

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

We call attention to the new ad. of C. B. Montague.

Mr. J. G. Gross, of Waterloo, made our office a call Saturday.

A. F. Hamilton, of Sweet Home, was on our streets Wednesday.

J. S. Ames, who resides at Sweet Home, was in town a few days this week.

Mr. Blaine will be in Harrison's cabinet, but Miller will still lead in the sale of Drugs.

J. L. Jr., and Maggie Kirkpatrick have been quite sick for a week or more, but are slowly recovering.

One price and cash at the new cash store, but everything sold cheap and delivered to any part of the city.

Mr. M. J. Monteith, one of Albany's most enterprising business men, was in town during the week on business.

Mr. J. F. Hall came from Albany this week to help remove the old safe and put the new one in the bank at this place.

Mr. Harrison and Mrs. Hattie Johnson returned home this week from a very pleasant visit to their children at Harrisburg.

Seven new subscribers were added to our mailing list this week; two at Sweet Home, one at Crawfordsville and eight at Lebanon.

Married, at the residence of Mr. A. B. Blackburn on Feb. 5th, Mr. Albert E. Heller and Miss Lucella Blackburn, Rev. Geo. W. Gibony officiating.

Mr. Charley Hall and Mrs. Ora Green, both of Lebanon, were married in Eugene City, February 2nd, at the residence of Rev. E. P. Henderson.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle, as I desire to balance up my accounts of 1888 and do a cash business hereafter. M. A. MILLER.

Readers of this paper can save money by calling on Deyoe & Robson, of Albany, as they have the most complete stock of all kinds of hardware and agricultural implements on this coast.

We have just completed a new mailing book, and we would be very pleased if all parties would pay us that they are past due and in the way and accommodate you in the same.

A. P. Flory, of Sodaville, paid $100 just that kind of a visit that makes the printer glad, with the eloquent chink of a dollar or two. We hope many will do likewise. Glad to see you, call again.

Sran Brothers are going to open a new line of goods in their store and this house next week, something new and novel. Walk in, see for yourself, costs nothing to look and Sran charges you nothing to laugh.

At an informal meeting in the City Hall on Tuesday evening a majority of the business men being present, the subject of a new school house was discussed, and there was not a dissenting voice, but all agreed that it must be built.

On last Friday the Editor "pro tem." and wife were invited to dine at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wheeler, the occasion being the 50th anniversary of mine host. May we all meet again for similar enjoyment in the days yet to come.

Died, in Lebanon, on Friday, Feb. 1, in the 16th year of his young life, at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Wheeler, "Freddie," the noble canary singer. Ten thousand, ten thousand or more sweet songs he has sung, but now his sweet voice is hushed forever.

There seems to be a general air of improvement in Lebanon and a firmer confidence that this year will mark the most rapid growth in the history of Lebanon. Several new lots have been sold this week, and just as soon as lumber can be hauled there will be a building boom here.

We call the attention of our new city fathers to the necessity of several new crossings needed in the Ralston addition to our town. These people are not complaining that we know of, but a recent walk in that part of town convinced us (while in the mud) that taxpayers need accommodations.

Last Sunday afternoon about one o'clock our citizens were started by the firebell, but before the fire men could get to the engine the "fire" had been put out. It was in the roof of the St. Charles hotel, and might have resulted very seriously if it had not been seen and promptly put out by the porter.

We call attention to the new ad. of G. C. Cooley & Co., of Brownsville. The senior member of this firm has been in business in South Brownsville for thirty-two years, and perhaps no man in Linn county is known better or more thoroughly trusted for honesty and integrity than Geo. C. Cooley. The junior partners are both men of fine business qualities and "native to the manner born."

Los Angeles emigrants are moving from that overboomed section to this favored valley. Mr. G. W. Whitcomb, C. P. Gregory and others whose name we failed to get, were in Lebanon for supplies for their new founded homes up on the Santiam. They informed us that fifty families were on their way and would all locate on the North fork of the South Santiam. We extend to them a cordial welcome and would be glad to enroll more of their names on our mailing book.

The printer's devil informs us that there are just thirteen families in Lebanon who do not take THE EXPRESS. We last Friday morning three of those persons were at the same house at the same time last week to borrow the paper, and on the same day a lady in town could not wait until she washed the morning dishes until she had borrowed a copy of THE EXPRESS. Now all that are too poor or too stingy to subscribe for the paper, just come up to the office and we will give you a copy for we don't want our honest paying subscribers imposed upon in this way.

ACADEMY NOTES.

The Gleaner was well read on last Friday by Maggie Sutton.

Frank Marks, who has been sick for some time, is again in school.

We have six weeks more of school. Let us all improve our minds to the best advantage.

Fine weather, but demoralizing to the school, as some have to stop school as soon as spring opens.

All those who wish to understand and apply the metric system of weights and measures can do so by securing one of the Prof's keys which cost only ten cents.

On last Friday afternoon the following named persons visited the school: Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Davis (nee Lizzie McKinney), the Misses Swan, Nona Miller and A. B. Nickerson. Come again.

Last Sunday was Prof. Gilbert's 63 birthday. Monday evening after the Literary Society adjourned, the students gathered in and enjoyed a sociable for a short time. The students presented the Prof. with a handsome reading lamp.

SOME "DON'T'S" FOR STUDENTS.

Don't go up stairs to chapel exercises unless you want to.

Don't get to school before the second bell rings if you can help it.

Don't keep your mouth shut when you can just as well be whispering.

Don't come to school until noon if you have been out the night before.

Don't walk quietly across the room when you can just as well step 100 pounds.

Don't go to school when you can go and play a game of base ball. You will be much wiser by so doing.

WATERLOO.

Miss Maggie Bruce is able to be out again.

Mr. A. Haddeson is making rails for C. B. Montague.

Mr. Gilbert Carns is here visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Gager, who has been ill for some time, is improving slowly.

Mr. Lawrence Morgan, of Tangent, made us a flying visit Sunday.

Dr. O'Dell, of Sodaville, made Waterloo a pleasant call on Monday.

Mr. Gloss Dollarhide went to Corvallis on a flying trip Monday.

The pontoon bridges across the river and soda water is running fine.

Mrs. Bruce returned from Albany, where she has been attending spiritual meetings.

Mrs. A. Giesler went to Lebanon and intends making Albany friends a visit before returning.

J. G. Gross is building a chicken yard. It seems as if he is going into the chicken business this spring.

On Thursday last three young geese from Albany, accompanied by Alfred Fielding of this place, started to the Big Bend country, and returned Tuesday well pleased, each having taken up a piece of land.

Mr. Samuel Ralston and William Morgan, of Halsey, is visiting relatives at this place. Mrs. Ralston.

The Old Out and the New In.

Wednesday evening the old council of the town of Lebanon held their last meeting in the city hall and made their last annual report as the custodians of public interest and trust. These reports were in the highest sense creditable and reflected great credit on the out going officers. We doubt if any town in the valley can show as good a record. A net cash balance of $433.15 is in the hands of the treasurer, and a good condition of health and prosperity prevails. The record shows the merits of the town to be exceptionally good, only three cases of fines for misdemeanors. We lift our hats to the fathers and say, "Well done, good and faithful servants." The new administration is composed of our very best citizens, and we bespeak for them all that confidence support that real merit should command.

New Bank and Defeated Burglars.

The Bank of Lebanon, under the efficient management of Capt. M. Ralston, assisted by Mr. C. H. Ralston, has purchased of McNeil and Urban one of their improved burglar proof safes at a cost of $1250. It has what is known as the Sargeant & Greenleaf time lock attachment, all new, and of the most improved make by master mechanics. The old, partially damaged safe was removed this week and the new put in position. The managers of this bank are noted for their urbanity, close attention to business, promptness and dispatch. Depositors will now have perfect security against burglars and fire "et gen' homo."

Cough and Cough and Cough!!!

What is the worst of the season you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at each dose. This is a fact, and we guarantee it. M. A. MILLER, Druggist.

Manslaughter.

Jesse Clark, who was stabbed in Albany last week by A. F. Thompson, died on Monday the 4th inst. The difficulty was about a horse trade. It seems from the verdict of the jury that Clark was the aggressor. The deceased was born in Ashland, Ohio, about nineteen years ago, where his father was in the livery business for twenty-five years. About two years ago he moved with his parents to Dodge City, Kan., and a year later began travelling with George Sparrow, the horse trader, and one of the witnesses to the tragedy. The boy's parents have been notified of his death.

How Can Parents

Allow their children to cough and strain and cough and finally say "oh it is only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP. It has no superior and few equals. M. A. MILLER, Druggist.

Persons troubled with chronic diarrhoea or subject to bowel complaint in any form, should try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Many chronic cases that had resisted all other treatment have been cured by it. For sale by M. A. Miller.

KEEP POSTED.

Mrs. G. W. Rice, Fine Millinery. J. S. Courtney, M. D., physician and surgeon.

Farmers, remember that Joseph Bush pay cash for produce, hides and furs.

When you desire a pleasant physician try St. Patrick's Pills. They can always be depended upon, and do not nauseate the stomach nor gripe the bowels. For sale by M. A. Miller.

Parties wishing lumber will do well to give us a call. We have on hand over 15000 feet of fencing lumber. CASHOW & CABLE, Brownsville.

Having enlarged our business with a complete stock of everything kept in a first-class furniture house, we invite the public to call and give us a trial. We make a specialty of everything kept in the undertaker's line. FORTMILLER & IRVING, Albany, Oregon.

Oregon's Public Buildings.

The last number of the West Shore Magazine contains engravings of the public buildings of Oregon, including the capitol, postoffice, insane asylum, etc., and other views in Salem, the capital city, accompanied by a large supplemental sheet with portraits of members of the legislature now in session. A description of Salem and that portion of the great Willamette valley in which it is situated is a valuable feature of the number. The very readable and instructive article on the "Genealogy of Oregon" should be carefully perused by every person who would like to become informed on the subject of the creation of a great state of the American union on the far western border of the nation, so long before the intermediate country was redeemed from a wilderness. The West Shore is filled monthly with valuable information about the entire northwest. 25 cents a copy, by mail, to any address. L. Samuel, publisher, Portland, Oregon.

In Texas.

Mr. Wendell Kirkpatrick, editor of THE LEBANON EXPRESS, of Lebanon, Oregon, is on a visit from his frozen home to the sunny clime of Limestone county. Mr. K. is an estimable gentleman, an able newspaper man, and edits an excellent journal. He is of southern birth, having lived some years in this county, and is a brother-in-law of Mr. C. W. Cobb, ex-editor of this paper. We extend a welcome to him, and trust that his stay at his old home will be a pleasant one.—New (Texas) Era.

A recent letter from the Editor of this paper informs us that they are nearly bound on there with a continuous rain; that all the low lands have been covered with water for weeks and weeks; that he longs for the day when he shall return to the genial clime of Oregon, "Where no storms ever beat on that glittering strand," but the flowers are blooming to the farthest of lands.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, can not, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at exorbitant prices, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such universal satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing. M. A. MILLER, Druggist.

Be Careful; Be Warned.

Those who bury their dead in the so-called "addition to the Lebanon cemetery" are hereby notified that the parties who offer the lots for sale as well as those who bury their dead there will be presented for a nuisance, and that an injunction will be served at the next term of court.

MANY CITIZENS.

The Happiest Man in Town
