

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Brownville is to have a chair factory. J. S. Courtney, M. D., physician and surgeon.

For cholera morbus use Oregon Electric Relief. Attend the prayer meeting. It might do you good.

There is not a woman in the State penitentiary. We are sorry to learn that Miss Hattie Kendall is very sick.

Thompson & Overman, the leading harness dealers, Albany. To Beard & Yates for your school books and school supplies.

Frank R. Alexander, of Eugene, was in town several days this week. Mr. Geo. Willis has moved back to Lebanon from near Sweet Home.

Mr. H. C. Klepper and family have moved from Brownville to Lebanon. Miss Sadie Williams commenced teaching school at Waterloo last Monday.

The largest stock of harness and saddles in the valley at Thompson & Overman's, Albany. If you know anything that would be of interest to the readers of THE EXPRESS, drop in and let us know of it.

All kinds of blacksmithing done by Jos. Harbin. Wood and lumber taken in exchange for work. All work warranted.

Communion services were held at the First Presbyterian church last Sunday. Rev. I. Carleton delivered an interesting discourse.

Martin Werts, an old resident of Linn county living at Tagent, died Sunday of heart disease, aged 70 years, 11 months and 3 days.

A man was on the street two days this week with a wheel of fortune, and some of the boys are now well supplied with lead pencils and brass jewelry.

A few days ago the barn of Mrs. Love, near Harrisburg, caught fire from an engine and was burned to the ground, with a loss of several hundred dollars.

Mr. T. P. McKnight brought us a mammoth cabbage of the Norwich variety that weighed 27 1/2 pounds. He says he has many more just like it going to waste.

J. F. Venner was on the street Tuesday selling Oregon Electric Relief, a medicine of his own discovery and manufacture. It is said to be a good remedy for all pains.

Mrs. Albertina Kriesel, of Harrisburg, made an assignment October 3 to I. R. Dawson, of Merchants' Protective Union of Portland. Assets, $1500; liabilities, $2251 65.

The union Sabbath school exercises held at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening were interesting and instructive, and were listened to by a large and attentive audience.

Mr. Will Klette arrived here Monday from Tacoma, W. T., where he went to take a position as engineer on the N. P. R., but got hurt in a runaway accident and came home.

A boy about 12 years old took a fit while holding a horse in front of Joe Harbin's blacksmith shop on Wednesday. Mr. Harbin carried him in the shop and poured water on him, which restored him.

Wm. Page, who shot and killed Wm. Brown at Burns, Or., was discharged from arrest at the preliminary examination, the evidence all tending to show the homicide was committed in self-defense.

Oregon has more trotting horses of the 220 class, according to her population, than any state in the Union. The authority for this statement is the editor of Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, the great sporting journal.

Some of our townsmen offered to put up a forfeit and take the $1000 bet which Mr. Churchill offered to make, but he would not put up. But there was another Harrison man in town this week who wanted to bet $1000, and it was not taken.

The Willamette Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church will meet in Brownville on Thursday before the third Sabbath of October. Rev. E. G. McLean, of Walla Walla, W. T., will preach the dedicatory sermon on Sunday at 11 o'clock. The public generally is invited to attend.

Rails have been laid twenty-eight miles east of Albany on the Oregon Pacific. The contract was let Monday for building the tunnel, which will be worked during the winter. It is thought that fifty miles of rails will be laid down east of Albany before work ceases, besides some grading beyond.

Ore Thompson was severely hurt last Tuesday while working with the steam wood saw. A crooked vine maple stick was caught by the saw and thrown with great force, striking Mr. Thompson on the upper lip, knocking him down and cutting a gash clear through, and broke a couple of his teeth.

The steam saw mill which Myers & Hyatt are putting in on the Oregon Pacific railroad across the river south from Mehama is nearly ready for operation. They have a contract for 300,000 feet of square timber, and have placed the mill on the thirty-acre tract of land from which they expect to cut timber.

Three weeks ago an Astoria man taught his dog, a very finely bred, well-behaved setter, to chew tobacco. Now the dog comes into the house by the back door, never scrapes his feet on the mat, is careless at his meals, gets bers in his tail, goes with a lower grade of dogs, and it is feared that he is beginning to take an interest in politics.

M. J. Monteith, formerly of the firm of Churchill & Monteith of this place, has opened a bargain house in Albany, where he has gathered together a splendid assortment of staple and fancy dry goods, groceries, boots, shoes, hats, clothing and crockery, which he is selling at cost. He will be pleased to meet his former customers in his new quarters.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Swan is convalescent.

The best harness and low prices at Thompson & Overman's, Albany. Miss Fannie Hackleman, of Albany, is visiting friends in town this week.

The recent smallpox case west of Millers station cost Linn county over $400. Several hop growers of Brownville have refused 20 cents per pound for hops.

Mr. Blackman, one of Albany's leading druggists, was in town one day this week. Mr. M. A. Miller now resides at the house formerly occupied by Mr. A. C. Churchill.

Miss Belle Kirkpatrick left this morning for Salem to attend the Willamette University. The Democrat says the O. P. machine shops will be built at Albany in all probability next year.

Mr. C. H. Harmon is confined to the house by sickness, and Ben Kirk has charge of the barber shop. Mr. D. Hart has bought Mr. Scenlan's place and moved into town. Mr. Scenlan moving to the country.

Mr. Jas. Davidson is fixing up the house formerly occupied by Mr. E. E. Montague and will soon move into it. The time for holding Sunday school at the Cumberland Presbyterian church has been changed from 10 o'clock A. M. to 3 o'clock P. M. Everybody invited.

The annual tax levy for the ensuing year was made Wednesday by the board of county commissioners, the levy being fixed at 15 mills. The wheat market is firm in Albany at 75 cents. Little, comparatively, is being sold, although the advance to this figure has caused some of it to move.

For any pain use Oregon Electric Relief. It will cure you. You will find it at Miller's drug store, who keeps a splendid assortment of drugs, patent medicines and druggists' sundries.

The Big 4 minstrels, composed of four little darkeys, gave a performance to a good house last evening at the band hall. It does seem our people ought to find a better place to spend their time and money.

A. C. Churchill and wife left this place last Tuesday morning for Portland. He has not learned what Mr. Churchill intends doing. It was reported that he was going on to New York, but we know as to the truthfulness of the report.

The camp-meeting at Philomath for the past three weeks under the leadership of Prof. Jones and wife, has ceased its labors. The professor has stripped his traps and tabernacle and will tackle the wicked in the Waldo hills, Marion county.—Corvallis Times.

Some fient put a bottle of strychnine in a spring of water near Philomath, recently, and now the indignant citizens of that place offer a reward of $100 for the apprehension of the wretch. The spring was one from which water was used for camp-meeting purposes.

An exchange says: "Don't judge a man by the clothes he wears. God made one and the tailor the other. Don't judge a man by his family, for C. in belonged to a good family. Don't judge a man by his failure in life, because many a man is too honest to succeed."

The total taxable property in the county this year is $5,445,964, which is $59,106 less than last year, a fact not due to the depreciation of property, which on the contrary has been generally raised, but to the withdrawal of foreign mortgage money and considerable of the school fund.

Newspaper libel suits are becoming fashionable and are being quite generally worn. They are not usually very expensive to the editor, as he gets them for advertising. The Mercury, Sitings, Seattle Post-Intelligencer and California Alta have each been covered with one of these sensational suits.

A Violent Animal. Frank Crabtree and Henry Cyrus, of the Forks, were up on the headwaters of Crabtree creek last week, when they killed an old bear and two cubs. When they brought them into camp a mare, one of their team, caught the bear scent, which seemed to madden her. Mr. Crabtree on passing her received a kick on the leg, which knocked him down, but broke no bone. When they returned home and went to unhitch the mare she seemed as madly vicious as at first. Fletcher Crabtree, an old gentleman 75 years old, took the animal and led her into the barn, when she reared and struck him twice in the face and once on the crown of the head, knocking him down. He was picked up and carried into the house, where he remained unconscious for more than an hour, but finally was restored to consciousness, when it was found that no bones were broken.

Cut His Own Throat. Monday morning about 6 o'clock C. F. McCormac, a patient in the insane asylum at Salem, entered the room of an attendant and asked for a sheet of paper. While the attendant's back was turned McCormac stole a razor hanging in a case on the wall. Two hours later he entered the water closet, saying as he opened the door, "Send for a doctor." He closed the door and sat down in the closet and cut his throat from ear to ear, making four or five gashes. McCormac had been in the asylum three years. He was formerly a lawyer of Portland, and was a son of Rev. Mr. McCormac of Astoria. His remains were shipped to Eugene Wednesday for burial.

Another Soda Spring. Mr. W. R. Findley, of Findley soda springs, called on us Wednesday. He informed us that a new soda spring was discovered on his place by Tom Davis and party of Salem. It is a good big spring 200 yards from the house, and he intends to bring it to the camp ground in terra cotta pipes. Mr. Findley says it is the biggest spring and the water is colder and stronger than any other spring in the country. There has been a great number of visitors at his place this summer. He is prepared to give patent baths with hot or cold mineral water.

BROWNVILLE.

"How's your arm?" Born, September 23, to the wife of Silas Powell, a son. Mrs. James Willson is suffering from an attack of bilious fever.

Born, September 20, 1888, to the wife of Charles Younger, a son. Joseph Humm returned from Puget Sound during the past week. Charles Smith arrived in town from Princetown during the past week.

Mr. Lewis, of Corvallis, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. James Willson. Mrs. C. H. Cable and infant son returned home on Saturday from Scio. Rev. J. C. Baker held Sabbath services at the Baptist church on Sunday last.

Frank C. Stanard is attending the fall term of the State University at Eugene. Charles Bishop, wife and family, of McMinnville, are visiting the family of Thos. Kay, Sr.

C. E. Stanard has sufficiently recovered from his late attack of illness to again be on the streets. George Dodson and L. Coshaw arrived on Monday from Crook county. They bring with them a band of horses.

Mrs. E. Sperry and family, who arrived here during the past week, will, in the future, make their home in Brownville. On Tuesday the Warm Spring Indians, who have finished hop picking, passed through town on their way home to the reservation.

At the North Brownville city hall on the evening of Thursday, the 27th inst., the "Original Plantation Co." gave an entertainment to a good house. John Moore and family, late of Harrisburg, have, during the past week, moved into the residence of Wm. Cox, which they have rented for the coming year.

R. Bradley, late of Idaho, has rented the house of Mrs. Fomer for his family, and will also rent and operate the blacksmith shop at present occupied by J. A. Bishop. At the North Brownville city hall on Saturday evening the Warm Spring Indians gave an entertainment, consisting of songs, dances, etc. They were in full war costume and paint.

Jacob Mayer, of Portland, Grand Master of A. F. & A. M. of Oregon, paid an official visit to Brownville lodge No. 36 on the 28th inst. R. C. Ramsby, of Silverton, was also in attendance. Mr. Hayden, foreman of the bridge carpenters in the employ of the Oregonian railway company, who received some severe injuries from a falling timber, is sufficiently recovered to be on the street.

"An old timer" says the arrival of the U. S. mail, as it arrives at the present time, put him in mind of an ancient and time-worn game called the "thimble rig," sometimes you catch it and more times you do not—mostly not. J. A. Bishop and family will shortly remove from town to the Pickings farm, Mr. Bishop having leased the place for the next year. He has disposed of his interest in the blacksmith shop to Mr. Bradley, late of Wood river.

The picnic given on Saturday last in Washburn's grove at South Brownville by the combined Sabbath schools of this place, was well attended, and although the sky was cloudy and the atmosphere somewhat chilly, all present seemed to have an enjoyable time, and heartily appreciated the "good things," the supply of which seemed inexhaustible.

The ladies of the South Brownville Cumberland Presbyterian church, on the evening of Saturday, gave a basket festival to a large attendance. The baskets, which were handsomely ornamented and filled with delicacies, were sold at auction to the highest bidder, and brought, in many instances, high prices, realizing for the church fund a liberal amount of money.

The North Brownville school, which has commenced its fall term, is well attended, many of the children who were engaged in hop picking during the opening week having put in an appearance. The primary department is under the tuition of Miss Hattie Brown, who has given general satisfaction during the two past years, and is now commencing her third year tuition in this school, and has under her charge pupils numbering sixty.

THE LEBANON EXPRESS containing a description of Brownville was received this week, and "filled the bill," giving general satisfaction. Over 500 extra copies were subscribed for, making the subscription list for Brownville alone over 600 copies. The management of the paper have shown great energy in the production of this "extra," not only in giving the Brownville public a wide-spread and elaborate advertisement, but also furnishing general information for the benefit of those in the eastern and more distant localities.

On Friday night at 9 P. M., while the sky was perfectly clear and the stars shining brightly, flashes of lightning were observed in the south. In a very few moments a long black cloud, heavy and low in the center, with arms extending from east to west passed over town at a high rate of speed, giving forth vivid flashes of lightning, accompanied by heavy thunder. This was followed by a whirlwind of startling force, the buildings in its direct course being considerably shaken, and in some instances swaying from side to side.

T. S. PILLSBURY. The reports show that the O. & C. road has been run at a loss for the year ending September 1. It is said the Southern Pacific company expected a loss for a year or two, to be followed by its becoming one of its best paying lines upon the complete settlement of Oregon.

A conductor poked his head in the door of a car and called out the name of the station, "Sawyer," whereupon a young man upon his wedding tour, who was about to kiss his bride, yelled back: "I don't care if you did, sir; she's my wife."

A. L. Hart and Edna Bamford. J. W. Thompson and Rose E. Carter.

A Field Harvest.

The following paragraph is having its rounds of the press and is published with the view of pointing a moral. What is done in this line in New York can, and in days to come, will be done in the Willamette valley. We are but just beginning to learn what can be done here in the fruit line. Here is the article referred to: "Within forty miles of Rochester, N. Y., there are more than 1500 fruit evaporators, from the small farm-house dryer, of a capacity of twenty-five bushels a day, to the large steam evaporators, drying 500 to 10,000 bushels of apples each twenty-four hours. These evaporators give employment during the autumn and early winter months to at least 30,000 hands, who average from $5 to $12 a week, according to experience and usefulness."

Exciting Runaway.

Yesterday while a son of Mr. Wm. Marks was unloading wood near the residence of Rev. G. W. Giboney the team took fright at some wood that rolled down, and ran away. After running about a block the wagon partly overturned, and the doubletree coming off, let the horses go free. They brought up against a tree opposite the Cumberland Presbyterian church. The damage was slight. As the team was running away they passed very near Mr. Martin Jackson's wagon. Mr. Jackson said his team was not much frightened, but he felt like he wanted to go home.

A Cure for Diarrhoea.

Mr. J. A. Burnison, of Colburg, Montgomery Co., Ia., has found out how he can cure any case of Diarrhoea. Two of his children had the disease; for about six weeks he tried four different patent medicines without benefit, but he finally got hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which he says completely cured them, and is confident it will cure any case when the plainly printed directions are followed. Sold by M. A. Miller.

Fruit Trees.

Call on A. R. Cyrus & Co., agents for J. H. Settlemier's nursery, for all kinds of fruit and ornamental trees.

Maria, Mrs. Elsie Bedell, Frank Noble, Mrs. Arizona Craft, Mrs. Charles A. Binkor, Mrs. E. H. Frailey, E. C. Vaughn, Mr. James Foster, Mrs. Mary Vaughn, J. A. Boyle, Mr. J. G. Yandry, James Persons calling for these letters will please say "advertised." J. H. P. HOPK, P. M. Notice. All persons knowing themselves owing us will please make arrangements to settle, as we need the money in our business. Yours truly, ANDREWS & HACKLEMAN. Wanted. We will pay 50 cts. per roll for choice butter. THOMPSON & WATERS, Brownsville, Oregon. Ague cannot be permanently cured until the system has been thoroughly cleansed of all morbid matter. Quinine and other febrifuges will check it temporarily, but it is sure to return unless the system has been cleansed. For this purpose there is nothing better than St. Patrick's Pills. They not only physic, but thoroughly cleanse the entire system and will, in most cases, prevent ague and like malarial diseases if used as soon as the first symptoms appear. Sold by M. A. Miller. Harness and saddles at Thompson & Overman's, Albany. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT I WILL not be responsible for any debts contracted by my son, J. C. Findley. W. H. FINDLEY, October 3, 1888. Save the Children. They are especially liable to sudden Colds, Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. We guarantee Ayer's English Remedy a positive cure. It saves hours of anxious watching. Sold by J. A. Beard, Druggist. Day and Night. During an acute attack of Bronchitis, a ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows. This disease is also attended with Hoarseness, and sometimes Loss of Voice. It is liable to become chronic, involve the lungs, and terminate fatally. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral affords speedy relief and cure in cases of Bronchitis. It controls the disposition to cough, and induces refreshing sleep. I have been a practicing physician for twenty-four years, and for the past twelve, have suffered from annual attacks of Bronchitis. After exhausting all the usual remedies, I was finally Cured by Using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It effected a speedy cure.—G. Stovell, M. D., Carrollton, Miss. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy, within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases.—M. A. Root, M. D., South Paris, Me. I was attacked, last winter, with a severe Cough, which grew worse and settled on my Lungs. By night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My Cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month. After taking various remedies without relief, I was finally Cured by Using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For years I was in a decline. I had weak lungs, and suffered from Bronchitis and Catarrh. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral restored me to health, and I have been for a long time comparatively vigorous. In case of a sudden cold I always resort to the Pectoral, and find speedy relief.—Edward E. Curtis, Eastland, Va. Two years ago I suffered from a severe Bronchitis. The physician attending me became fearful that the disease would terminate in Pneumonia. After trying various medicines, without benefit, he prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved me at once. I continued to take this medicine, and was cured.—Ernest Colton, Logansport, Ind. H. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, $5.
