

It is reported that quite a large number of physicians throughout the state have failed to comply with the law passed by the last legislature, which requires every physician to register in the county in which he practices. The board of examiners intend to compel them to comply with the statute or else take in their shingle.—Statesman.

Not a fit, but an expression of delight. "About a week ago," says a Los Angeles, Cal., druggist, "a Chinaman came in with a lame shoulder. I sold him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and guaranteed that it would cure him. He came in again last night and, as soon as he got inside the door, began to swing his arms over his head like an Indian club swinger. I thought the blamed fool had a fit, but he finally stopped long enough to say: 'Medicine velly fine, velly fine, alle same make me feel plenty good.'" Chamberlain's Pain Balm is without an equal for sprains, rheumatism, aches, pains or lame back. For sale by M. A. Miller.

We have all along had varying faith in the early completion of the O. P. railroad through this country, and of late have almost been lifted off our feet a number of times by the booming announcements in the Albany weeklies about work going to begin next week, and so on, but now the cup of joy (so-called) is rudely dashed from us, and our fondest hopes knocked west and crooked. On Thursday night of last week a burglar broke open the fire and burglar-proof safe of the Oregon Pacific company at Albany, and took therefrom two dollars. May the foul fiend get him.—Ochoco Review.

The Montana constitutional convention has declared that none but male citizens shall vote at general elections in that state. This has brought forth some unkind remarks from the supporters of woman suffrage, some even going so far as to declare that all single members of the convention shall never wed if it is possible to prevent it. If these lady suffragists can have their way marriage will be a failure with those members, at least.
