

BROWNSVILLE.

For the past week, ending May 18, continuous showers.

D. Dalgleish, of Portland, was in town during the past week.

Isaac Leba, of Oregon City, arrived in Brownsville on Wednesday last.

A. J. Adams and Capt. Von Hagan on Monday left for the Blue river mines.

W. C. Primley is employed as night watch by the Eagle Woolen Mill company.

G. Goodrich has been appointed nightwatch for the O. Ry. in place of Capt. Van Hagan, who is at the Blue river mines.

During the past week the family of Joseph Weber was increased by one. It was a son.

Miss May Rockwell, who for some weeks past has been at Spokane Falls, has returned home.

Joseph Blakely, ex-sheriff of Gilliam county, Or., is visiting family friends in South Brownsville.

Fmanuel Lee and wife, formerly of Brownsville, have for the past week been the guests of Mrs. A. J. Adams.

James Calloway on Thursday passed through town, having arrived from "east of the mountains" with a band of thirty head of horses.

Dr. J. W. Starr, of Albany, was in town during the past week, having been removed from Albany by telegram, to attend to professional business.

Geo. W. Wright, of the law firm of Blackburn & Wright, Albany, on Saturday paid Brownsville friends a visit returning to Albany on the following Monday.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the B. W. M. Co., L. M. Meyer was elected president; J. P. Galbraith, F. F. Croft and J. M. Mayer were elected to act as directors.

The repairs are going steadily on at the Eagle Woolen Mills this week; the boilers have been overhauled, rivets tightened, and everything made safe for a speedy start.

A. S. McDonald, of Woodburn, who has been making necessary arrangements for the issue of a weekly paper at this place, on Saturday started for Portland to purchase the plant, etc., for the enterprise. The paper will be called the Brownsville Times.

Just received by "Pillsbury," a new and complete line of spectacles, also dust proof watch cases, new model, at prices that defy competition. The best spectacles for $1 ever sold at that price, large eye, nickel frame, fine lenses. Come and examine goods.

There is some little activity in real estate transactions, Coshow & Son having on their bulletin town and suburban estates at reasonable prices, and during the past week the farm of S. Cochrane has been sold to J. D. Abrahams who, with his family, has recently arrived from the east.

Mention having been made in numerous journals in regard to large strawberries, the attention of your correspondent was called to a "full grown, walk alone," strawberry raised in the garden of Finley McRae, and on exhibition at the real estate office of Coshow & Son, the berry measuring 6 1/2 inches in circumference.

Died, at South Brownsville, May 17, 1889, Mrs. Sydney Fields, aged 50 years and seven months, wife of Hugh Fields. The funeral, which was largely attended by the friends of the deceased, took place on the following Sunday, May 19, 1889, at the family residence, and was conducted by Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick.

At the North Brownsville city hall on the evening of Friday, the ladies of the M. E. Church gave to a large attendance a strawberry and ice cream festival, at which time plates of delicious strawberries and cream, cake and ice cream, were served to those desiring at the reasonable charge of 25 cents. The party was a pleasant success and netted for the church fund the handsome fund of $31.50.

At a meeting held at the Bank of Brownsville on May 18, 1889, it was decided by the committee of arrangements of the "Pioneer Association of Linn county," that the day of annual celebration be changed from the third Wednesday in June to the third day of July, and that the meeting take place in Brownsville, on said day. On motion, W. R. Kirk, O. P. Coshow and J. M. Moyer were appointed committee of arrangements, Z. B. Moss was appointed marshal, and Caleb Gray was appointed to procure speakers. All arrangements will be made for a pleasant time, good speakers and music will be in attendance, and all taking part in this celebration will doubtless have a pleasant time.

Winter is past, but Winter, J. A., the artistic photographer, will be in Brownsville, ready to "catch shadows" in first-class style on May 27.

R. N. Thompson is doing a rattling business in wall paper. The finest gilt paper reduced to 35c per roll, former price 75c.

SWEET HOME NOTES.

Delayed.

Sweet Home is talking of building a new church.

Bud Banfort thinks of going into the sawmill business.

Sweet Home is going to have a drug store and a doctor.

Mr. Curl, school superintendent, was around last week.

Mr. Hamilton, our enterprising merchant is taking the lead.

John Matlock is going up to Arlington on a visit to see his brother.

George Barr is talking of going fishing on Jackson creek before long.

School is progressing nicely in district 87, with Mr. Jackson as teacher.

Farmer Malone got disappointed last Sunday. He says strange things will happen.

Sweet Home is looming up with a millinery shop; all the girls will have new hats.

Joseph Rowell is building a barn and house. Joe goes over the river pretty often.

Z. B. Moss, the assessor, is still out assessing. Rube Moss left for eastern Oregon Monday.

Dick Watkins has built a new dwelling. This looks suspicious, but he says it is all on the square.

Frank Malone is working for Joy Rowell. This just suits Frank; he gets to stay at the Independent.

Muck Moss says he is going back to bunch grass this fall. There must be something attractive out there.

Jehunny has got to be clerk. He stens like he meant business. We think he will go into business before long.

Ames Brothers are fitting up their old store house for a dwelling, which they expect to rent to Mr. Hamilton.

Lots of rain, and much fall grain is liable to fall down if it don't quit raining before long. Spring grain looks sick.

George Rowell, one of the Sweet Home Merchants, is talking of starting a skating rink. George likes to see things roll.

Mr. Lettinger and Samuel Herring's new blacksmith shop looms up. Any one desiring to get work done will get satisfaction.

The traveler will be well cared for at either the Independent or the St. John hotel, especially the young men, there being a young lady at both.

Since Mr. Yost, our Sweet Home preacher has been sent back another year, there has been a smile on Walt Gilliam's face a yard long.

SWEET HOME TOUGH.

Clear Headedness of Youth.

While the merits of the various blood purifiers are being shown up to the best advantage possible by their several manufacturers, we would suggest to persons feeling the need of such a medicine, that they try a dose of St. Patrick's Pills, and assure them that they would not only be surprised but delighted with the result. Those who wish to feel the animation, buoyancy and clear headedness of youth should take St. Patrick's Pills. For sale by M. A. Miller.

Wm. M. Hoag, vice-president on the Oregon Pacific railroad, is now on his way from New York and will arrive here the latter part of the present week, when it is announced work on the road eastward will commence.

His motto is "GOD WILL TO ALL." 22-Office and residence, Ferry street, between Third and Fourth, Albany, Oregon.

Judge Bellery was explaining how pumpkins, squash, and other vegetables of that ilk, might be fed artificially and grow when severed from the parent stem, when Lee Morehouse chipped in and said: "Yes, I knew of a hired man who accidentally broke a pet pumpkin from the vine once, and in order to keep it alive he took it a pan of milk every day which the pumpkin absorbed through the broken stem, and when the pumpkin was finally cut open there were 40 pounds of butter on the inside."—Ex.
