock in trade," of hose, sinew, muscle and vim, we feel confident that they will bring back fresh honors from the field of contest. Portland has offered liberal prizes, made ample arrangements for all contesting companies, and will doubtless royally entertain all visitors. We hope the young gentlemen will have an enjoyable trip, brim full of mirth and good fellowship. "Leaving in contest, no blot on their name and come home entwined with laurels of fame."

ATTENTION.—We call the attention of our Lebanon merchants, again to the fact, that our subscription list is rapidly increasing (is nearly double what it was when we took charge of this office) which is no idle boast, as our books are open for inspection. We are here to stay, and we propose to do our best to build up its material interest of Lebanon and all its surrounding country. Some of our enterprising business and tradesmen are advertising liberally, for which we are grateful, while others are withholding their patronage. In this weeks paper there are three new advertisements from the neighboring town of Albany, where live merchants see the advantages of our columns. There were three more applications from the same place, that we were unable to accommodate. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

SYMPATHY.—We extend our heartfelt sympathy for the fellow in town whose best girl went square back on him last week, come J—cheer up, you have not lost anything but the money you paid out for license; "better fish in the sea than any that has been caught," at least that is the comfort they extended us.

TOLD BY CORRESPONDENTS

Messrs. Adams, Melroe, Stenger & Co. are much pleased with the assay made from quartz taken from their mine the "Gold Lash," which from cropping, gave good results in silver and gold.

At the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, South Brownsville, on Sunday last, the Rev. Martin Hickman, held Sabbath services to a large attendance.

J. M. Moyer, returned from Portland on Saturday.

During the past week, a valuable cow, the property of J. M. Waters, gained access to the feed bin, indulging in the "luxuries of this life" to such an extent, that she passed away, joining the great cow majority.

J. A. Bishop, who was in attendance at Portland, of the Masonic Grand Lodge, returned home on Saturday.

The late rains have caused a slight rise in the Calapooia river, Moyer Bros. have a driving gang at work and will secure some fine logs.

Our Heavenly Father, in his wise providence, having removed from us our beloved daughter Lula Frances, we the undersigned, tender our most sincere thanks to those kind friends and neighbors, who during the sickness of our departed child, rendered many kind acts and assistance, and to those who during the hour of our bereavement extended sympathy and condolence.

EDITH THOMPSON.

R. N. THOMPSON.

Dowdall Lodge No. 16, K of P, of this place, during the past week, elected the following officers, to serve during the ensuing term:—Willis Powell, C. C.; F. Hancock, V. C.; W. D. McFie, Pres.; J. N. Waters, M. of A.; S. P. Barger, delegate to Grand Lodge, meeting at Portland, Oct. next.

Our friends at Waterville are making preparations for a grand time on the 4th. There is no better place in Oregon to have a first class celebration than Waterville, the grounds, the mineral water and scenery, all combine to make one of the loveliest spots in the world. We understand that the L. O. O. F. have been invited to take the management of the occasion and if this noble order undertakes the matter it will prove a success beyond a doubt. We understand that the Albany band will make the music for the occasion. Everybody invited. All bring a well filled basket.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Our enterprising merchant, T. C. Peebler in company with Harry Simms, have bought out the well-known and popular St. Charles Hotel, and will conduct the business under the name and style of T. C. Peebler & Co. We bespeak for them a liberal share of patronage.

CHURCHILL.—Is selling farm implements and machinery away down yonder, and if you don't believe it, just go and see for yourself, that's what's the matter.

4TH, OF JULY.—Crawford will give another one of those popular parties at the Lawson Dancing Academy, on Wednesday evening, July 4th, 1888. Musicians from Portland will be added to his justly celebrated orchestra, in elegant supper will be served, and no pains will be spared to make this the most social event of the season.

DOING WELL.—Our young friend Chicade who met with so serious an accident last week is doing well, under the efficient management of Dr. Courtney.

NEW COMEL.—An unusually broad smile has been playing on the face of Lyle Parker for several days; on inquiry, it was learned that a fine ten pound girl was the cause.

The following beautiful lines was furnished the Express by a friend. We trust this sublime and heroic answer, will find a sweet lodgment in any woman's heart, and we hope the dear girls will bravely guard their hearts against all false intruders.

A WOMAN'S ANSWER.

"Do you know you have asked for the costliest thing Ever made by the hand above? A woman's heart and a woman's life—And a woman's wonderful love!"

"Do you know you have asked for this priceless thing

As a child might ask for a toy? Demanding what others have died to win,

With the reckless dash of a boy?"

"You have written my lesson of duty out

Man-like you have questioned me; Now stand at the bar of my woman's soul,

Until I shall question thee."

"You require your mutton always hot;

Your socks and your shirts be whole; I require your heart to be true as God's stars,

And pure as His heaven your soul."

"You require a cook for your mutton and beef,

I require a far greater thing, A seamstress your wanting for socks and for shirt,

I look for a man and a king."

"A king for the beautiful realm called home,

And a man that the Maker God Shall look upon as he did the first

And say 'It is very good!'"

"I am fair and young, but the rose will fade

From my soft young cheek one day— Will you love me then 'mid the falling leaves, As you did 'mid the blooms of May?"

"Is your heart an ocean so strong and deep

I may launch my all on its tide? A loving woman finds heaven or hell

On the day she becomes a bride."

"I require all things that are grand and true,

All things that a man should be; If you give this all, I would stake my life To be all you demand of me."

"If you cannot be this—a laundress and cook

You can hire, and a little to pay; But a woman's heart and a woman's life Are not to be won that way."
