

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Sociable to-night. Circuit court Monday. Big frost Thursday morning. Election two weeks from next Tuesday. Plasterers are at work on the M. E. church. Mr. Wm. H. Watkinds, of Salem, is in town. Mr. J. A. Beard made a trip to Portland this week. Mr. J. M. Marks left yesterday to go over to look at the Alsea valley. About 6000 cases of salmon have been canned at Yaquina bay this season. Mr. Walton is quite sick this week with rheumatism. Mr. M. A. Miller has moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. Talbott. Our agricultural editor returns thanks to Mr. A. Sizemore for a fine large tomato. The afternoon train was about one hour behind time Wednesday and Thursday. Encourage the ladies by attending the sociable to-night and contributing your mite. Wm. Morrow has been quite sick with sore throat this week, but is able to be up now. J. A. Winter, photographer, will remain in Brownsville till the 10th of November. Miss Mattie Nixon left last Wednesday morning on a visit to friends and relatives in Portland. Mr. J. M. Ralston and wife returned home Monday night from a trip to the Mechanics' fair at Portland. Hon. R. C. Miller has moved into the house on Main street which he recently bought from A. C. Churchill. Grand Master Jacob Mayer, of Portland, paid an official visit to the Masonic lodge of Lebanon last Tuesday night. Mr. J. Houck and daughter Lizzie started across the mountains yesterday morning, where they will spend the winter. Mr. E. E. Montague, county clerk, and wife, were out to attend the funeral of their little niece, Genevieve Davidson. The "Big Four Minstrels" performed our town again and gave another performance last Saturday evening, which was well attended. A. R. Cyrus has rented Mr. Craig's building, formerly occupied by the shoemaker, and will move his real estate office therein. Mr. C. H. Harmon went to Portland Wednesday to attend the fair and accompany his wife home, who has been there several days. As winter is drawing near, it strikes us it would be well for the town council to see that the sidewalks are got in a little better shape. A. R. Cyrus has leased the Exchange hotel, and it will be run in connection with the St. Charles under the management of H. E. Parrish. The Ladies' Aid Society will give a mite sociable at the residence of Mrs. F. M. Miller this (Friday) evening. Everybody cordially invited. A petition providing for a more stringent law for the prevention of deer slaughtering for the hides is being circulated generally through the state. Miss Eva Rogers has placed some of her paintings on exhibition in the windows of M. A. Miller's drug store. She is trying to get a class at this place. The union temperance service held at the C. P. church last Sabbath evening was well attended. The service was conducted by Rev. Skipworth and Rev. Kirkpatrick. Miss Kate Chesdle entertained quite a number of her friends at her home last Friday evening. All who attended had a pleasant time, and hope to receive like invitations often. The funeral of Mr. Geo. B. McKinney, who passed from this earth Aug. 10th, will be preached at the Sautiam academy chapel, by Rev. Walton Skipworth, on October 21st. The infant son of J. M. V. and Minnie Willyeu, of Scio, died October 11, of spinal affection, after two months' illness. The burial took place Friday, Rev. B. F. Moody conducting the services. Mr. Hammer, of Spicer, sustained a severe injury by having his right arm badly lacerated with a circular saw yesterday. Dr. Courtney dressed the wound, and he will recover the use of the arm. Hon. J. D. Whitman, of Jackson county, will speak on the political issues of the day, from a Democratic standpoint, in Lebanon, Friday, Oct. 26, at 7 P. M. Ladies especially invited to attend. Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Miss Wasson went to Albany last Monday to get curtains and some other articles for the C. P. church, but could not find what they wanted, so have sent an order to Portland for the needed articles. Mr. H. Harkness, who has been staying in the hardware store of Knapp, Burrell & Co. at Albany, for several months past, moved his family to that place last Tuesday. We are sorry to have them leave, but wish them success in their new field. The Oregon Presbytery of the C. P. church will meet in Lebanon next Thursday, Oct. 25. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. T. H. Small. There will be preaching each morning and evening during the sitting of presbytery. The public generally are invited to attend all the services. M. J. Monteth, formerly of the firm of Churchill & Monteth of this place, has opened a target house in Albany, where he has gathered together a splendid assortment of staple and fancy dry goods, groceries, boots, shoes, hats, clothing, and crockery, which he is selling at cost. He will be pleased to meet his former customers in his new quarters.

Serious Runaway Accident.

An EXPRESS reporter learns from Silas Barr, who came from the McKinnon ranch, two miles above Lower Soda, Tuesday evening, that Henry McDowell and his sister, Mrs. James Cary, and her little boy, met with a severe accident on the grade three miles beyond McKinnon's, Tuesday noon. Mr. McDowell and his sister, with two or three of her children, had started to Harny valley, in company with John Barr, and Silas Barr was going to assist them to the top of Sand mountain. When they reached the above-mentioned grade, Mr. McDowell's wagon overturned and the horses ran away and the parties were thrown from the wagon. Mrs. Cary was hurt very badly in the back, and her little boy's head was badly bruised, also one arm hurt. Mr. McDowell's face was badly disfigured; the flesh was torn from the lower edge of his forehead at the end of his nose across his forehead into his hair, making a circle over his left eye, and the flesh lopped down over his eye. They sewed the flesh back as best they could, and Silas Barr hastened the unfortunate parties to Mr. McKinnon's and came back to the valley to report to their relatives near Crawfordville and get medical aid. It is not known just how bad they are injured. Mr. McDowell seemed to be in his right mind while they were sewing up his wound, but when Mr. Barr left there he seemed to be becoming unconscious.

A Surprise.

Monday evening a few of the many friends of Mrs. J. O. Roland met at her residence and surprised her with a set of silver knives, forks, teaspoons and tablespoons and butter knife. Mrs. F. M. Miller, on behalf of the donors, presented the articles with the following neat address: Dear Mrs. Roland—It is with deep and sincere regret that your many friends here in Lebanon have learned that you and your estimable family are soon to leave us and find a new home. Your presence, kindness, as well as many favors extended, have greatly endeared you to all of our citizens. Thinking that in days to come a little reminder of the years you have spent in our midst, might bring recollections of days gone by, your many friends have authorized me to present to you these small tokens to take with you to your new home. Please accept them as coming from your friends, for the many generous acts and kindness you have displayed while with us. As time rolls on may it deal gently with you and yours, in all things ever remembering that many heartfelt wishes will ever be for your health and happiness. Mrs. Roland was completely overcome, but her husband came to the rescue and made a neat response. The following named ladies contributed: Mrs. J. Burkhart, Mrs. A. E. Cyrus, Mrs. C. Hackleman, Mrs. W. Guy, Mrs. A. Harkness, Mrs. J. Blyden, Mrs. F. M. Miller, Mrs. Dr. M. Hagan, Mrs. J. M. Ralston, Mrs. C. W. Ralston, Mrs. J. Meyer, Mrs. W. Reed, Mrs. G. W. Elce, Mrs. J. Nixon, Mrs. L. Romine, Mrs. C. M. Talbot, Mrs. F. H. Rowce, Mrs. C. B. Montague, Mrs. Dr. Foley, Mrs. J. Keebler, Mrs. A. Peterson, Mrs. Dr. Hope, Mrs. C. H. Harmon, Mrs. D. Andrews, Mrs. E. Parker, Mrs. S. Roberts, Mrs. A. Roberts, Mrs. S. Stokerson, Mrs. J. Atkins, Mrs. J. Houck, Mrs. J. Hubbard, Mrs. C. H. Hunt, Mrs. G. E. Henry, Miss Griggs, Miss Nixon, Miss Roberts, Miss Armstrong.

SANTIAM ACADEMY NOTES.

We are glad to see Bird Edwards in school again. Miss Maude Ralston's familiar voice is heard in our school room once more. We suppose Mr. Chas. S. is following the plow this fine weather, and wishing for the last furrow and the beautiful rain to come, so he can make one of our number again; at least that is our wish. There were two names wrong in the notes last week. Mrs. Chesler should have been Mrs. Sturtevant, and Miss Maggie Shelton should have been Miss Maggie Sutton, unless she has changed her name lately. Mr. Longfellow, our poet of last year, has turned himself loose on bunchgrass to rhapsody. We miss his genial face and musical voice in the morning, and when the day for the Gleaner comes we are as yet obliged to have the column for poetry and statistics almost blank. ANOTHER STUDENT. Caught in a Canoe! Applegate. A few nights ago a married man living on Main street, after undressing and preparing for bed, blew out the lamp and was groping his way across the room feeling for the bed when his foot struck something cold and plant. The thing seemed to open its mouth as the gentleman put the weight of his foot upon it, and he jerked up his foot in double-quick time, while the thing held to and dangled from the toe. He did some lively dancing around the darkened room, and made a lively racket with his mouth until he succeeded in throwing the thing across the room. Then he jumped upon the table and stood there until he could light a lamp. Over near where the thing had struck the wall he saw his wife's hostile lying on the floor. He kicked himself a few times and went to bed, but his wife kept awake an hour laughing at him.

Who Can Beat It?

Mr. Jonathan Wasson has raised about 200 bushels of potatoes of the Burbank seedling variety on one quarter of an acre of fresh land near the mill. They are fine large potatoes and there is scarcely a damaged or rotten one among them. THE EXPRESS returns thanks for a large donation from this potato patch. Now that potatoes are cheap and plenty is no reason that every bushel should not be carefully housed and taken care of. In all probability they will command a handsome price before spring; the crop in California is short, besides there will be a considerable demand in the East. Already the jobbing merchants are shipping car loads East. Farmer friends, take care of your potatoes.

Death of a Bright Little Girl.

It is with sadness that we chronicle the death of little Genevieve Davidson, daughter of Jas. and Clara M. Davidson. She was taken sick on Sunday and died Wednesday morning. She was a bright and beautiful child, aged 3 years, 5 months and 1 day. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community. Mrs. Davidson is a daughter of C. B. Montague. The funeral took place Thursday at 2 P. M. Services were conducted by Rev. G. W. Giboney, assisted by Dr. Pettigrew, of McMinnville. The beautiful white casket, covered with flowers, was borne to the cemetery by young ladies, followed by a large concourse of friends.

HAPPY HOME DISTRICT.

OCTOBER 12, 1888. J. S. Caldwell is building a portico for J. K. Charlton. You just suit us, Johnny, and we like your work, too. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cummings have returned from their valley trip, where they went to dispose of their nice lot of dried plums, which they sold at Corvallis. J. Prior's house is fast nearing completion under the management and direction of Carpenter Todd, with his efficient assistant, Green Klinder. It will, when completed, be a credit to the neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fitzwater have moved out of the neighborhood on a rented farm. Their old friends here will miss their sunny countenances, for they were both raised here. Jake and Nancy, we wish you success.

Last Sunday there was a pleasant gathering of friends at the home of W. H. H. Cummings. After the morning exercises, which were conducted by Mrs. H. L. Hardy, a bountiful repast was spread of all things eatable, of which about forty partook. Fred Sylvester having sold his place to Roe Lindley, we extend a hearty welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Lindley, and are glad to have them back in the old neighborhood. We also extend to Fred and wife our best wishes for their future, wherever their home may be. S. B. Western, at Spring Farm, is the boss gardener of the neighborhood, and you just ought to see his sweet potatoes. They are looking real nice, and refute the idea that sweet potatoes cannot be grown in Oregon soil, especially in that part known as Canada.

Father Vinson, the oldest man in the settlement, is making his home with J. S. Caldwell and lady. Although in his 81st year, he is hale and hearty, reads and writes without the use of glasses, and is superintending the management of a hundred hens this winter, quite an undertaking. We wish the old gentleman success at Mountain View Home. Some hunters, including Grant Lindley and Cornelius Klinder, shot and killed a huge black bear on Mountain View ranch this morning not more than three hundred yards from the house. The bear, which had been too free with a hog belonging to a widow lady in the neighborhood adjoining, looked rather the worse off, and fully reminded one of the old saying that the way of the transgressor is hard, and sometimes the penalty is death, as in this case. REX.

CRAWFORDSVILLE.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Oct. 15. Frost here yesterday morning. Only one vacant house in town. O. P. Abrams is having a nice woodshed put up, joining his residence. W. H. Scott went to Portland last week to lay in a winter stock of hides. Mr. Shackelford is repairing his house for J. Pennington to move into. Miss Gusie Moses visited friends in Brownsville last Friday and Saturday. G. F. Elliott is at work on A. Hull's house, getting it ready for them to move next week. Charlie Rice and sister, Miss Ina, went to Corvallis last week, where they will remain during the winter to attend school. O. P. Abrams left here last Wednesday with his logging team and crew of six men, bound for Mill City, on the line of the O. P. R. R. R. Scott and family, of California, are visiting R. C. Finley and family. Mr. Scott is a brother of Mrs. Finley, and they had not seen each other for a number of years. W. B. Glass and brother, D. H. Glass, went to Portland last Wednesday, where they remained until Saturday, when they went on up the Columbia to look at the country. George Finley, principal of the school of this place, received a telegram last Friday from Centerville that his brother was not expected to live, having typhoid fever. He dismissed school and started to see him at once. LONG HUNGRY.

BROWNSVILLE.

John Moore has purchased Wm. A. Cox's house here and moved into it from his farm near Harrisburg. Several hands have been laid off from the woolen mills here the past ten days, as business is getting dull. Wm. Stevenson was hurt by a stick of heavy timber striking him while at work with the bridge builders on the narrow gauge road, making the third man injured since work commenced. W. R. Kirk bought Joseph White's hops the past week, also a small lot from the King Bros., paying them something over $2700, or at the rate of 18 cents per pound. The Templeton Bros. have not sold their crop of hops yet, and are busy bailing. They have a big crop of prime hops on hand—Democrat.

The Wheat Swindlers Again.

The $15 a bushel wheat swindlers have again hopped up with their notes, obtained from Linn county farmers, on which they demand payment. These notes, given by about a dozen substantial farmers of the county who were swindled, aggregate about $3000. It is understood that these men will employ able counsel and vigorously defend the case. They certainly ought to do so, as the whole transaction was one of the worst swindles ever perpetrated in this vicinity, and the managers of the so-called company ought to be behind prison bars.—Herald. Eye, Ear, and Deformities. Dr. Y. J. Eaton, of the Surgical Infirmary of Indianapolis, will visit Lebanon professionally Wednesday, Oct. 24. Dr. Eaton has for the past twenty-five years made a specialty of the eye, ear, and deformities, and has straightened more than one thousand cross eyes. All inflamed and sore eyes can be cured. Artificial eyes inserted; and the most efficient braces for the cure of club feet, crooked limbs, spinal diseases, etc., furnished. Rooms at St. Charles hotel. Remember the date. First Time. All persons knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned will please settle up accounts and oblige. DR. J. S. COURTNEY.

IN MEMORIAM.

HALL OF LEBANON LODGE, No. 44, A. F. & A. M. Sept. 15, 1888. We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of condolence to the memory of our late brother, S. F. Hammer, deceased: WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great and Supreme Architect and Controller of the Universe, before Whose infinite wisdom we must humbly bow, to peacefully remove from his labors here below our esteemed and honored brother, S. F. Hammer, with whom the masonic ties which bound us in brotherly feelings were strung; therefore be it Resolved, That we most deeply mourn and regret the death of our esteemed brother, whose wise council in this lodge must be lost, and whose family as well as masonic ties are for a time severed. Resolved, That we hereby reverently bow to the mandate of the Supreme Ruler in calling for labor to refreshment; that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to those friends of the deceased who were dear to him in this great hour of bereavement. Resolved, That a page be inscribed in our book of records to the memory of our beloved brother; that the above preamble and resolutions be recorded in this lodge, and that a copy of the same be furnished to the near friends of the deceased under the seal of the lodge, and as a further memorial, that a copy be furnished to THE LEBANON EXPRESS for publication. F. M. MILLER, DR. J. S. COURTNEY, M. A. MILLER, Committee.

For any pain use Oregon Electric Relief. It will cure you. You will find it at Miller's drug store, who keeps a splendid assortment of drugs, patent medicines and druggists' sundries. All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle at once, as I need my money. M. A. MILLER. The best harness and low prices at Thompson & Overman's, Albany. J. S. Courtney, M. D., physician and surgeon.

PRINEVILLE NEWS.

Most of the sheep owners have removed their flocks from the mountains to the winter ranges. An effort is being made to form a joint stock company for the purpose of building a hotel in Prineville. Typhoid fever is raging throughout the entire county. There are about twenty severe cases in and about Prineville. A large number of beef cattle owned in this county have been sold for 2 1/2 cents per pound delivered in The Dalles. Ed Schmeer informs us he will close out his horse business in this county next spring and return to the Willamette valley. Ah Dong is the only landlord in Prineville. His taking charge of the eating department of the Cary House was evidently a case of the survival of the fittest. J. C. Hassler, who was in from Stow mountain Tuesday, reports an abundance of rain having fallen in that section recently. He says there was quite a snow storm there the last week in September.—Review. Look Here. All who are behind on subscription will confer a great favor on us by calling and paying up, as we want to put in some new machinery, and will have to collect what is behind before we can do so. Oak Posts for Sale. We have on hand 1500 of the very best oak posts, which we will sell as low as they can possibly be made for. Enquire of ANDREWS & HACKLEMAN.

A traveling man, stopping at the Le House, Campbellburg, Ind., on learning that a lady in the village was suffering terribly with cramp colic, gave the landlady a bottle of medicine which he had with him and requested her to take it to the sick woman. The medicine relieved her promptly and she believes saved her life. It was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, the promptest and most reliable medicine in use for Bowel Complaints. Sold by M. A. Miller. Thompson & Overman, the leading harness dealers, Albany.
