

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Sociable to-night. Only four days more. Remember the Presbyterian dinner on election day.

We are glad to learn that Miss Millie Davis is improving. The first steambath of the season arrived at Albany on Tuesday.

John Donaca is to be seen in his old place again after several weeks of sickness. J. A. Winter, photographer, will remain in Brownsville till the 10th of November.

Mr. Cable, of Brownsville, was in town yesterday and made this office a pleasant call.

L. J. Peterson and family moved down from the Mountain House yesterday for the winter.

We are pleased to learn that James Burtonshaw is convalescing from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

J. A. Keebler, E. B. Crouch and D. Petree went up Hamilton creek last Wednesday on a deer hunt.

Hiram N. Smead, a pioneer of 1845, died at his home in Albany last Saturday night at the age of 66 years.

Sheriff J. Smallman arrested Joel Sherry yesterday. We understand the matter was satisfactorily settled.

As winter is drawing near and we are having dark nights, it seems that street lamps would come in good place.

For sale, one thoroughbred and two graded Short Horn last spring calves. Apply to R. G. Cochran, Brownsville.

Quite a number of emigrants have come into this section during this week. There is plenty of room for a great many more.

A little sociable will be given to-night (Friday) by the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church at the residence of A. R. Cyrus.

A. R. Cyrus sold this week to Eugene Ullm, Mr. Joel Sherry's farm of 73 acres, five miles north of Lebanon. Consideration, $2000.

Gen. Lew Wallace, the author of Ben Hur, is soon to visit the Pacific coast, and will lecture at Albany if $250 is guaranteed him.

Miss Effie Miller made Eugene City a visit this week and brought her little nephew and niece, Dr. Henderson's children, home with her.

Geo. Walton, who has been working at the Mountain House, came down yesterday. He says there is not much snow in the mountains yet.

Fred V. Holman, of Portland, was advertised to speak last evening, and Hon. Geo. E. Chamberlain will speak this evening. Both are Democrats.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle at once, as I need my money.

Parties wishing to purchase desirable town lots should call on A. R. Cyrus for prices of lots in Kirkpatrick's addition. Will sell on the installment plan.

Last Saturday afternoon our office was visited by a small party composed of some of the most excellent people living in our town. Call again, kind folks.

Mr. J. A. Warner, of Albany, was out this week and surveyed Kirkpatrick's addition to the town of Lebanon. The plat can be seen at A. R. Cyrus' office.

Mr. R. Cary, of near Scio, who went back to Missouri some time since on a visit, arrived home last week in sound and hearty and heartily glad he is a citizen of this glorious Willamette valley.

Mr. Phil Ritter, a former resident of this county returned recently from Eastern W. T. and is moving into Mr. Cleaver's house. We understand he will go into the furniture business with Mr. Goan.

Mr. J. W. Jenkins and wife and one of their sons and family, of Minnesota, moved last Tuesday onto the J. W. Wilson farm, which they had recently purchased.

Parties wishing lumber will do well to give us a call. We have on hand over 1500 feet of fencing lumber.

COSHOW & CABLE, Brownsville. The Elite Literary Society of Santiam Academy has changed the evening of meeting from Wednesday night to Monday night. The members of the society will please take note of this.

A. MELVIN WILLIAMS, Sec. On last Saturday morning a little excitement was created on the street by two of our prominent citizens engaging in a little fist-cuffs. Each contributed $5 and costs to the city treasury. Even our medical fraternity is not without its shoulder strikers, which fact was clearly demonstrated that morning.

A hot dinner will be served by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church on election day, in the Montague store room, just opposite Donaca's store. Dinner from 11 A. M. to 7 P. M. Proceeds go towards purchasing a bell for the church. Price of dinner, 25 cents. The patronage of the public is solicited.

M. J. Monteith, formerly of the firm of Churchill & Monteith of this place, has opened a bargain store in Albany, where he has gathered together a splendid assortment of staple and fancy dry goods, groceries, boots, shoes, hats, clothing, and crockery, which he is selling at cost. He will be pleased to meet his former customers in his new quarters.

The following persons were in attendance at the meeting of the Oregon Presbytery here last week: Mr. Ben Ervine and wife, Mrs. J. Morris, Mrs. E. E. Pentland, Scio; Rev. A. J. Adams, wife and daughter, J. B. R. Morelock and wife, Brownsville; Wm. Henkle and Mr. Walker, Philomath. The meeting closed on Sunday evening with a very impressive and solemn service in the ordination of Rev. T. M. Rice, of Willhoit. The meeting was a very pleasant and harmonious one, and everyone seemed to enjoy it.

AN OLD LANDMARK GONE. Mr. R. S. Burkhardt departed this life on last Sunday, the 28th of October. He was one of the pioneer settlers of this county—crossed the plains in 1846 and in the fall of that year took up his donation claim four miles of this place. He was born in East Tennessee in 1817. He raised a large family, all of whom are honored and respected citizens of this county. Mr. Burkhardt was noted for his industrious and temperate habits, for his integrity and fair dealing, and by economy and good management he succeeded in accumulating a fine estate and providing well for his family. He was a true friend, a kind and hospitable neighbor, willing and always ready to lend a helping hand to the needy. He was a member of the M. E. Church South and died in peace, with an unflinching trust in his Redeemer. The funeral services were held in the Cumberland Presbyterian church on Monday afternoon, and were conducted by Elder Craig. One by one the grand old men are crossing over; one by one the summons comes to us all.

Seeing there is considerable blow being made over an election bet made by a young man and a young lady at Scio, a young man right here in Lebanon, who is not in the habit of betting on anything, desires us to announce that he would make a wager of that kind on the same terms (or more favorable if desired), to-wit: If Cleveland is re-elected the wedding to be celebrated on the 4th of March next; the day the President takes his seat; if Harrison is elected the marriage not to take place till March 4th the year following. The young man authorizes us to act for him in this matter, and any and all young ladies wishing to take this bet will please call in person or send their names to this office. The wager can be made with one only, but it is desirable that as many who are willing should apply. Later—Another young man says he is willing to make a bet of this kind.

Judges and Clerks of Election. Following are the judges and clerks in some of the precincts in Linn county for the election to be held Nov. 6: Lebanon—Jos. Nixon, R. C. Miller, J. Wasson, judges; Geo. W. Rice, D. Andrews, clerks. Brownsville—A. W. Stannard, W. P. Warmouth, W. A. Templeton, judges; T. S. Pillsbury, J. H. Waters, clerks. Crawfordville—G. F. Colbert, M. Carey, J. F. Moss, judges; Geo. Findley, W. B. Glass, clerks. Sweet Home—John Donaca, J. W. Gilliland, Wm. Rumbaugh, judges; M. E. Simmons, H. C. Moran, clerks. Santiam—J. K. Charlton, W. A. Paul, J. M. Hassler, judges; S. J. Paul, D. B. Uley, clerks. Waterloo—W. W. Parrish, G. B. McCluney, F. Keving, judges; Joel Vail, J. Newman, clerks. Scio—Wm. Cyrus, R. Carey, M. C. Gill, judges; G. L. Sutherland, A. H. Johnson, clerks.

National Surgical Institute. Two or more surgeons representing this Institute will be at the Revere House, Albany, Nov. 6, and at the St. Charles Hotel, Lebanon, Nov. 7, 1888, one day only. They come fully prepared with all the apparatus necessary for the successful treatment of their specialties, curvature of the spine, diseases of the hip and knee joint, crooked limbs, club feet and all bodily deformities. Their success in treating these troubles as well as all chronic and sexual diseases has made for the Institute a national reputation. Upon application, references will be furnished from patients in all parts of the United States. All persons who are suffering from any of these complaints, should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity for relief.

Hallowe'en Party. Last Wednesday evening, being Hallowe'en, a number of young people assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Davidson for a social party. The evening was very pleasantly spent in conversation, interspersed with various games, &c. After an evening chuck full of enjoyment, the young people started out on a serenading tour, and visited a number of their friends and waded to their sweetest music on the evening air.

SCIO NOTES. Our rainy season seems to have begun in earnest. Scio mills are doing a fine business, and the flour is giving excellent satisfaction. We are glad to see that Elder Stipp is putting an addition to his house, which will make it very commodious. Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Pentland went to Lebanon Saturday to attend the presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. The concert and festival given by the Sunday school and W. C. T. U. was quite a success, over thirty dollars being cleared outside of expenses. Our schools, we understand, are quite prosperous. Mrs. Dodd, Prof. Geddes' assistant in the North Scio school, has nearly forty pupils in her department. Johnson Bros. have leased the store building owned by the Pentland heirs for two years, although they may purchase the site and erect a brick building. Our mails by the narrow gauge arrive later and later, and we are wondering how long it will be before they reach us all. Indignation is loud and deep. There is considerable sickness at present. Mr. and Mrs. Goins' little son Archie is quite ill with fever; also a son of Hubbard Bilyeu, who lately moved here from Farmington, W. T.

Mrs. Curl and Miss Addie Morris went to Sweet Home on a visit last week, and on their return home in a big rain storm, on this side of Lebanon, being of an investigating turn of mind, they concluded they would measure the depth of mud. They are contented at home now. E. M.

J. S. Courtney, M. D., physician and surgeon. Thompson & Overman, the leading harness dealers, Albany. Two cases of smallpox are reported at Clatsop, Marion county.

BROWNSVILLE. Mrs. George Moore departed for Portland on Monday. Health generally is good. Buck Tucker is as jolly as ever. John W. Cox is daily expected home. J. O. Boyd is hauling boards to Lebanon. Mr. James Nave is building an addition to his house. Jesse South and party are in the mountains seeking venison. Miss Lizzie Crockett is again around; this her many friends will be pleased to hear. School is progressing finely under the efficient management of Prof. J. M. Flaughner, with twenty-six pupils. John W. Wilson is expecting to start for the Kittitas country to seek a place to remove to with his new wife. He expects to leave his wife with his sister, Mrs. Brookshire. The most successful "surprise party" was held to-night, the whole neighborhood turning out to surprise Mr. and Mrs. John O. Boyd. The young folks here delight to "trip the fantastic toe."

GEORGE SIMONS, formerly of Brownsville, is at present engaged in the bakery business at Portland. P. Ross, formerly in the employ of the B. W. M. Co., is acting as cashier at the Mechanics' store, Portland. Robert Coshaw, of Salem, accompanied by his niece, Miss Lillie Carpenter, is visiting relatives at this place. Miss Hattie Long, assistant teacher of the North Brownsville school, is suffering from an attack of bilious fever. Mrs. R. L. Curl during the past week left for Portland, to purchase a complete new line of ladies' fall hats, trappings, etc. Mrs. T. S. Pillsbury, accompanied by her son, on Monday departed for Portland, where she will remain for a week, proceeding to W. T. to visit relatives.

Miss Ione Arthur has charge of the primary department of the North Brownsville school during the absence of the regular assistant teacher, Miss Hattie Long. Messrs. Croft & Elawick will conduct the pork packing business in town this fall and winter. Parties having hogs for sale should apply to F. P. Croft at his store, where they will receive the market prices. After a brief absence, Prof. W. W. Hall, principal of the North Brownsville school, returned to our town on Wednesday last, bringing with him, much to the surprise of his friends, a wife. The following notice explains all. Married, at Corvallis, Wednesday, Oct. 24, 1888, by Rev. E. J. Thompson, W. W. Hall, of Brownsville, to Miss Clara Lilly, of Corvallis. Prof. Hall has secured a very amiable and accomplished young lady for his companion in life, and we tender him our hearty congratulations.

The Willamette Presbytery of the C. P. church convened with the congregation of the Brownsville church on Thursday, Oct. 18. The session lasted four days, ending Monday, Oct. 22. There were present Rev. C. A. Woolley, Rev. W. V. McGee, Rev. J. W. Smead, Rev. W. C. Sparks, Rev. W. Leach, Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick, Rev. A. J. Adams, and the following representatives: R. Toms, Alesco valley; Jesse Walker, Mary's river; W. C. Bushnell, Eugene; Harrison Johnson, Lebanon; Wm. Acock, Brownsville. Rev. Elworthy of the M. E. church and Rev. Baker of the Baptist church were in attendance. On Saturday afternoon there was held a Sunday school institute, and during the evening of the same day a missionary mass meeting. On Sunday, Oct. 21, Dr. McLean, of Walla Walla, delivered a very eloquent and interesting dedicatory sermon to a large and appreciative attendance, who thronged the church, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by the ladies of the congregation, the floral offerings being most artistically arranged. The session throughout was largely attended, and fraught with pleasing incidents, mementos of sunshine on the rugged path of life.

On the evening of Wednesday, Oct. 24, a joyful company, consisting of the family relatives and more intimate friends of the interested parties, assembled at the residence of O. P. Coshaw, Sr., to witness the marriage of his daughter, Miss Ida A. Coshaw, to Mr. George C. Stannard. At 8 p. m. the parlors, which were beautifully decorated with floral gifts, were thrown open to the guests, and in a short space of time the bridal party took their position beneath the marriage bell, wrought of rare flowers, the work of the deft hands of the young bride's companions. Rev. J. C. Baker, formerly of Salem, who was the officiating clergyman, in an impressive manner performed the marriage ceremony, joining the happy couple for "weal or woe," at the conclusion of which the assembled company were invited to partake of a bountiful supper. Many beautiful and costly presents were received by the newly-wedded couple, most noticeable being a beautiful gold watch and chain from G. C. Stannard to his bride; also from friends there were silver cake baskets, spoon holders, jelly and sugar shells, knives, forks and spoons, berry and fruit spoons, napkin rings of unique designs, butter knives, and a bewildering array of useful and ornamental mementos from loving friends. The young couple started upon the sea of matrimony with a fair sky, the waters of life unruffled by storm, and bore with them the best wishes of their many friends for a safe and happy voyage. There were present: Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Coshaw, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stannard, Wm. Cochrane, W. O. Stannard and wife, C. E. Stannard and wife, Dr. I. W. Starr and wife, T. S. Pillsbury, Chas. Miller, John Franzen and wife, J. H. Howe and wife, George Cable, Warren Bullock, Miss Lenora Kay, Harry Kay, Mrs. O. P. Coshaw, Jr., Mrs. E. Sperry, Miss May Carpenter, Miss Dilla Stannard, E. B. Cable, Grandfather Robert Coshaw, George Coshaw, Miss Kate Coshaw, Miss Sarah Coshaw, T. S. P.

FERN RIDGE. On October 24, 1888, Health generally is good. Buck Tucker is as jolly as ever. John W. Cox is daily expected home. J. O. Boyd is hauling boards to Lebanon. Mr. James Nave is building an addition to his house. Jesse South and party are in the mountains seeking venison. Miss Lizzie Crockett is again around; this her many friends will be pleased to hear. School is progressing finely under the efficient management of Prof. J. M. Flaughner, with twenty-six pupils. John W. Wilson is expecting to start for the Kittitas country to seek a place to remove to with his new wife. He expects to leave his wife with his sister, Mrs. Brookshire. The most successful "surprise party" was held to-night, the whole neighborhood turning out to surprise Mr. and Mrs. John O. Boyd. The young folks here delight to "trip the fantastic toe."

PRENSVILLE NEWS. The present term of court will cost Crook county about $5000. The mountains at the head of Ochoco were covered with snow Wednesday morning. The trial of Fox on a charge of larceny, which terminated Monday, cost the county about $800. There were only nineteen head of sheep in controversy. R. P. Miller returned this week from Monmouth, Ill., where he disposed of forty-three head of horses he shipped from here last month. David Price, Dick Miller and Arthur Hodges talk of starting for Illinois with several carloads of horses soon. Jerry Schoelling, who has just returned from the Cascades, informs us a party of Union Pacific surveyors were at McKenzie bridge last Tuesday. They are viewing out a line from the mouth of the Siuslaw river to Ontario.—Review.

QUESTIONS. Here are some more questions which I ask Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick to answer: Is God just to put the heathen in hell who have not had a chance to learn of Christ and be saved by Him? Men of science tell us that a whale's throat is too small to swallow a man. What is to we do with the story of Jonah and the whale? SKEPTIC.

FOR LEAF YEAR. Leap year is here, To madmen dear, Who're waited on by bashful beaux That smile and sigh And off come sigh To popping, but who ne'er propose. Proceed with skill, And thus you will Proposals from your lover draw; They'll take the cue: Say, How would you Like mother for a mother-in-law? —Boston Courier.

THE BEST REMEDY for Colds, Coughs, and all Throat and Lung diseases, ever used in my family.—Robert Vanderpool, Nashville, Pa. Some time ago I took a slight cold, which, being neglected, grew worse, and settled on my lungs. I had a hacking cough, and was very weak. Those who know me best considered my life to be in great danger. I continued to suffer until I commenced using Acker's Cherry Pectoral. Less than one bottle of this valuable medicine cured me, and I feel that I owe the preservation of my life to its curative powers.—Mrs. Ann Lockwood, Akron, New York.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is considered, here, the one great remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs, and is more in demand than any other medicine of its class.—J. F. Roberts, Magnolia, Ark. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25¢; six bottles, $1.

WHY IS IT — THAT —

C. B. MONTAGUE HAS SUCH AN IMMENSE TRADE?

FIRST. Because he has the largest store in the Willamette Valley. SECOND. Because he supplies all of Canada and part of the United States with goods, which requires a mammoth stock and an endless variety of merchandise. THIRD. Because he buys and ships more Dried Fruit, Chickens, Turkeys, Geese, Ducks, Dry and Green Hides, Sheep Pelts, Deer Skins, Furs, Lard and Butter than any other merchant on this coast. FOURTH. Because everybody is treated right at Montague's and gets gold value for every dollar invested at his store.

AND LAST, BUT NOT LEAST, MONTAGUE IS HERE TO STAY. T. C. Peebler. George Buhl.
