HE HAD RIS PIPE.

"Well, I don't care who it is; here with this uplifted hand to heaven, I pray that my creator will paralyze the man who has my pipe," said Patrick Gallagher, who felt in his pocket and could not find his beloved pipe. Before his utterances had died away, Gallagher felt a severe twitching of the heart and complained of feeling ill. A doctor was hastily sent for, who said he had received a stroke of paralysis. The physician pronounced the case a critical one, and death ensued in less than twelve hours.

The grief-stricken family were at a loss to understand his sudden death. However, in looking through his clothes removed at the time of the paralytic stroke, they were filled with superstitious horror, for in one of his pockets was found the missing pipe, which had worked its way into the lining.

DON'T LIKE CORSETS.

An Astoria girl who likes to pant in comfort has contributed to the poetry of the year: "How loose round my waist were the clothes of my childhood as my doubled up corset reminds me with pain; the slips that I wore when I used to chop stovewood had more real enjoyment than bustle or train; the bustle, I know, is a thing highly treasured by ladies built on the mocking bird style; but give me the garment with looseness unmeasured, the old mother Hubbard which weak men revile, the dear mother Hubbard, the loose mother Hubbard, the honored mother Hubbard, which beats any style."

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoen balsam in the house, as cramps, colle, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended at once. One bottle of BEGG'S DIARRHŒA BALSAM will do more good in cases of this kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. M. A. Miller, drug-
