Dr. I. W. Starr and family on Tuesday left for Albany to visit friends.

J. H. Waters visited Harrisburg on Monday, returning home on the following Tuesday.

Frank Stanard, who has been attending the Eugene college, on Friday returned home to Brownsville.

J. M. Bacon, Postmaster at Oregon City and Grand Sec'y of the I. O. O. F. visited our town on Thursday.

Mrs. Catherine Putman, accompanied by her children, Robert C., Lizzie, Dolly and Isaac returned to Brownsville on Saturday.

For information in regard to an A 1 stock of spring goods and general merchandise, read the advertisement of Cable and Stanard in this paper.

Frank Jack, who for some time past has been confined to the house by an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, is somewhat improved in health.

Mrs. N. J. Waters, who on Tuesday departed for Heppner, Or., will visit Yakima, and from there proceed to Puget Sound, visiting family relatives.

A most beautiful display of flowers, feathers and ladies hat trimmings can be seen at the store of Mrs. Sanders and Howe; also the latest styles in ladies' and misses' hats.

The B. W. M. Co. are having the main wool house removed from its present site to a position south of the mill. This is done to insure the safety of the building and contents in case of fire.

Died, at Oregon City, April 4, 1889, Mrs. Nancy Leno, aged 25 years, 8 months and 6 days. The funeral took place on Friday the 5th inst. from the Baptist church, Rev. J. C. Reed officiating. [Eastern Oregon and Washington Territory papers please copy.

W. W. Hall, principal, and Miss Hattie Long, assistant teacher of the North Brownsville school, and I. D. Boyer, principal of the South Brownsville school, on Wednesday left for Albany to attend the Teachers Institute, thus giving the young folks a short holiday.

A. Drisco, M. Fuller, F. Baker and L. Davis, of Harrisburg; George Alford, Newton Axford, Chas. Hartisty, J. Willoby, T. Stephens and T. Rodgers, of Liverpool, who were in town on Wednesday last, in company of a number of our citizens, proceeded to Crawfordville to institute a lodge of I. O. O. F.

The surprise party tendered to Mrs. John McKinney by her many friends on the anniversary of her forty-ninth birthday, was a most enjoyable success. Over fifty persons were present who partook of a bountiful dinner. Many beautiful presents were received by the hostess, and all participating passed a happy day.

Our merchants are doing a brisk spring trade. This is to be accounted for by the prospects of an immense fruit and grain crop, the outlook for which is good and seems assured.

Never before in the history of Brownsville has there been such immense stocks of general merchandise for the purchaser to choose from. A visit to the store of R. N. Thompson, who just received from the east a mammoth stock of dress goods, boots, shoes and family groceries, marked at eastern prices, with a cash discount of five per cent, will convince all desiring bargains that they need look no further, but can secure the best of goods on the most reasonable and liberal terms.

At the North Brownsville city hall on the evening of Tuesday last, the Paul Boulon Musical Comedy Company gave to a large audience one of their popular entertainments. The performance throughout was a marked success. The opening "Sleigh Bell Medley Polka" was one of the finest features of the entertainment. The violin solos by Paul Boulon gave evidence of a master hand and were heartily enjoyed. Little May Boulon in her ballads and character songs is an infant and "captured the audience." Nooncy Boulon as a "banjoist" cannot be excelled. Blackford and Harrison kept the house in roars of laughter throughout their funny sketches and negro eccentricities which were witty without vulgarity. Should this popular company return to our town they will receive a hearty welcome.

CRAWFORDSVILLE.

April '86.

I. B. Cox has built a new residence and changed his "locus."

I. C. Cox & Brother are running the sash and door factory and planer this year.

Noah Shanks has moved into his new residence and I. F. Hurt is erecting a dwelling.

R. W. Moses has built an addition to his store building, to meet with the demands of his rapidly increasing business.

The Crawfordville school will begin next Monday, 8th inst., under the efficient management of the former teacher—George Finley.

This town is rapidly improving. Pleasantly situated it has no "Rip Van Winkle" proclivities, but is going steadily and healthily ahead.

I. R. Wiseman has sold his farm and moved his family into his new and commodious dwelling, where he is convenient to his business and school.

Miles Cary purchased the new dwelling of J. B. Cox and has moved to town. He has also sold a stock ranch near town to Mr. Morris, who will soon move upon it.

Mr. J. O. Fox, an eastern man, has purchased the farm of Mr. E. Hughes and moved upon it, while Mr. Hughes bought the home of C. W. Little, to which place he has removed.

The event of the week has been the institution of a lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows at this place, which took place on Wednesday night. The fraternity gathered here from Irving, Halsey, Harrisburg, Lebanon and Brownsville, and the lodge was instituted by Deputy Grand Master John Daniel of Seio and Grand Sec'y. J. M. Bacon of Oregon City. Twenty-two applicants for membership were admitted and twenty-one received the initiatory degree, seven of whom took the whole number of degrees, which starts the lodge with twenty-nine members, and a more worthy membership cannot be found in the state. There were about one hundred present, and they were entertained at the hospitable residence of J. F. Moses, where the table groaned under the burden of creature comforts. Three meals were furnished, viz: Supper, a midnight oyster feast and breakfast, and hearty enjoyment prevailed. The lodge began its operations at 7 o'clock P. M. and closed at 6 o'clock A. M., working zealously all night, and during the forenoon the visitors adjourned to their respective homes, satisfied that Crawfordville means business when she engages in an enterprise, and promising themselves another visit to this place when circumstances shall be propitious, and "So mote it be."

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, can not, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such universal satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing.

MONTAGUE'S COLUMN.

Montague has the pleasure of announcing that his mammoth stock is now being replenished with new goods weekly—his large and increasing sales requiring a constant supply of new goods. His prices will be so low that for self preservation close buyers who pay on the spot for their purchases will necessarily do their buying of him.

It is to the interest of every person to patronize their home-merchants. The fact is, a town without merchants would be a very singular one in any country, and yet every town is blessed (?) with a few people who always work against their own and their neighbors' interests by advocating some other place as a better one than their own to do their trading in. Lebanon is not entirely exempt from those who ought to be loyal to and work for the upbuilding of their city, but who are unfortunately quite the reverse. Much capital has already been driven away from Lebanon by this course, and many contemplated enterprises that would have enhanced values in this vicinity have been abandoned through the malign influence of chronic cranks. Let us all work together for our own homes and our own people, and the day is not distant when we will have as prosperous an inland town as there is in this State. Merchants here in every line will sell you goods as low as they can be sold anywhere. They are always with you to help to assist in every public enterprise. Montague voices the sentiment of the mercantile community of Lebanon when he says that he will sell you anything that you want from his mammoth stock at the lowest living rates. His stock is a very large one, and the goods must be sold. Drop in and be convinced. There is no good logic in building up other cities at our own expense.

The farming community understand their own interests well, and they know that to make their land valuable and sought after by buyers a good prosperous town in their vicinity is just the thing to attract newcomers, and they almost universally patronize their home towns. Our interests are identical. Let our motto be, "Home against the world."

CLOTHING.

We make mens', boys' and children's clothing a specialty. Our spring stock is now arriving; call in and examine them. The low price of wool last year has so reduced the price of clothing that a good suit is now within the reach of every one.

BOOTS & SHOES.

Montague keeps the best line of boots and shoes, as well as a very large assortment. Our styles are unsurpassed, and no chromos or portraits of gimlet-eyed shoemakers are necessary to make our poems in leather go like hot cakes. When you need anything in that line which will do you good service or fit comfortably your wife, your son, your daughter or the baby, go into the mammoth store of C. B. Montague, buy your goods at his well known low prices and go home happy.
