returned to Salem. Miss Ethel Crane, on Tuesday, returned home to Portland. Isaac Leabo, of Oregon City, has for the past week, been visiting family friends at this place.

O. P. Coshaw and family and John Tranzen and family returned on Monday from the Upper Soda springs.

Thomas Kay Sr., Supt. of the Salem Woolen Mills, is preparing to move with his family to salem where they will, in the future, reside, Rev. A. Le Roy, pastor of the North Brownsville Baptist church, on Thursday left for a weeks' sojourn at the seaside.

O. P. Coshaw Sr., and S. R. Jessup, arrived home Tuesday from the mountains, where for the past two weeks, they have been enjoying fresh air and Thomas S. Pillsbury, wife and son, on Saturday last, left for a tour of the mountain resorts. They were accompanied by Mr. Percival and wife and family, and will be gone for the following two weeks.

Query, "what is the difference between a Waterbury watch and a Pillsbury watch? The "Waterbury" runs on "tick but Pillsbury sells for eash at bed rock prices the latest and most improved watchts, clocks and jewelry.

During the past week a blaze was discovered in the grain field of A. Hasbrouck, but fortunately before the fire had gained much headway, it was extinguished. Now that the dry season is upon us great care should be exercised in regard to starting fires, and all precautions taken to prevent the spread of the same, thereby saving much valuable property.

EDITOR EXPRESS:-Much has been saldin this community about the recent railroad calamity and many are loud in their comdemnation of those who deranged the switch, and this is well, but of the man who sold them the cursed compound, which caused the intexication, on the Sabbath in open violation of civil law, we hear nothing said. Why not put the blame where it belongs? He is the first party in fault, and cannot excuse himself by saying, he has a license, and is abiding the law, the fact is such men do not care for law, and are determined to pursue their nefarious business, without regard to the cost of life, or treas-

The citizens of Albany richly deserve a high commendation for their protest against the Sabbath, excursion to Yaquina last June. We now ask, what of the city laws against open saloous on the Sabbath, and of the officers that should enforce them. Will not the law and order abiding citizens of every city in this state combine, and exert an influence strong enough to close these gates of Hell, at least one day in the week.
