

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Pleasant weather. Read Miller's new ad. The city council met Wednesday evening. The police force of Albany will be uniformed to-day. Fresh fish, oranges and lemons at the new cash store cheap. Listen to Kate Putnam's song. How nicely she sings for M. A. MILLER. D. M. Lettsel, a peddler in spices, was on the streets during the week. The dispatches to Pennoyer will be sent by the Governor and water bill. Mr. Blaine will lead in the sale of Drugs. The new cash store, but everything delivered to any part of the city. A surprise party was given Mrs. Roberts at her residence last Saturday evening. All report a most enjoyable time. A. E. Northwick, a fire insurance agent from Portland, was in town from the week. He is a well known man to our town. He is a house and sign painter, grainer and hard wood finisher. Mr. Chas. Dwyer, of Halsey, was in town during the week with a fine collection of war scenes and places of interest in the United States. A magnificent string of fish was sold in our market. They are sold at the new cash store of C. B. Montague. Let us have more fish. All old accounts due me must be paid by the last of January or I will place them in the hands of an attorney for collection. T. C. PEEBLER. The thanks of THE EXPRESS is gratefully extended to Hon. J. B. R. Morelock and Hon. Jeff Myers, our faithful representatives, for valuable state papers. Mr. Jacob Arrington keeps a first-class harness and saddle shop in Lebanon. All kinds of repairing done with neatness and dispatch, and all work guaranteed. We are sorry to learn that Mr. Evan Bosler, who has been sick for some time, is not improving, and that his condition is not at all satisfactory to his friends. All parties knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle, as I desire to balance up my accounts of 1888 and do a cash business hereafter. M. A. MILLER. Readers of this paper can save money by calling on Deyos & Robson, of Albany, as they have the most complete stock of all kinds of hardware and agricultural implements on this coast. Look out for the red cross. It indicates that THE EXPRESS is needing a little change and that you are in arrears—please give attention—it may seem a small matter to you, but the aggregate is large to the poor printer. Peter Humes, Esq., of Brownsville, made a pleasant call in this office Wednesday. He is a quiet, nice gentleman, of fine business qualities, and one of the prominent men of our neighboring town. We understand that Mr. J. D. Walton has made arrangements to open a first-class lumber yard in Lebanon. Mr. Walton is an enterprising man, upright and fair in all his dealings, and we predict for him a success. Swan Bros. have bought out the building where they are at present located in the stove and tin business. These are gentlemen of probity of character, and of solid business worth, and we are glad that they have thus become real estate owners in the town of Lebanon. We return the grateful thanks of THE EXPRESS office for twenty-two new subscribers in the last few days. We are glad that our friends appreciate our efforts to furnish a readable, live paper, and hope in the near future to make considerable additions to the material of this office and to enlarge the reading matter. There is considerable excitement in town over moving the Lebanon graveyard, or rather of restraining the Trustees from further enlarging the same. We hope the matter will be adjusted without any hot blood. It does seem like we could get ground out of the town, and not bury our dead right among the living. We hear of a dozen buildings going up just as soon as the roads will permit of hauling and the weather will do to go to work, and one large brick. The future of Lebanon was never brighter, and if our public spirited men will just lend a helping hand, by way of cheer and encouragement, we will have a real boom in a short time. Mrs. Mary Liggett departed this life on Sunday, the 27th, in the 81st year of her age. She was a native of Ohio; in early life moved to Missouri, from there to California, and in 1872 moved and settled half a mile west of Lebanon, where she died. She was a quiet woman and lived and died without an enemy that she knew of. She leaves a husband and six children, to whom we extend our sympathy. The funeral took place at the Masonic burying grounds on Monday evening the 29th, conducted by Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick. Mr. D. H. Mothorn and one of his daughters started to Davenport, W. T., last Friday, his wife and the rest of the children to join them in a few weeks. Mr. Mothorn has been a citizen of this county for several years, and by industry and frugality has accumulated wealth. He settled near Sweet Home and began on $5 capital, with a wife and several children to support; he leaves a well-to-do farmer and considerable cash. We are very glad to see so good a citizen, but content that he will do like his father, and return in a few years a wiser man.

BROWNVILLE. Mrs. Henry Blakely is visiting relatives at Pendleton. The eldest daughter of Findley Meares is suffering from an attack of bilious fever. Dr. I. W. Starr, accompanied by his wife, on Tuesday left for Albany to visit friends. J. S. Horace Carpenter, of Salem, has been visiting her brother, O. P. Coshoven and family, for the past week. Mrs. Carpus Sperry during the past week left for Portland to visit her daughter, Mrs. Skiff. Asbury Ellis, of Spokane Falls, accompanied by his wife, for the past week has been visiting friends in Brownsville. The B. W. M. Co. have "closed down" for repairs and the addition of new machinery. The factory will be put in first-class working order preparatory to an early start. For the past week the daily attendance of the protracted meetings at the Baptist church, now being conducted by the Rev. Le Roy, has increased rather than diminished; many conversions have been made under the eloquent persuasion of this divine, who, without undue excitement or noisy demonstration, commands the rapt attention of a large congregation, bringing proof of holy and sublime truths most eloquently portrayed, and giving evidence of deep study, application and research. On Sunday last, at the conclusion of the morning exercises, the rite of baptism, by immersion, was conferred on nine applicants, converts made during the present term of protracted meeting. The efforts of Rev. Robe and Rev. Elworthy at the Presbyterian church, South Brownsville, have also met with most pleasing success, a number of converts having been made, with a corresponding increase in the membership of the church.

ACADEMY NOTES.

School going on pleasantly as usual. We are very glad to say that Frank Marks, who has been sick with lung fever, is slowly recovering. The names of those who visited the school this week are not on hand to write. We would like to see more visitors. On Sunday Prof. Gilbert enjoyed a pleasant call from Dr. Carter, of Benton county. Mr. Carter was a student of the Prof's. in 1881. The Literary Star, published monthly by the members of the society, was read Monday evening by Miss Lizzie Reed. It was well done. The Gleamer will appear before us again to-day. This time it is under the efficient management of Miss Maggie Sutton and we have every reason to believe it will be a success. Some of the students are often so late in the morning that they lose the benefits of the thorough instruction in vocal music. New music books have been ordered for the use of the school and the musical department now furnishes part of the entertainment for Friday afternoon exercises. The meeting of the E. L. S. last Monday evening was attended by several of our honorary members and friends. The question was ably discussed by both sides but was decided in favor of the negative. The question was resolved, that the United States have been too liberal in land grants to railroads.

Graveyard in Town.

EDITOR:—Will you allow us space in your valuable paper to enter a protest against the further enlargement of the graveyard in the town of Lebanon. When the present burying place was selected there was no thought of the town reaching its present limit, but now, with settlements all around the old graveyard, and with a bright prospect of a rapid future growth, it looks absurd for the trustees to try to enlarge it right in town. Besides the looks of the thing it is a direct injury to several of us living on the north and east side of it. We hold that they have no right thus to damage us and our property in any such way, and if the trustees persist in their efforts to enlarge under our most solemn protest, then we will be compelled to try for redress at the hands of the law. It is a well known fact here that there is an under current of water running north and north-east all the time, thus compelling us to drink the water from the decomposing bodies of the dead. We sincerely hope that this matter may be adjusted without recourse to law, but if nothing but law will settle it, then let it come. CITIZENS.

Card of Thanks.

I heroby extend my most grateful thanks to all the friends and neighbors who, in my hour of sad affliction and sore bereavement, so kindly sympathized with me, and so generously aided me in my sad calamity. I shall always remember your kindness with a grateful heart. MRS. NETTIE HUDDLESON.

How Can Parents

Allow their children to cough and strain and cough and strain say, "Oh! it is only a little cold and they will be all right in a few days." But when they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP! It has no superior and few equals. M. A. MILLER, Druggist.

BURNING TREE STUMPS.

Bore a one inch hole 18 inches deep in center of stump, put in one ounce of saltpeter, then fill the hole nearly full of water and plug up tight; this is done in the fall and spring. Take out the plug and pour in one-half gill of kerosene and set on fire, and it will burn out to the very extreme ends.

Cough! and Cough!! and Cough!!!

What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. M. A. MILLER, Druggist.

Persons troubled with chronic diarrhoea or subject to bowel complaint in any form, should try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Many chronic cases that had resisted all other treatment have been cured by it. For sale by M. A. Miller.

KEEP POSTED. Mrs. G. W. Rice, Fine Millinery. J. S. Courtney, M. D., physician and surgeon. California eelery and canflower at the new cash store. Mr. A. Seiders, the enterprising horse buyer and trader of Albany, was in town during the week. Sardines in mustard at W. B. Donaca & Co.'s, only 15 cents per box. Caracol roast coffee at W. B. Donaca & Co.'s. Something good. Try it. Just received at Miller's drug store, one gross Red Cross Cough Cure. Try it. Farmers, remember that Joseph Bush pay cash for produce, hides and furs. When you desire a pleasant physic, try St. Patrick's Pills. They can always be depended upon, and do not nauseate the stomach nor gripe the bowels. For sale by M. A. Miller. Parties wishing lumber will do well to give us a call. We have on hand over 15000 feet of fencing lumber. COSTLOW & CARLE, Brownsville. Having enlarged our business with a complete stock of everything kept in a first-class furniture house, we invite the public to call and give us a trial. We make a specialty of everything kept in the undertaker's line. FORTMILLER & IRVING, Albany, Oregon. Prof. Langford, an itinerant musician, was arrested in Lebanon for leading a horse on the sidewalk.—Democrat. Such a thing is of so frequent occurrence with the "Professor" that we thought it not worth mentioning. The fact is the Prof. is near sighted and hardly knows the difference between a sidewalk and the main street. Why Don't You? We have been asked several times lately why we did not publish certain scandalous reports that are floating around on the "Vox populi." This paper does not propose to be a scavenger that runs after the filth and scum of the town for the purpose of keeping up strife and bickering among our fellow citizens. We have a higher ambition than to play the part of carrion crow by repeating in the press every little dirty tale that we happen to hear on the street, besides we think too much of our town and neighbors to be holding up to public gaze the shortcomings of others. We have a sovereign contempt for the yelping hound that is always barking on the track of some one, whether it be the public or private walks of life. Proposition for a New School House. I will be one of ten to buy a square in the town of Lebanon for a new school house, and I will also be one of twenty to put up a five thousand dollar school building. We must build if we want to keep pace with other towns. A TAXPAYER. We hope a few more of such as "Taxpayer" will come to the front. If Lebanon wants to get on a boom she must have a first-class graded school—just such a public school as other towns. People are seeking and will have the very best educational advantages for their children, and they are going to move to that town that is on the grow, and that town will grow that has a first-class graded school. Stabbing A Trvy. At Albany last Monday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock Jesse Clark and A. F. Thompson got into a quarrel at the Stevens place, resulting in Clark striking Thompson with a shovel and Thompson's drawing a knife and stabbing Clark in the lungs near the heart. Dr. Maston was called and pronounced Clark in a critical condition. Thompson was arrested. Justice Humphrey, after hearing the testimony, ordered the defendant held to await the action of the grand jury under $500 bonds, which were furnished. Clark, for whom a warrant had been issued, will be discharged.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, can not, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such universal satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing. M. A. MILLER, Druggist.

Kate Putnam's Favorite Song!

Some men are awful kickers, They kick all blessed day; They kick when they are busy, And kick when they do pray. Do you know the reason why? It is because they're stickers And are just built that way! They'll always be great kickers Until they're laid away. The dude with little boodle, He puts on funny airs! He parts just like a poodle His half a dozen hairs. There are some of you who never Have dealt with M. A. MILLER! Can you tell the reason why? All say he sells much cheaper Than other stores in town! He keeps the best assortment, And puts the prices down.
