LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The thermometer was 79 yesterday. our streets after his illness.

Rev. G. W. Giboney and wife are at- above Sweet Home. tending Presbytery at Salem.

The circuit court docket for the October term promises to be rather small. The best harness and low prices at Thompson & Overman's, Albany. the mountains visiting this week.

Albany and Mehama on the O. P.

main in Brownsville till the 10th of Mr. Irving Henderson, of Eugene,

The largest stock of harness and sad- velopment of this coal.

man's, Albany.

tast Monday evening. Mr. M. A. Miller and wife left last Tuesday morning to attend the Mechanies' fair at Portland. Mr. Wm. Guy and wife left last Tuesday morning to attend the Me- face is seen again.

chanies' fair at Portland. John and Willie Donaca are both beard in the mornings at chapel. slek with typhoid fever, but are thought to be improving now.

Mr. Ike Conn, of Albany, is putting Miss Lelia Edwards has taken charge up a new house in the Cowan addition of the primary department. this week for Mrs. Sam Conn.

Mr. Talbott has moved his family out on his farm, but he will stay in town and help Mr. Montague.

last Tuesday morning on a business and pleasure trip to Prineville.

Peebler & Buhl have remodeled the Brownsville. We hope to see her again old wood shed that stood back of their in the school, store, and it is now a neat store house.

Mand Ralston, Ida Montague and Effic | world."

Miller. Mrs. Rice has received her fall stock forward. make extensive improvements there through the pathway of life.

this winter preparatory to receiving visitors next summer. gressing finely. Mr. Edwards has the Sodaville hotel, last Tuesday hitched patent medicines and druggists' sun- under the sidewalk and was broken

Yesterday morning Mr. R. S. Rob- places and the horses' legs were conerts our city marshal, while getting on a horse, stepped on a stick that rolled and threw him to the ground, dislocat-

E. Hearn, was around town setting up are unusually large. We trust for the and lot. the eigars; so an Express reporter was sake of his reputation and the country's James Robinett and his sister, Miss detailed to ascertain the cause. After good the weather-wise old gentleman Della, of Halsey, visited friends and an exciting chase the reporter learned is correct. that it was a brand new seven-pound girl at his house last Monday, the 8th inst. Mother and daughter doing well.

spondence from Hamilton creek last will move his family over there next Miss Viola Lame, of Halsey, is visweek, but it having no signature to it, week. He has not yet sold his stock of iting friends in this place. we did not publish it. All newspapers harness and saddles, and says he may Dr. Thompson has been quite sick make it a rule to publish no communi- stay here this winter and run his busi- since last Saturday morning. cation unless signed by the writer. ness. Mr. Roland came to this place Mr. Wilton Martin and wife, of Eu-We would be glad to have a corre- in 1856, thirty-two years ago, and says gene, were visiting here last week.

has opened a bargain house in Albany, success in his new field. where he has gathered together a splendid assortment of staple and fancy dry On Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock As I have sold my harness and sadgoods, groceries, boots, shoes, hats, there will be a meeting at the Cumber-dlery business at this place and desire clothing, and crockery, which he is selling at cost. He will be pleased to

All delegates and visitors to the prayer. The meeting will be conducted meeting of the Willamette Presbytery at Brownsville, who come on the O. & Skipworth. Everybody invited.

WILL BRING A COLONY To Locate in the "Greenhorn" Bottom

on the Santiam River. Rev. S. E. Davis, formerly pastor of he Evangelical church in Albany, Tuesday last. stated to a Herald reporter that he would leave for Pennsylvania in a few days, for the purpose of bringing out a colony to locate on the bottom lands Mr. J. J. Swan is again to be seen on along the Santiam river, in what is City on Thursday. known as the "Greenhorn" country

Mr. Davis has been corresponding in eference to the matter, and will go to wife of H. A. Stanard, a son. Elvira, Union county, Pennsylvania, where he will remain during the winter, arranging for the departure of the colony in April next. He expects forty Mr. C. B. Montague and wife are in or fifty families to join the colony, which number can readily find homes A daily train will soon run between and good land in the district named. The land is yet unsurveyed, and has ville. We are glad to learn that Miss Hat- valuable timber upon it. Mr. Davis John Barr, of Harney valley, during Fried wagered a wheelbarrow ride on the slate was removed from under the tie Kendall is recovering from her ill- states that it is their intention to erect the past week paid Brownsville friends the Presidential election, and Mr. Clay- table, there was found on it the given a furniture factory and a saw mill and a visit. J. A. Winter, photographer, will re- convert some of the timber into a mar- J. A. Winter, photographer, will re- through the streets, Mr. Fried furnish- known by their character, without any ketable product. Rich coal deposits have been discov- November. ered near the proposed location of the colony, and it is expected when a set- night. It will be here Friday and Satspent last Monday night with Mr. J. tlement of these families is effected to urday nights. direct some attention toward the dedles in the valley at Thompson & Over- This is but another step toward the development of the resources of the Mr. Elkins is putting up a new barn wild lands in the eastern portion of for F. M. Miller on the place where Linn county, which abound in wealth for the stock-raiser, the lumberman Miss Ida Montague entertained a few and the miner, and which are steadlly of her friends at her father's residence being settled by home seekers from the for Albany to attend her daughter, East and elsewhere.

ACADEMY NOTES.

Our numbers are increasing. Miss Lizzie McKinney's familiar

George Cheedle's voice once more is Frank Marks is also seen in his accustomed place.

Miss Beuna Kirkpatrick entered the musical department this week. Mrs. Chesher and Allie paid the

Mr.S. M. W. Hindman and wife left will be in school in a few weeks, dent, at present is teaching near terian and Methodist congregations.

the ground and will soon put up a liams. Mr. E. H. Barr, a former stu- of the water, which is cutting away dwelling house just east of the M. E. dent, will be in attendance at the Elite the banks. this winter. The question for debate | Hop picking in this section was fin-This office received pleasant calls is, "Resolved, that the Republican ished on Saturday last. The yield has this week from Misses Ada Miller, form of government will prevail in the been large and the product good. The

Romance in Real Life.

Some time since Mr. J. W. Wilson, of millinery goods, and we call the attention of the ladies to her "ad." in of Lebanon, made up his mind that it Tickets to Portland and return now add the spice of a bit of romance, he cert on the evening of Monday. On for $4 25, including admittance to the procured the address of an estimable Tuesday evening they performed in On last Friday evening a few of the respondence. This eventually brought laughter and abounding in negro ecyoung folks gathered at the residence a proposal of marriage, which was acof Mr. M. A. Miller, where they spent cepted by the lady, the fulfillment of Died, Oct. 6, 1888, James Hartley, several hours in social amusement. | which necessitated a journey by the aged 39 years. The death of Mr. Hart-Last Monday F. M. Miller sold at lady to far-away Oregon. She arrived ley was sudden and unexpected. On auction all the property of Louis Stif- on the Saturday evening train at Al- Friday the deceased was in good health ter, the shoemaker that left here bany, where she was met by Mr. Wil- up to 10 P. M., when he was stricken nwhile back and forgot to pay what he son. On Sunday they drove home, with congestion of the brain, and lay sixteen miles, through a heavy "Orc- in a stupor up to the time of his death, Our two schools are in active operation, churches and prayer meetings are well attended, The Express is doing well, and the world still moves

Serious Runaway at Sodaville.

Work on the M. E. church is pro- Mr. S. P. Haney, who keeps the open fire place. lathing nearly all on, and has every- his team to the wagon, and stood up dence of her father, near Brownsville, next Monday morning.

The funeral of Mr. Geo. B. McKinney, who passed from this earth Aug. 10th, will be preached at the Santiam Academy chapel, by Rev. Walton Skipworth, on the 21st of October.

For any pain use Oregon Electric Relicf. It will cure you. You will find it at Miller's drug store, who keeps a splendid assortment of drugs, patent medicines and druggists' sunpatent medicines and the wagon bed was lying on the ground. By chance he drove too close, and the wagon catching the bed, frightened the horses and caused them to spring forward, throw discussed this life. The druggist was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Miss Mary Warmouth, after years of extreme suffering from a complication of diseases, departed this life. The druggist was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Miss Mary Warmouth, after years of extreme suffering from a complication of diseases, departed this life. The druggist was attended by a large number of relatives and friends and accomplication of the wagon to grave a supplication of the wagon to grave and the wagon to grave a supplication of the wagon to grav off. The wagon was broken in several siderably bruised.

A Desirable Winter.

The "oldest inhabitant," who has ing his shoulder. He was brought been observing the weather of Oregon visiting relatives here and in the vihome and the luxation was reduced by for the past thirty years, says present indications point to a desirable winter, cinity. Martin's Magical Theater played here He says he has always noticed that Mr. J. F. Hunt moved into the V. R. Wednesday and Thursday nights. It when it rains late in the spring and Fuller house last Friday. He intends is the best that has struck this town there is considerable precipitation even to leave his family here while he works since we have been here. It will be at in June and July—as was the case this in the logging camp this winter. Brownsville Friday and Saturday season-that the following winter has Mr. Hull and family, of Brownsville, nights and at Halsey Monday and less rain than usual. There will be were in town Saturday. He brought plenty, however. He goes on to say up eighteen cows with him, which he Last Tuesday our genial agent, M. that the crops following such a winter traded to James Wilson for a house

Will Move to Prineville.

Mr. J. O. Roland has exchanged his the saw mill to Joshua Pennington, who intends to move here soon.

Mr. J. O. Roland has exchanged his property in this place with Mr. Hindman for property in Principle, and who intends to move here soon.

meet his former customers in his new the anniversary appointed by Miss and settle, as I must have my money. Frances Willard, the president, for

C. R. R. from either way, will be met Wm. Page, who killed Brown at settle up accounts and oblige. at Halsey at 1 o'clock P. M. Thursday, Burns, after being discharged by the the 18th day of October. We earnestly magistrate who held the preliminary request a full attendance of all delegates, and cordially invite the friends generally to come. We expect to have unable, so far, to find him to serve | For cholera morbus use Oregon Elec-J. R. KIRKPATRICF, Pastor. another warrant of arrest. --- tric Relief.

BROWNSVILLE. Morris Jaeger and wife left for Portland Friday. G. C. Stanard visited Albany on Eugene City. R. N. Thompson departed for Eugene

Died, Oct. 3, 1888, Miss Mary E.

Warmouth, aged 27 years. Born, Oct. 5th, at Albany, to the

Mr. Foster and family have rented the property of John Franzen. Mr. Klepper and family, during the past week, removed to Lebanon

Mrs. John Miller, nec Miss Emma Kirk, is visiting friends near Browns-main in Brownsville till the 10th of ing the motive power. Now Mr. Clay- persons holding this wee bit of pencil.

Be sure to attend the theater one arrived in town on Thursday last.

Matt Farley on Monday left for the west side division of the Oregonian Railway, in whose employ he now is:

"Esperling's Cosmorania," which exhibited in South Brownsville for the ple Justice to the splendid supper that P.), is completely a falsehood. If he past three days, was well attended and gave universal satisfaction.

Mrs. H. A. Stanard, in her present ill-and C. H. Cable have been drawn to turns of the day. serve on the circuit court jury, which convenes in Albany Oct. 22.

report a good time.

acadeiny a call Tuesday. Miss Allie Presbyterian and M. E. churches were erally are invited to attend. well attended on Sunday last, also Miss Maggie Shelton, a former stu- Sunday school by the Baptist, Presby-

Moyer Bros. are having piles driven along the banks of the Calapooia river

"noble red man" has folded his tent and rode away, gaudily appareled in many-colored blankets and happy in the possession of "hi-u chickamon."

The "Big 4," a colored troupe of wanwas not good for man to be alone, so to dering minstrels, gave an open-air conunited in the holy bonds of matri- cently received by the proprietor from a wide departure from the ordinary run of stoves, combining as it does a cooking, heating or parlor stove and kinds, either in cash or goods.

On Wednesday evening, at the resi-CRAWFORDSVILLE. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Oct. 8. Business of every kind is lively. Everybody is rejoicing on account of relatives here last Saturday and Sun-

S. P. Hale has sold his interest in spondent at Hamilton creek, and hope to receive some more items from there.

M. J. Monteith, formerly of the firm of Churchill & Monteith of this place,

J. O. ROLAND.

First Time. All persons knowing themselves in-DR. J. S. COURTNEY.

Thompson & Overman, the leading harness dealers, Albany.

PRINEVILLE NEWS.

Miss Rova Dodson returned home from Brownsville last Monday. This week Ike Ward found ready sale here for a wagon load of Webfoot seeing that you send out an invitation Wm. Cox and family have moved to apples at $1 75 per bushel. J. Hide, of John Day, passed through There was an interesting spiritual town the first of the week, en route for Harrisburg after his family, who have > been visiting in that place the past few Three wagon loads of oats came in iere from Willamette valley this week. and sold here to Jess Yancy for 75 cents per bushel. It is hardly probable that drums up customers .- Review.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's father, Mrs. A. W. Stanard on Saturday left in Lebanon, Oct. 10, by Rev. Walton John Read's farm, about three miles Skipworth, Mr. S.C. Mackey, of Brownsville, to Miss M. H. Hyde. There were have been held twice a month. As to present a few invited guests, ye editor holding our spiritual circles in the being one of the number, who did amwas presided over by Mr. and Mrs. wants to find the sure truth of spirit-Hyde. After a pleasantly spent over ing the guests departed, wishing the attend our meeting on next Sunday at W. D. Washburn, Henry Blakely newly-married couple many happy re- 11 o'clock A. M., and he may see what

The Willamette Presbytery of the Some of our young men and their Comberland Presbyterian church will "best girls," on the evening of Friday, meet in Brownsville on Thursday be-"took in" Waterloo and indulged in fore the third Sabbath of October. Rev. "tripping the light fantastic." They E. G. McLean, of Walla Walls, W. T., will preach the dedicatory sermon on Sabbath services at the Cumberland Sunday at 11 o'clock. The public gendesire to square up my books, and

J. S. Courtney, M. D., physician and forward and settle as soon as possible, as I want to square up my books, argeon.

T. C. PEEBLER.

SPRING PARM ITEMS.

SPRING FARM, Oct. 7. ED. EXPRESS-We notice you want all kinds of news for your paper, and to all to send items, we send you some meeting at Spring Farm at the residence of W. H. Cummings on Sunday, Oct. 7th, at which an audience of about forty-two were present to witness a grand time on that occasion. There were seven persons under what is called They were hauled across the Cascades Indian control from different Indian tribes, and one of them had the slate placed under a small table, and our another sale could be made at that medium, Mrs. I. M. Bruce, held one price, as oats are selling at the market end and a small bit of pencil put on top of said slate, and someone else held It will be remembered that four years the other end of the slate under the ago Messrs. J. H. Claypool and Leo table, to see what the result was when pool was the winner, getting a free ride characters by which each tribe was pool has made a wager on the coming This was done in the presence of fortyelection with J. P. Combs. If Cleve- two persons in broad day light. Now land is elected Mr. Combs is to black we would like for Mr. F. M. P. to tell boots for one hour, Mr. Claypol fur- us what compels this pencil to write nishing the customers, and if Harrison communications on the slate without Dr. W. H. Rowland, formerly a pracis elected Mr. Claypool is to be boot any persons holding the pencil, for titioner and resident of Brownsville, black for one hour, while Mr. Combs there are too many eye witnesses to see this independent spirit writing to say it is a humbug. Now we have been holding our little spiritual meetings all summer in a nice maple grove on Mr. southeast of Lebanon, which meetings dark, as stated by our opponent (F. M. ualism we advise him to be sure and true spiritualism is. Signed by

MR. JAMES VINSON, MR. JOHN CALDWELL. MRS. JENNIE CALDWELL, MR. BENJ. S. MILLS.

Notice. Having sold a half interest in my grocery business to Mr. Geo. Buhl, I ask all those indebted to me to come

Mr. Carr has got the lumber all on the call of the secretary, Melvin Wil- property, to prevent the encroachment At Cost! Still to the Front!

G. W. SIMPSON,

Mechanics' fair once. All should take advantage of this opportunity.

The City hall to a large attendance, should take advantage of this opportunity. nishing Goods, Boots, Shoes, Etc., of C. B. Roland & Co., is now prepared to offer

Having a complete assortment of General Merchandise, Mr. G. M. Westfall, of Sodaville, has leased Findley's soda springs. He will make extensive improvements there buying elsewhere, as you can save from 25 to 30 per cent. The highest market price paid for country produce of all ## thing ready to commence plastering on the running gear while he drove next Menday morning. TO ARRIVE! TO ARRIVE!

----A FULL LINE OF-

Ladies' Fine Shoes,

OF ROCHESTER, - - - - NEW YORK.

And a full line of the celebrated

Children's Shoes, Also of Rochester.

These Goods are first-class in every respect, made for us at the factory. This is the best line of goods that has ever been shown in Lebanon. We are expecting these goods daily. We carry, as usual, debted to the undersigned will please Buckingham & Hecht's Boots, Woonsocket Rubber Goods,

AND THE W. L. DOUGLAS $3.00 SHOE,

ANDREWS & HACKLEMAN.

contrail to See

THE LARGE

OF FALL GOODS RECEIVED

C. B. MONTAGUE'S

STORE THIS WEEK.

T. C. Peebler.

George Buhl.

PEEBLER & BUHL,

Better Bargains than Ever! Leading Grocers,

Lebanon, Linn County, Oregon,

HAVE A LARGE STOCK OF GROCERIES & PROVISIONS, Which We Offer for Cash at Prices That Cannot Be Beat.

Albany Flour, Red Crown, per sack White Beans, 20 lbs, Best Table Rice, 151 lbs, Best Eastern Syrup, 5 gal. kegs, 1 " cans, " Maple " 1 " " New Orleans Molasses, Savon Soap, per box, Cold Water Bleaching Soap,

Will Sell Goods at the Following Prices for the Next 30 Days FOR CASH: 1 20 Corn and Gloss Starch, 3 papers, 25 1 00 Saleratus, 4 papers, 1 00 Soda Crackers, per box, 65 1 00 2 75 Oysters, 2 lb cans, 5 for 65 Liverpool Salt, 200 lb sacks, 15 " 100 lb sacks, 00 " 50 lb sacks, 2 00 1 15 65 1 15 Tomatoes, 10 cans for 1 00 1 15 Best Tea, 1 lb can, -

THE ABOVE ARE PRICES ON A FEW LEADING ARTICLES IN OUR IMMENSE STOCK.

Call Special Attention to Scio Flour, which we Guarantee to be the Best in the State.

SATISFATION GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

HIDES, FRUIT AND ALL KINDS OF COUNTRY PRODUCE TAKEN IN EX-

CHANGE FOR GOODS.

GIVE US A CALL.

PEEBLER & BUHL.

BUY YOUR

WILLIAMS & HOYT'S Drugs and School Books FURNITURE.

OF-

THE DRUGGIST:

W. FORTMILLER & CO.,

ALBANY, - - OREGON.

Import all First-Class Goods

DIRECT FROM THE EAST.

A complete stock of Wall Paper, Decorations and Window Shades.

UNDERTAKING

A SPECIALTY.

Don't trifle with any Throat or Lung Disease. If you have a Cough or Cold, or the children are threatened with Croup or Whooping Cough, use Acker's English Remedy and prevent further trouble. It is a positive cure, and we guarantee it. Price 10 and 50c J. A. Beard, Droggist.