

The Lebanon Express.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1889.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Mr. Wm. Roland was in town a few days this week.

Mr. Fred Peebler returned to Lebanon this week.

We are sorry to learn that G. H. Liggett is seriously ill.

A clean towel for every customer at McClure's barber shop.

Miss Ida Montague is visiting relatives and friends at Albany.

Rev. Trine and wife, of Springfield, have been spending the week visiting in town.

A. H. Parcel has rented Mr. Tuttle's ranch and will move upon it the first of next week.

What is the matter with Lebanon having a fruit cannery, and who will move in this matter.

Mrs. John Huddleson and Miss Ada Gross, of Waterloo, made this office a pleasant call last Friday.

Mrs. Dr. Powell, of Spokane Falls, W. T., is visiting her father's family near this place, Mr. Cheadle.

A communication from Hon. R. A. Irvine on the railroad commission bill was unavoidably crowded out.

Be sure and be on hand with your best girl Tuesday night. Got her a piece of cake and a fine album also.

It was Miss Mary Peebler, and not Keebler, as we mentioned in our last issue, who is visiting at Medical Lake W. T.

Mr. Robb, of Portland, was in town yesterday, seeing about selling school desks and seats for the new school house.

We received a very interesting communication from Sodaville, but it was unavoidably crowded out. It will appear next week.

We are informed that a fine cake with a ring in it will be for sale at the entertainment Tuesday evening, at ten cents a slice.

Mrs. M. McCutchan, of Windsor, Cal., is visiting her father, G. H. Liggett, who is very sick at the home of his son, R. H. Liggett.

Mr. Geo. Dickerson, of the firm of Ashby & Dickerson of Albany, was in town last Friday and we understand, sold a small ranch near Sodaville.

Mr. Joseph Harbin is repairing the fire engine, and will have it completed to-morrow. The council were right in having it repaired, as it was in a bad condition.

There is to be service in the C. P. Church Friday and Saturday, and the sacrament will be administered on the Sabbath. Rev. Crawford, of Corvallis, is to be present to assist the pastor.

Messrs. Ruff Hiltland and Clint Gordon, who recently took a thousand head of cattle to Montana, returned Wednesday. The boys report having had a nice trip, although very rough at times.

We are sorry to say that the condition of Mrs. N. J. Slippy, who fell from the platform of the S. P. Co. is not much better. It is with difficulty she manages to even walk about the house. Chances are she may never fully recover. Dr. Foley is waiting on her.

Messrs. George and Charles Cawsey, sons of Chas. Cawsey who recently purchased Jas. Coffett's farm, near Providence, arrived Wednesday from Leavenworth, Kansas. They were delayed by the Black Canyon disaster, but came through safely.

Mrs. Moyer and two daughters, of Ashland, were in town this week visiting. She is a sister of Mrs. E. A. Williams, and was just lately married to Mr. Moyer, of Ashland, her former name being Mrs. Winn. She is an old resident of this county and formerly lived at Waterloo.

The ministerial association of the M. E. church of the Eugene district was in session at this place the first of this week, commencing Monday and continuing until Wednesday evening. The meeting was a very interesting one. Owing to the crowded condition of our columns we are unable to publish the proceedings.

Last Tuesday J. A. Beard sold a half interest in his drug store to D. C. Holt of Harrisburg. Mr. Holt is a son-in-law of Mr. Harrison Johnson, and is well known in this community. We understand that they intend to enlarge their business and have a stationery department in the room just north of the drug store. They will be known as Beard & Holt.

G. T. Cotton has laid out Cottonwood addition to Lebanon.

Mr. B. Burtenshaw purchased 14 acres of land of J. M. Ralston just east of town this week.

The contract to put up the Albany street railway was let last Tuesday* to Mr. W. E. Kelley, his bid being the lowest.

It is expected that a decision in the Linn county judge contest will be delivered by Judge Lord within the next few days.

Mr. G. T. Cotton received from Portland, last Tuesday, two nice show cases. Mr. Schoenhut also received a show case this week.

What about that cheese factory mentioned in our last issue? Farmers, let us hear from you on this subject, it is of importance to you.

The man, Einhouse, who was injured by striking a cattle-guard near Gervais, while trying to look under the car for a tramp, is recovering.

There was a young lady named Fitch, she was fair and uncommonly rich, But her feet did not pair, Till our shoes she did wear, Then you could not tell 'tother from which, Try Hackleman's shoes and be happy.

The railroad has had a new sidewalk and railing put up at the depot. The sidewalk is nearly twice as wide as the old one, and the danger of falling off is checked by the railing. M. E. Hearn has offered five dollars reward for the arrest and conviction of any person defacing this property, so boys look out.

There will be a union service at the First Presbyterian church at 9 A. M. Tuesday morning to commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the inauguration of the first president of the United States. President Harrison and Governor Penneyer proclaimed Tuesday, April 30, a legal holiday; the schools, postoffice and all public places will be closed. There will be prayers, reading of scripture, and several short addresses by different gentlemen, when the question will be open to the house. All the bells in town will ring at 8:30 for 15 minutes and the service will begin at 9 A. M. sharp.

$5 standing reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of any party defacing any property of the Southern Pacific Co. at Lebanon, Oregon.

M. E. HEARN. A. R. Cyrus & Co. sold the following property this week: The Peterson farm of 160 acres to G. H. Liggett; consideration, $3790.

B. Burtenshaw's farm of 320 acres to three Germans; $5000.

The Elkins farm of 210 acres near Lebanon, to Jas. Coffett; $4200.

The Presbytery of Oregon held an adjourned meeting at Albina, Oregon, on Tuesday, April 23d, 1889, to take into consideration the resignation of Rev. Forbes as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Albina, and also the resignation of Rev. G. W. Giboney as pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Lebanon. By action of Presbytery both gentlemen are to remain in charge of their respective pastorates, that body not concurring in their resignation. We are heartily glad that the genial and scholarly Mr. Giboney is to remain with us, and proud that a congregational meeting of his church held on last Monday evening every man, woman and child (and there were over fifty adults present at the meeting) voted for him to remain in charge of the Lebanon church. Elder James M. Marks was sent as a delegate to Presbytery to represent the interests of the congregation, which duty he performed wisely and well, and THE EXPRESS extends its hearty congratulations to the First Presbyterian church of Lebanon and its esteemed pastor, the Rev. Geo. W. Giboney.

G. A. R. and W. E. C. Entertainment.

The post and corps of Lebanon will give an old campfire entertainment at Union Hall on the evening of April 30, 1889, the centennial of the inauguration of George Washington as president of the United States. The exercises will consist of a sketch of the first president and other interesting matters relating to the formation of the government; also patriotic songs, recitations and select readings, with short addresses from old soldiers of actual life in camp and battle, to conclude with a supper founded upon beans and pork, embracing the more luxurious courses of peaceful times, such as cake, pie, etc. A beautiful album will be presented, by ballot, to the most popular young lady present. The usual admission fee of 25c will be charged at the door. Proceeds for charitable purposes. All cordially invited. By order of committee.

When you go to Albany do not fail to call on F. H. Roscoe, the polite and popular manager of the mammoth house of Knapp, Burrell & Co. He has a fine line of vehicles—wagons a specialty—all at rock bottom prices.

THE WATERLOO BRIDGE.

WATERLOO, OR., April 20.

EDITOR EXPRESS:

The subject of a bridge at Waterloo has again been agitated, and a petition was presented to the county court signed by over 600 citizen and tax payers of this county, but from some cause the court failed to look at it as a thing of necessity to the welfare of the county at large, thinking it to be nothing more, no doubt than a mere local affair, be that as it may, the people of this place and vicinity ask, as a favor, that the tax payers of Linn county consider well the following statements, which, if true are reason, of themselves deserving the attention meriting the immediate action, of the county court in favor of a bridge, and that immediately. 1st. The bridge is not a local speculation, because it is directly on the route from the greater part of the settlements of the forks of the Santiam to the thoroughfare across the mountains, to eastern Oregon, also to Sodaville, Brownsville, Sweet Home, etc. Also because it is directly on the route to the finest timber including cedar, fir, spruce, pine, tamarack, and in fact almost every kind to be found in the valley, because mills are being put up and others are demanded to supply the lumber and shingles required not only by the rapidly multiplying settlements along the Hamilton and McDowell creeks, but the very rapidly growing district of every section west and south of the south Santiam, and also because bridges have been granted on petitions less deserving, containing fewer names, represented by a very considerable less valuation of property of signers, and last but not least the signers of Hamilton creek, and surrounding community have the right not only to petition but to demand of the county court a bridge. These people deserve a bridge on the merits of the above conditions and the county court have for the past eight years ignored the most formidable petition ever offered by any section or community in this county, it is not necessary for us to offer more reason, to offer better reason or to offer any thing further except that the petitioners are real personages desiring a bridge, their demands are just, and when any considerable number of people need improvements and ask in the proper way and the proper authorities and when their wants are not complied with it is considered by all good citizens that the officials are unfaithful servants and their acts are to be publicly criticised. Hoping that our county court will consider well their duty and grant the desire of this community and petitioners. X. Y.

Too Many Sweetmeats.

Rich food, and lack of exercise, during the winter months, causes the system to become torpid and the blood impure. A dose or two of St. Patrick's PILLS will cleanse and invigorate the system, purify the blood and do more good than a dollar bottle of blood purifier. Sold by M. A. Miller.

The Whole Truth.

Hackleman is the closest crankiest old fool that lives by labor to offer goods for the sake of cheating a poor man. His prices beat all others in town for extravagant expense. He gives no man a chance to save something for the rainy day when there's need of the money to put into the doctor bills. He is the most miserly, stingy and mean to the last. Don't trade with Hackleman for bargains; if you want to be cheated out of your reckoning, go to Hackleman's, you'll regret it as long as you live you'll go anywhere rather than buy the shoddy things on sale at Hackleman's.

He can suit the ever expected a man who at prices less than cost just himself and becoming at last are so low that they he does not encourage gets a just profit and he grumble that he can not future. It will be a bad and to go from him with none old stocking. He helps pay generous of merchants, not but a good citizen, liberal any other man than but if you want poor goods or of your teeth count him out some other store; but come to that you did not come sooner to no other store, but travel the inferior goods like by those who try to compete with us.
