PLEASED WITH LEBANON.

EDITOR EXPRESS, Lebanon, Or.:

Having occasion to visit this village, while on an extensive tour in search of a desirable location for a farm and home, I am fully persuaded that this beautiful Willamette valley surpasses every region through which I have passed in my journeyings, in every element of prosperity and future promise.

A trip from the Buckeye state across the continent over the N. P. R. R. will show the traveler many fine portions of country, as well as a vast area of rocky and desert land, destitute of both grass and water; the speed with which the traveler is carried making the contrast the more striking. From Portland southward the scene changes; you no longer are carried through whirling clouds of drifting sand, amid a wide expanse of sand and sage; but a wide and fertile valley, fresh in its verdure, and beautiful as the vision of a dream, opens up before the delighted traveler; who now may witness the many evidences of comfort and prosperity as he is carried swiftly on. Water appears to be abundant, cold and clear; crops of every kind seem to me to be very heavy; the wheat and oats surpass anything I have ever seen. Fruit is abundant, the cherries are the finest I ever beheld, and of small fruit, berries, etc., there appears to be an unlimited quantity.

Through the kindness A. R. Cyrus & Co. of this village, I have had several opportunities of riding about the country around Lebanon, and have observed a general air of neatness and comfort among the rural population, stock of all kind appears fat and sleek, crops abundant, springs numerous, soil excellent, and so far as I can judge, health first-rate.

Lebanon appears to be a thriving and prosperous town, having a fine trade, well supplied with churches and school privileges, and situated at the present terminus of a branch of the O. & C. R. R. Produce of all kinds finds a ready market; extensive ware houses are erected for the trade, and to the tourist or home seeker I cannot say better than to "come and look for yourself" and you will not be disappointed.

How to Become Famous.

The Walker, Iowa, News says: "Our old friend, Robert Baird, of Muscatine, Iowa, has been secretary of the state senate, and an active politician for years, but was never generally known until he had the colic, and used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and got into one of their advertisements. "Now he is famous." Here is what Mr. Baird said: "While in Des Moines, I was taken with a severe attack of bowel complaint. For two days I suffered intensely, trying several drug stores and paying them for relief, but in vain. I finally bought a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and two doses of that brought me out all right. I consider it a grand remedy." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

Springs in Union county which were thought to be never failing, are now dried up. Warner lake is lower than ever known before. Lake View, in Lake county which was located several years ago on the shore of Goose lake is now five miles distant from that body of water.

Why is it

That people linger along always complaining about that continual tired feeling? One bottle of BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER and BLOOD MAKER will entirely remove this feeling, give them a good appetite and regulate digestion. M. A. Miller, druggist.

It has been estimated that there are 5000 stray horses roaming over Wyoming ranges. Regular round-ups are now made each year, and a system of advertising the stray animals that will likely result in returning these strays to owners.
