

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Sociable to-night. Circus next week. When you go to Brownsville call on Winter. Mrs. Pottington says that there will be a wedding in town soon. Willie Klepper has accepted a position in the St. Charles Hotel. Mr. T. C. Peebler left last Tuesday morning for Portland on business. Mrs. J. S. Courtney was in Albany the first of the week visiting friends. Mr. Geo. Peebler has charge of the train this week, in the absence of Mr. Houston. Last Sunday was Children's Day, and was observed by all the churches in town. Your sweet-heart will be pleased with your photo every time if you have it taken by Winter. Mr. Healy has had considerable work done on the Santiam bridge at this place this week. You can get all kinds of enlarging done by Winter, better and cheaper than any agent can or will do. There is to be several members of the Cumberland Presbyterian church baptized near Wheeler's saw mill next Sunday afternoon. Mr. Wm. Roland, one of Lebanon's old boys, is in town this week. He said he was going to spend the summer in the valley this year. More buggies and vehicles passed through town last Sunday on the road to Sodaville and Waterloo than any two days before this year. There will be an excursion from Albany to Yaquina Bay Sunday. The fare will be only $2.50, including a trip on a boat to Newport and back. Mr. Wm. Morrow was in town last Sunday. He is now working for Messrs. Gill & Smith of Seio. Bill has many friends at this place who are glad to see him. There was a sociable last Friday evening at the residence of Mr. J. M. Marks. Several of Lebanon's young people attended and all reported a most enjoyable time. Dr. Odell made Albany a visit this week and bought a fine buggy, and we understand has been buying some furniture. Doctor, you must not forget that printers like cake awful well. Messrs. F. M. Miller, H. E. Parrish and John Hope got an invitation, which they accepted, to go to Portland Monday to attend the suit which Watkins brought against the railroad. Mr. Henry Parrish, wife and daughter and Miss Lizzie Donaca; Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick, wife and two children will start for Fish Lake and across the mountains on Tuesday, the 18th inst., to be gone for two weeks or more. Mr. M. C. Schoenbut has closed out his bakery and lunch room in Lebanon. We are sorry to lose so good a citizen, and regret very much the suspension of this enterprise, for it is indeed a long felt want. Mr. Ross Humphrey has taken a contract to furnish all the timber for the Waterloo bridge and to deliver on the ground at $10 per thousand feet. Work will commence on this bridge in a few days. Several of our townsmen have gone to Portland this week, some to attend court, some to the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M., and some to "mind their own business." Mr. Ben Barker returned on Monday from the mines near Quartzville, bringing with him some very fine specimens, which are on exhibition in this office. The specimens of the G. B. claim are the finest of any that we have seen; such indications of the precious metals will certainly attract the attention of miners and capitalists. Preaching on the streets in Lebanon was a new sensation for our denizens last Monday night. The Holiness delegation, who have been holding a campmeeting at Sodaville, discoursed to quite a crowd in front of the St. Charles on Monday evening. The camp meeting at Sodaville closed on last Sunday night. It was well attended throughout, and the crowd on Sunday last was the largest ever seen at this celebrated watering place. We learn that the meeting resulted in much good, and that all who attended were very much pleased. We understand that the tabernacle tent and most of the workers in this Holiness organization will move to Jordan valley, Linn county.

Isn't it hot, though. About three inches of dust. F. M. French, Jeweler, Albany, Oregon. A copper mine has been found near Eugene. Better get your mowers and reapers in shape. Strawberries are not as plentiful as a while back. Oh, yes! I know it's hot; you need not tell me. Next Wednesday is the day for the circus to be in Albany. Remember there will be ice cream at the sociable to-night. Mr. Ruff Hiatt started to Eugene today after a bunch of sheep. Mr. Clint Gordon took a car load of cattle to Portland yesterday. Mr. Grant Roberts is clerking in Mr. Hackleman's store this week. Tinware and hardware of all kind at Deyoe & Robson, Albany Or. Winter has had over thirty years experience in the photo business. There will be a grand ball at Sodaville on the night of the Fourth. A fine line of buggy dusters and fly nets at Thompson and Overman's. Call and see M. A. Miller before you buy your machine oil; he defies competition. Fine line of guns and good stock of ammunition at Deyoe and Robson's special bargains. Mr. J. W. Guy and wife returned home yesterday from a visit to Mr. Guy's parents at Dallas. Messrs. C. C. Hackleman and J. A. Beard went to Portland this week to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge, and expect to go to Seattle before returning. Readers of this paper will save money by going to Deyoe and Robson whenever you want to buy anything in his line. The the contract for carrying the mail from the depot to the postoffice has been let to Mr. Arnett, his bid being the lowest, $125. Deyoe & Robson are agent for the new high arm Davis vertical-feed sewing machine. Best machine in the market. Albany Oregon. Mr. Healy, our road supervisor, and the town marshal are both working on the road from town to the bridge. They will get it in first-class order now. Mrs. N. J. Redpath, of Ft. Steilacoom, W. T., is visiting friends and relatives at this place. Mrs. R. is a daughter-in-law of Mrs. Montague, and is well known in our town. Mr. Dennis Klum has sold his livery stable at Sodaville and has rented the Gager place at Waterloo, where he intends running a board and lodging house and feed stable through this summer. The ladies of the M. E. church will give a lawn sociable this (Friday) evening on the academy grounds. Ice cream, lemonade and cake will be served. The public cordially invited. A good time is expected. We heartily return thanks to Dr. Peterson for a large branch of Royal Land cherries. They were certainly fine, and we tried to keep them, but no sooner was our back turned than they were gobbled up by the -- Mr. Holt brought as fine a basket of cherries as we ever saw to this office, last Wednesday. There were four different kind of cherries in it, but to save our lives we could not name them now, but they were real good and Mr. Holt his our heartfelt thanks. Mr. W. W. Stalker and family, consisting of his wife, three children and sister, last Wednesday arrived from Idaho. It will be remembered that Mr. Stalker has been here for a month or so and has bought property. We gladly welcome Mr. S. and family in our midst, and hope they will be well pleased. Mr. Oscar Healy, the road supervisor of this precinct, is putting all his road in good shape now, which certainly needs it. He is making all work double time this year. None should complain at this, for good roads are certainly a great advantage to any community, and he certainly deserves credit for the interest he has taken in the roads. Mr. O. Heins, an artist with years of experience, will be in our town next Thursday, June 20, for the purpose of taking photos in any style. Mr. Heins has as good a photographing outfit as there is to be found on this coast, and is prepared to do all kinds of work pertaining to his trade and warrants it all. He also carries a stock of albums and picture frames. He will remain here for ten days. Be sure to call and examine his work.

A BIG SMILE Overflows the faces of our customers when They Get A Taste Of our method of doing business. At first they are astonished and look on in amazement at the way we dispose of bargains, but when they catch on the fact that we give THE BEST QUALITY As well as the biggest quantity ever offered for like low prices, well, then they smile, and walk right up to the counter and call for their share, and spend money until the purse is empty but THE MAN IS FULL Of satisfaction with his bargains. Of course they smile; so do our clerks, so do we; and we feel like raising our voices In a Good Old Crow When we stand on top of the pile and feel ourselves master of the situation. Come along and See, Spend and Smile ---WITH--- C. C. HACKLEMAN, Lebanon, - - - - Oregon Grangers to the Front. The new and elegant grange hall on Sand Ridge was impressively dedicated on last Saturday, according to the ritualism of the order, and was conducted by H. E. Hayes, Master of the State Grange. The patrons of husbandry set a most sumptuous table and about five hundred feasted on the "fat of the land." After dinner the immense crowd was addressed by H. E. Hayes, Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Frine. Among the invited guests present we notice Hons. B. A. Irvine, R. C. Miller, S. A. Dawson and John Simpson and very many of the best citizens of the county. The ladies deserve great credit for the success of this entertainment, and Grange No. 57 has real cause for self congratulation on the outlook for its future. The Circus. The first performance of Sells Bros.' enormous circus was given last evening, and the huge tent was crowded to suffocation. The entertainment is the finest and most complete show of its kind ever seen in the city. The animal department has been filled with wild beasts of every description that can be successfully handled by a traveling show, and is at the same time the most attractive and instructive feature of the circus.—S. E. Journal of Commerce, April 27. Special Offer To the farmers of Lebanon and vicinity. I will sell you Machinery and Oils of all kinds as low, if not lower, than any firm in Linn county.
